

Four States Prepare To Fight More Rains And Swollen Streams

Thirteen Are Dead and 4,000 Homeless in Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky.

NASHVILLE FOLKS FORSAKE HOMES

3,000 in That City Forced to Leave Because of the Rising Waters.—Much Corn Destroyed.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 28.—(AP)—With the known dead in three southern states at thirteen, and approximately 4,000 homeless as a result of flooded streams, Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky today prepared for more rain. Property damage in the flooded areas has been estimated at more than a million dollars.

Six persons were reported dead in Arkansas, five in Mississippi and two in Tennessee as direct results of the flood. Three thousand were driven from their homes in Nashville when the Cumberland River overflowed its banks, and the crest had not been reached early today.

The product of thousands of acres of corn was being transferred from the lowlands of Kentucky and Indiana as a result of flood stage being reached in the Ohio River, with an expected further rise of five feet, as waters from the flooded streams pour into it before the crest is reached. Much ungathered corn has been ruined by flood waters in these two states.

Rain was forecast for every southern state today, and while the waters of many of the smaller streams had begun to recede, apprehension was felt in some sections over the prospect of further downpours. Tomorrow, however, will be generally fair over the South.

Only in a very few isolated places has relief work been hindered according to available reports. Train service has been badly crippled, with some schedules being entirely stopped, while others have been stopped by necessity of many detours. This is exceptionally true in Mississippi and Tennessee.

The larger rivers of Tennessee still were rising today but many of the smaller ones were reported as getting back to normalcy. The generally condition in Mississippi was reported as improving with the flood waters slowly receding. The worst of the floods which have caused six lives to be lost and hundreds of thousands of dollars in property damage in Arkansas was reported to have passed.

The lowlands along the Ohio River in Kentucky and in Indiana are just beginning to be badly flooded, dispatches from those sections say. Alabama has been hit by the floods in some sections but property damage was not estimated as great as in the other neighboring states. The greatest property damage was said to be in Nashville, where nearly 100 city blocks were flooded, hundreds of business houses and homes deserted, and great damage to crops and the outlying territory.

Most of the death reports have been due to highway traffic accidents. Scores of minor automobile accidents have been reported as the result of slippery roads. Many highways have been impassable for as long as a week. So far as is known, no great amount of suffering has resulted in ratio to the number who have been driven from their homes.

ASHEVILLE MURDER MYSTERY NOT SOLVED

Arrest of Negroes Does Not Entirely Clear Up Mystery of Nurse's Death. Asheville, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Asheville's most mysterious and gruesome Christmas tragedy was apparently little nearer final solution today than it was nearly four days ago when the mangled and lifeless body of Miss Mary McGuire, elderly hospital dietitian, was found by a negro laborer in the early morning hours of December 25th in mud and water at the entrance of Campbell's Wood under the bright rays of a street light.

Two negroes, William Avery and his wife, Adie, residents of the Campbell Woods section were placed under arrest about 1 o'clock this morning after they had been brought to police headquarters for questioning. They are being held in jail without bond on warrants charging aiding and abetting in murder, and as accessories after the fact. The arrests were made after several hours of questioning by the police. Avery and wife declare, however, they know nothing of the events in connection with the tragedy.

ALBERT B. FALL CONFINED TO BED WITH PNEUMONIA

EL PASO, TEXAS, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Illness again has confined Albert B. Fall to his home here. The former secretary of the interior contracted an irritation of the lungs over the week-end, which yesterday was diagnosed as pneumonia. Although his ailment was characterized as serious, his condition today was reported as generally satisfactory.

CUMBERLAND RIVER IS STILL RISING

Weather Observers Think Crest of Flood Will Be Reached Sometime During Wednesday.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 28.—(AP)—With more than 2500 persons made homeless by flood waters in Nashville, but comfortably sheltered, weather bureau officials declared early today that there is likelihood of the Cumberland river which now stands at 51.5, still going to a higher mark and that the crest will probably be reached tomorrow.

