CONCORD THEATRE STARTS VAUDEVILLE TUESDAY

Theatre to Add Miniature Musical Comedies to Program of Pictures on Tuesday and Thursday.

On Tuesday, February 1st, the Concord Theatre inaugurates a change of policy in so far as each Tuesday and Friday are concerned. For, on these days of each week, they propose to offer Miniature Musical Comedy companies, with their best feature pictures of the week, and their usual comedies and news reels.

The Theatre is selecting only the best of these smaller musical shows, and will have each company play the Concord these two matinees and night shows changing the entire program each time, with a complete change of feature pictures, comedies and news reels.

This innovation is only possible because of the fact that the Carolina Theatres, Inc., the company operating the Concord Theatre also operates theatres in several nearby towns, which gives them the opportunity of contracting for these musical shows by the week and with their own buses transport them from town to town, playing Lexington, Mondays and Thursdays; Concord, Tuesdays and Fridays; Hickory, Wednesdays and Saturdays, giving the very best two bills in each town, with the best specialties, etc. in each town. This is a very good arrangement for it insures the very best entertainment of this sort to the patrons of the Concord at the lowest price possible commensurate with this quality of show.

The management of the Concord assures the public that the musical comedy companies that play the Concord Theatre under his management will be clean, and in order to get the ladies of Concord and vicinity quickly acquainted with the quality of these miniature musical shows the management of the Concord offers free admission to any lady, Tuesday matinee, February 1st, if accompanied by a paid adult ticket.

The new manager of the Concord Theatre, Philip Sasseen, is not holding in the best feature pictures that were booked in to his theatre prior to the booking of these musical shows, but will show these extra specialties, in with the musical shows, whereas most theatres show cheaper pictures with any musical show that they might offer their patrons.

Mr. Sasseen, in an interview with a Tribune representative today, stated that the pictures he is playing next Tuesday "The Great Deception," and "Summer Bachelors" the following Friday, February 4th, and "The Winning of Barbara Worth" on Tuesday, February 8th, are pictures that alone would command fifty cents admission in most towns, without any added attractions whatever. And these three pictures just mentioned are just the kind of pictures that are to be played with these musical shows.

Mr. Sasseen says they will charge only twenty cents for children and forty cents for adults to the matinee and twenty-five and fifty cents at night.

They will start the matinee pictures at one o'clock as usual, with the musical show, or "Vaudeville," as most people here are accustomed to call it, to start at three o'clock and the pictures running continuously, which will make the "vaudeville" start at night around eight o'clock, with the pictures to follow the vaudeville again.

Doings at First Methodist Protestant Church.

Congregations that taxed the capacity of the First Methodist Protestant Church were present for the three services Sunday morning, and evening worship, last Sunday. The Sunday school attendance broke all former records. At the morning worship hour the pastor spoke on "The Glories of the Cross," which was the first of a series on "The Cross." At night the Men's Brotherhood delighted all present with their huge five-voice chorus.

The Wednesday evening meeting was another of our unusual "Church Night" meetings. Notwithstanding the cold rain falling at church hour, almost a hundred came for the service.

Sunday, January 20th, the Sunday School attendance is expected to run above 300. The orchestra will give the usual concert beginning at 9:30 a. m. At 11 a. m. the pastor will deliver another message on the cross, "The Magnificent of the Cross." At the 7 p. m. service which has been styled "Antiphonal Song Night," a sixty-voice, two-section, mixed chorus will sing. A message on "Standing Up to Life," by Rev. G. H. Hendry the pastor, will be delivered.

Next week a number of cottage prayer meetings will be held in the interest of our Evangelistic services which begin the first Sunday in February. A welcome awaits all worshippers. X.

Marvin Long's Ford Stolen.

The Ford roadster belonging to Marvin Long was stolen Friday night from in front of the Y. M. C. A. The car was taken between 7:45 and 8:30.

Mr. Long made a search in the city Friday night and early this morning but was unable to locate his car. He hoped that the thieves had merely borrowed it and would desert it near or in the city sometime during the night.

Property Leased for 10,000 Years.

London, Jan. 20.—The longest lease in the City of London, if not in the world, is that on which two buildings in Bury Street have just been leased for 10,000 years, on a yearly rental of $1,000. The usual period of a lease in London is 99 years, although a term of 999 years has been known.

"To take a little rest," N. Meyer of Jordan, Miss., 70 years old, voluntarily retired January 1 after 48 years continuous service as county judge of probate.

MAN SAYS PRAYER CURED HIM OF HIS ILLNESS

Was Prayed For Thursday Night at Fraser Meeting and Returned Friday Night to Stay Home Good.

A man prayed for Thursday night with all the symptoms of influenza, cough, sore eyes, etc., was at the Court House last night with all the symptoms gone and declaring "this is the first time in a week I have really felt well." The sore eyes had completely disappeared and the cough was gone. Evangelist Fraser said today this was just another instance of God's healing willingness as demonstrated nightly at the meetings. At 7:45 tonight he will preach a special sermon on "Hard Work and Low Wages," and tomorrow afternoon and night there will be the usual big Sunday meetings. At 3 o'clock he will speak on "Christ, No Ghost," and at 7:45 on "The Signs of the Times and the Near Second Coming of the Lord." There will be special music at both services and big out of town delegations are expected.

