Bible Thought for Today

CONFIDENCE—"And the Lord said * * * I have known Abraham to the end that he may command his children * * * that they may keep the way of the Lord, to do righteousness and justice."—Gen. 18:17, 19. Prayer—Eternal Father, enable us so to live and teach, that our children and youth may do Thy will in righteousness and justice.

LOCAL MENTION

The skating season opens at the armory tonight. Skates will be furnished for those desiring to skate.

The business men's volleyball team of the Concord Y. M. C. A. will have a practice tonight at the "Y" gymnasium.

Dr. George F. McAllister, of Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute, was the speaker today at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club held at Hotel Concord.

One case of German measles, one case of scarlet fever, one case of mumps and two cases of whooping cough were reported Thursday at the County Health Office.

The volleyball team of the Kannapolis Y. M. C. A. won three games and lost one game when it met the team of the local Y. M. C. A. The locals won the first game and lost the last three.

Members of the high school baseball team and aspirants for places on the team are practicing daily now. Members of the track team also are busy in preparation for the big meet to be held at Davidson in the near future.

Albemarle Press: "Among those attending the funeral of Mrs. Shelley Howell in Concord Tuesday morning were Mesdames P. J. Huneycutt, Maurice V. Hugo, Jim Underwood, Eli Kendrick, W. W. Talbert, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parks, and Miss Rachel Huneycutt.

Temperatures almost like those of summer prevailed in Concord Thursday. The sun shone brightly throughout the day and there were no clouds in the skies. The high temperatures prevailed throughout the night also, with the result that it was cloudy this morning.

A regular meeting of the Fred Y. McConnell Post of the American Legion will be held at 7:45. Information concerning bonus loans will be given at the meeting by Commander W. M. Sherrill, who conferred yesterday with representatives of the Veterans' Bureau in Charlotte.

Baseball is coming into its own again now. On every vacant lot in the city youngsters meet every day to enjoy the national pastime. Marble playing is also popular at this season and many boys have worn out stockings and sore knuckles to prove their interest in the game.

Albemarle Press: "Among those attending the funeral of Mrs. John Snyder in Concord Sunday afternoon were: Her brother, Mr. D. B. McCurdy and wife, Mrs. E. E. Sauggs, Mrs. George McCain, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Boger, Mr. R. W. Osborne and daughters, Mae and Bess, and Messrs. D. P. Boger, J. W. Gaddy, and H. P. Morrow.

Records Wanted.

Concord Observer. We are working on a complete record and roster of all the veterans of the war between the States who saw service and who lived in Cabarrus. We want the date of the deaths of these soldiers to include in the record. We have lots of these dates but not all. Would be glad to get them all from 1865 to date to publish in this book to be issued by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Gaston Hospital Sued By Patient. Winston-Salem, March 17.—Paul Johnson, of Forsyth county, Wednesday filed a complaint in Superior court in which he is seeking to recover $15,000 from the City Hospital Company of Gastonia. The complaint alleges negligence on the part of hospital attendants in setting a broken arm for the plaintiff on December 12, 1923. The plaintiff claims in his complaint that his arm was broken between the wrist and the elbow and that "mis-setting" has resulted in permanent injury.

I'm acquainted with the habits of this fly-by-night bird, Dr. Stork. He and I have been acquainted for some time. He appreciates my helpfulness and whispers lots of things to Mrs. Maternity's husband about my stock of the things the nurse will need.