Several towns upstream from Nashville, however, already had hit by the flood, reported the river rapidly rising with a steady rain falling.

Rain was also falling in Nashville having started early last night, and was continuing at an early hour today. Weather officials reported it would take at least an inch of rain to increase the rise of the river here.

Forty-three of the 47 business houses of Bartlesville, Tenn., were flooded by backwaters from the river a mile away, and many families were forced from their homes.

Seventy-five houses at Celina, Tenn., are under water, and 25 of them are wrecked, while 75 others up and down the river were abandoned.

Buffalo Valley, a town of about 200 people, is completely submerged, all businesses being suspended, and the population sheltered in nearby farm houses.

As Ashland City, Clarksville, Ga., and other towns along the river outside of Nashville were damaged by the rising water.

The predicted rise here is expected to root more families from their homes. In nearly every instance families have been induced to move out of their homes before the waters reached them.

ALBERT FALL SERIOUSLY ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

EL PASO, TEXAS, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, who recently was acquitted in Washington with Edward L. Doherty on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the naval oil land leases, was seriously ill at his home here with pneumonia.

A bulletin issued by Dr. H. T. Safford said Mr. Fall was "resting easy" his condition showing little change.

Although the former secretary's illness was described as serious, his physician said that unless complication develop recovery was expected. Mr. Fall is 65 years old.

Hunt Is Renewed For Elusive "Kettlefoot"

Roone, N. C., Dec. 28.—(AP)—The annual hunt for "Kettlefoot" is under way. For the past decade, hunters have gone forth into the Black Mountain district, but rarely have they caught even a glimpse of the famed creature.

"Kettlefoot" is a black bear. Hunters who declare they have approached near enough to take a shot at him say that he weighs around 600 pounds, is extraordinarily fleet, and possessed of an uncanny ability to avoid capture.

Herders and farmer of the Black Mountains know "Kettlefoot" intimately. Looted barnyards, devastated on roads, and trampled truck patches have been regarded as signs of one of his visitations. The big bear got his name from the peculiar shape of his track which is said to resemble an old-fashioned iron kettle.

Heart failure is given as the reason for death. The old man had built a fire of twigs in a ditch by the roadside and was evidently crouched behind it when he toppled forward on his face in the ditch. He appeared to have been dead several hours.

ARREST TWO NEGROES IN ASHEVILLE MURDER

Negro Woman Tells Horrible Story in Connection With Killing of Miss McGuire.

Asheville, Dec. 28.—At 1 o'clock this morning, 70 hours after Miss Mary McGuire's body was found at the entrance to Campbell's woods, the first step in what police believe will be the solution of Asheville's most puzzling Christmas murder, came in the arrest of William Avery and his wife, Adie, negroes, who are held without bond as accessories after the murder.

The warrants were issued just before 1 o'clock as the climax to a night of investigation by City Solicitor James S. Howell, Policemen Frank Hagan and Harry Nolan, and the Avey's who had been brought to the police station for a grueling examination conducted by the solicitor and the officers were promptly lodged in the city jail to await preliminary hearing.

From the lips of Georgia Lee Henry, Hannah Robertson, her half sister, and the mother Lilly Jones, who live next door to William Avery came the story of a horrible drama played under the glare of city light at the entrance to Campbell's wood. It was this story which stood up under a grueling fire of questions that brought about the arrests which the police hope will mark the first step in the solution of the mystery.

"I was at a party on Hill street and went home to get some pickles to go with some chittlings," Hannah Robinson told the police. "As I passed by the corner I saw a car parked near the gate posts. I went on and got my sister, Georgia Lee, and we went back and then came on home. As we started up in our yard we heard a woman screaming and looked out toward the street. We saw a man with a long dark overcoat on leading a woman who was heavy set down the street. She was screaming. Her head wobbled from side to side like she was drunk or hurt and her coat collar was turned up like his so we could not see her face. The light made a shadow so we could not tell whether they were white or black. Then we got scared and went in the house. When we got in mamma called and asked us what was the matter, that she heard somebody screaming. We heard it too then and went to the door and looked through the glass. The woman kept on screaming out by the posts, then she stopped. Then we saw two men with flash lights run up on William Avery's porch."

