KANNAPOLIS CAGERS SET FOR CONCORD TONIGHT

Game at Concord.—Double Barrel Program on Top.—American Legion Men Hear Paul Younts, State Commander.—Seniors High School Ball Work For Archer' Funeral Services.

Kannapolis, Dec. 17.—Batting for neighborhood supremacy, Kannapolis high school and Concord Hi will take up their warfare tonight at the Concord high school gymnasium in a double barrel program.

The boys' classic is one of the oldest annual inter-scholastic games in this section of the state, the relationship being free from any sort of impurity.

The game tonight should be as close as a Scotchman in a theft campaign, judging from the way the teams stack up on paper. The Concord lads are in good fighting trim, according to Coach Bloomfield, who has developed a scrappy combination from a gang of newcomers.

The Mauldin troupe has been working out easy in preparation for the struggle. Four victories thus far this season pumps a world of confidence into the little brigade.

Probable line-ups follow:

- Concord: Pos. Kannapolis Hoover (c) Fowler (c) Right Forward Blackwelder Left Forward White Center Rollins Pike Center Widenhouse Right Guard Mabrey Left Guard Kethie

From this company of misses Captain Ollie Davis will select a sextette to oppose the Concord girls' team: Yvonne Mauldin, Ollie Davis, Pearl Nance, Blanche Walter, Dorothy Williams, Myrtle Daves, Beatrice Sides, and Pauline Tesh.

AMERICAN LEGION FETE Paul Younts, of Charlotte, State Commander of the American Legion, was the principal speaker at a meeting of the local post Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A.

Under the direction of Bob McGurt the local brass band enlivened the occasion with several patriotic tunes. Sam Nash presided and made the opening remarks, followed by pointed speeches from Post Commander S. Z. Pheiger and Rev. M. G. Grier.

MANY PAY M. O. ARCHER LAST RESPECTS. Funeral services for M. O. Archer.

er, well-known and prosperous citizen who died Monday morning at his home in North Kannapolis, were held Wednesday afternoon in the Saint John's Reformed Church, of which the deceased was a member.

PULL BOARDS FLOOD TOWN.

Kannapolis is becoming lopsided with pull boards, raffle cards. Everywhere one turns he is met by a "take-a-chance" agent who is so insistent one thinks he is in a Jewish conversion when he enters, but soon learns he has not money left to stage an American picnic.

Harvey Rae Peeler has arrived home from Ursaninus College to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Peeler.

Had Experience. Professor—Have you done any public speaking? Student—Yes, I once asked a girl for a date over our party line.

England has 9,837 bookmakers, this being the number of certificates issued by the Government under the new law which provides for the licensing of bookmakers and the taxing of all bets.

?s Guarding

Representative J. W. Darns, of Tennessee, challenged the "wisdom" of guarding John Coolidge, the President's son, with a detective paid by Federal funds.

Have You Heard This One?

That's True. "What is ratio?" asked the professor. "Ratio is proportion," said the student. "What is proportion?" "Proportion is ratio."

A New Study. Sophomore—"Did you ever take chloroform?" Freshman—"No, who teaches it?"

Counter Chat. "I want some consecrated ice." "You mean concentrated ice." "It does nothing any difference. That's what I camphor. What does it sulphur?"

Pity the Old Maids. Young man—Pardon me, this must be the wrong berth. Old Maid (sighing)—How you boys do jump at conclusions! Mrs. Peck—We have been married 20 years today, John.

John (with a sigh)—Yes, for 20 years we have fought. Mrs. Peck (sighing)—What? John (quickly)—Life's battles to either, Maria. Using an Auto Term. "There's just one thing to make a good dancer these days." "I know, Universal joints."

On For a Man. Flagger—Will a sticking hold all you want for Christmas? Old Maid—No, but a sock will.

Between them the University of Colorado and the Colorado School of Mines have won one-half of the football championship of the Rocky Mountain Conference during the twenty-six years of its existence.

One of the unusual features of the football season just closed was the number of instances in which teams came from behind to win or at least tie opponents which had second good leads in the early periods.