Last night two local ministers were in the audience. The evangelist paid a high public tribute to Rev. Jesse C. Rowan, minister of the First Presbyterian Church here for his talk to the Men's Class at their dinner Thursday night. He said that Dr. Rowan's talk on "personal evangelism" was the one point stressed at the Fraser meetings, and declared that he was delighted that a minister should so clearly point out the great importance of this phase of the Christian life to his congregation.

"It would be an interesting question to ask a company just joining a church: 'Which of them will love Him most,' he said. 'Worship is the flame of divine love, and since God seeks worshippers it is our great business to get people to love the Lord Christ, Jesus, hence the importance of personal evangelism. The sum and total of Christianity is Divine love. Every development of Christianity is a development of love. Every precept in the Bible aims at this happy result for the end of the commandment is love. It is greater to excel in love for Jesus than to excel the whole world in art, or literature, or cotton weaving, or preaching. The greatest in the Kingdom of God are those who love Him most. John tells us that 'everyone that loveth is born of God.' No one can love until they have been born from above. Divine love is the fruit of the Spirit and can never be obtained from any other source. The more we see the sinfulness of sin the more we will love Jesus when we are forgiven."

The evangelist last night talked on: "How to appropriate the blessing of bodily healing." He announced that he would pray for the sick every night. "If the influenza sufferers could get to the meeting," he said, "and learn of God's compassion they would find Him the Great Physician," he said, although if there was danger of contagion he urged sufferers to keep away if they should in any way spread the disease, which he said was of Satanic origin. Influenza is a germin disease, germs come from the city; no impure thing originates in heaven; Satan is called the Prince of the Air, and hence the germs come from him, he argued.

Prior to the war between Mexico and the United States the two countries covered approximately equal areas of North America, but as a result of that war nearly a million square miles of territory were transferred to the United States. The central portion surrounded by towns later. Even now, however, Mexico covers an area as big as the aggregate of Prussia, Austria, Hungary, France and Great Britain and Ireland.

NEW CLOTHING CONCERN OPENS IN CITY TODAY

Perry Clothing Company is Latest Addition to Business Enterprises in Concord.

This morning marked the addition of a new business house to the list of firms in Concord, with the opening of the Perry Clothing Company, in the store formerly occupied by the Ruth-Kessler Show Company.

The new firm, with Sid A. Perry as manager, is composed of a number of Concord business men, all of the capital being subscribed by local people.

Men's and ladies' clothing will be handled by the new concern, and with the wide experience of Mr. Perry in this line of merchandise, a bright future for the company is predicted. For a number of years Mr. Perry was the Concord manager for Farley's, and during his stay here he had made a wide circle of friends.

The new store room has been attractively renovated and remodeled, and this with the addition of modern and appropriate fixtures give the place an inviting appearance.

The personnel of the clerical force, besides the manager, includes: Miss Pauline Shelton, bookkeeper; Miss Jessie Burkhead and Mrs. Joe Paris, sales ladies; O. W. Davis, salesman.

Breaking It Gently.

"Miss Ponder," said the boss, "you are a very handsome young woman."

"Oh," said the typist, blushing.

"You dress neatly and you have a well-modulated voice. Your deportment is also above reproach."

"You shouldn't pay me so many compliments."

"Oh, that's all right," said the boss. "I merely wanted to put you in a cheerful frame of mind before taking up the matter of punctuation and spelling."

The Desirable Margin.

The passengers in the big car speeding toward the railroad crossing began arguing whether or not they could beat the train.

"Don't get excited," said the driver. "I can easily make it."

"And I say you can't," shouted the front-seat passenger. "The train will beat us by twenty seconds."

"Gee!" said the driver, who kept increasing his speed while the argument continued.

Finally a passenger in the rear seat, who had said nothing so far, remarked as he clutched the sides of the rushing car. "For my part, I don't care a hang who wins this race, but I hope it won't be a tie."

Fire No Respector of Victims.
 The Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel

Raleigh, Jan. 20.—Fire is no respecter of its victims. This fact was brought out recently when fire destroyed a large part of the efforts of the department of conservation and development, its avowed enemy, on a forest nursery experimental plot in Wake county.

The flames wiped out several hundred young pine seedlings which were planted by F. H. Claridge, assistant forester, and his forestry class from State College. Ground on which the seedlings were planted is privately owned, its use being allowed the department by the owner.

Although Forester Claridge is bemoaning the loss of the seedlings and the experimental records, he is consoled by one demonstration that is furnished to the public—that small trees will not withstand even winter fires.

"Not one of the trees in the area that was burned over survived," said Forester Claridge. "Fires on forest lands will do the same thing. This shows that if reforestation is to be practiced successfully there must be adequate protection from fire, and that it does not pay to burn over woodlands."