Avery himself admitted that while the dance was in progress he sat near the front door and took the hats and coats of those that came in and hung them up.

"Did two men with flashlights come in that door just before word was brought by Clifton Yarborough that there was a woman lying out there in the road?" he asked.

"No, I did not see any men with flash lights," Avery said.

"Did two men come in the door just before the body was found in the road?"

"What do you mean just before?"

"Well, 15 minutes before."

"No, nobody came in 15 minutes before."

"Well one minute, or two, or three, or six, or eight?"

"No, I didn't see two men come in the door."

"Do you deny that two men came in that door just before the alarm was given?"

TANENHAUS BROTHERS ARE IN RECEIVERSHIP

Federal Court Judge at New York Places Receivers in Charge of Business.

New York, Dec. 27.—David Moshinsky and Percy Michaelbacher today were appointed equity receivers for Tanenhaus Brothers, Inc., a New York corporation operating chain clothing stores in North Carolina and South Carolina. They were required to furnish bond for $7,500.

Strin, Shafer and company and L. Hartz and Bank, both of Baltimore, the petitioners, avowed Tanenhaus, Inc., owed $158,000 to merchant creditors and $65,000 to 11 banks, but had face value assets of $520,000 and may be rehabilitated through efficient receivership.

The Tanenhaus difficulties, the petitioners said, chiefly were due to an overlong insufficiency of liquid assets. A creditors committee recently offered a 100 per cent settlement on the basis of 50 per cent preferred stock, 20 per cent cash and the remainder in notes, but some creditors refused this settlement and the Citizens National bank of Gastonia, N. C., brought suit for $3,500.

Tanenhaus stores are at High Point, Charlotte, Gastonia, Greensboro, Durham, Salisbury and Asheville, N. C., and Columbia, S. C.

Home Dances Rare; Guests Too Numerous. New York, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Expanding guests lists are darkening the ballrooms in New York mansions.

Only a few of the families in Knickerbocker society still use their own homes for dancing parties. The scene of daughter's debut has shifted to the fashionable clubs, restaurants and hotels, where the debutante of today makes her bow to a thousand guests.

Each year there have been more persons to whom the daughters must be introduced. Cutting-in became the vogue at dances and the young ladies, measuring their popularity by the number of young gentlemen who sought them out, insisted upon a "stag line" of as many eligible men as possible. Boy-friends from college and other friends of the invited guests increased the attendance.

Some of the older families, however, consider it unnecessary to include such a large representation of society at their parties, so they continue to use their homes for the affairs. They include Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, the James A. Burdens, Mrs. Whitehall Reid, the C. B. Alexanders, the Otto H. Kahn and several others.

Charlotte Doctor Advocates Change in Marriage Statute. Charlotte, Dec. 27.—Examination of applicants for marriage licenses by county physicians instead of any physician they may choose was advocated here today by Dr. W. A. McPhail, city-county health officer. This should be done without any fee he said.

Asserting that the present law is becoming a "farce," Dr. McPhail said that "the law needs more teeth in it."

"The present statute," he continued, "is of good educational value and that is all I can say for it."

"What the state needs if such a law is to be on the statute books, is a law requiring that marriage applicants be examined by the county health officer and make it unlawful for a private physician to issue a medical certificate for marriage."

WEATHER FORECAST. Rain tonight, colder on the south coast; Wednesday partly cloudy and colder. Fresh to strong east winds, shifting to northwest late.

PROHIBITION AGENT SUSPENDED FOR NOT FOLLOWING ORDERS

R. H. Lovelace is Said to Have Been Suspended for Firing on an Alleged Moonshiner.

ANDREWS GAVE ORDERS ABOUT THIS

This Is First Agent in District to Be Suspended for "Promiscuous Shooting," It Is Said.

Charlotte, Dec. 28.—(AP)—R. H. Lovelace, of Elkin, prohibition raider of note, who gained some fame through his raids on mountain liquor strongholds, has been suspended by R. Q. Merrick, of Richmond, administrator for North Carolina and Virginia, on charges that he unlawfully shot an alleged moonshiner.

This was learned here today and confirmed from Merrick's office at Richmond, but details could not be ascertained. Mr. Merrick is in Asheville today, it was said at his office in Richmond.

This is the first suspension in this district since General Lincoln C. Andrews announced that prohibition agents "must cease shooting promiscuously."

The suspension was made, officials here said, on receipt at Richmond, of an affidavit signed by an alleged moonshiner, who said he would be willing to "make a clean breast of it all." He is said to have asserted he was running away when Lovelace fired, and managed to escape.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at An Advance of 5 to 8 Points.—March Goes to 12.90.

New York, Dec. 28.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 5 to 8 points on a continuation of yesterday's buying movement inspired by the relative firmness of the near months and reports of continued unfavorable weather for saving the balance of the crop in the South.

The advance to 12.90 for March and 13.28 for July contracts met considerable realizing, while there also seemed to be a little Southern selling. Prices ended off 7 or 8 points from the best of the end of the first hour. Buying was less active yesterday, suggesting that the short interests had been largely reduced.

Private cables said there had been continental buying of distant months in Liverpool, supplied by hedging and liquidation.

Cotton futures opened steady: Jan. 12.71; March 12.90; May 13.07; July 13.26; Oct. 12.90.

A crowd of 30 men said to have been hooded, rode into the town of Lyons, Christmas eve, at twilight and seized Wimberly E. Brown, prominent attorney here, who assisted the state in the prosecution of men accused of flogging Wilson.

Brown was carried some distance into the country stripped of his clothing and beaten, it is stated. He was then brought back to town and pitched into the street in front of the drug store, where he was seized.

BELIEVE SITUATION IN NICARAGUA NOW IS MUCH IMPROVED

Meager News Dispatches and Official Reports Lead to This Belief at American Capital.

NEUTRAL ONE IS WELL PROTECTED

President Diaz Has Heeded Warning and Troops Are Recalled From Pearl Lagoon Zone.

Washington, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Termination of the situation which led Rear Admiral Julian Latimer to land American bluejackets and marines at Cabanas was thought to be nearer today by Washington observers after reading the news dispatches and meager official reports from Nicaragua.

They regarded as particularly significant in this respect the decision of President Diaz to withdraw the conservative government troops from the Pearl Lagoon fighting zone, and the spread of neutral zones established by Admiral Latimer for protection of Americans along the east coast which has been dominated for some time by the liberal forces.

Official accounts of the four-day battle at Pearl Lagoon in which the Diaz troops were defeated, were lacking in Washington, but a dispatch from Managua last night placed the liberal strength at 1,550 well armed against 1,300 in the withdrawing force, and quoted the American collector of customs at Bluefields as saying 300 Mexicans had been reported fighting with the victors.

It has been made clear to the Diaz authorities as well as to liberals that they must disarm if they enter the neutral zones, which have been extended to include El Bluff as well as Puerto Sabazan, the seat of the government set up by Juan B. Sacasa and recognized by Mexico, and Bluefields and Rion Grande Bar. Decision as to withdrawal of American forces rests with Admiral Latimer, who has command of the special service squadron maintained in the navy in Central American waters.

Washington authorities hold that the landing of naval forces at Puerto Cabanas and Rio Grande Bar does not amount to intervention in the Nicaraguan civil strife, but nevertheless agents of the fauna here and at Mexico City insist that it is intervention and have found that censorship the contention in La Nacion, published at Santiago, Chile, which said it was not necessary for protection of Americans, but "deliberate support of a government whose legality is as questionable as that of the government it opposes in civil war."

The fauna agents also charged that censorship is preventing the public from receiving news of events in Nicaragua and is barring messages addressed to them.
