MT. PLEASANT COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE THRASHES OUT 15 TO 3 VICTORY OVER HIGH

Last Year's State Prep Champions Lead on Four Tropic Hurlers for a Volley of Clean Hits.—Sunday Programs Announced.—Volley Ballers Leave Thursday For Atlanta.

Kannapolis, March 10.—Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute, last year's state prep champions, thrashed out a 15 to 3 win over the Kannapolis High "Little Wonders" in a free swinging and loosely enacted diamond affair at Mt. Pleasant Friday afternoon. It was the second triumph of the week for the Cadets, Wineoff having been vanquished, 22 to 1, Tuesday afternoon in a six inning exhibition.

The game was as exciting as a Sherlock Holmes detective story until the end of the third stanza. Funderburke and Davis had a beautiful slab duel, but in the fourth Funderburke ran into a storm of base raps and finally was driven to shelter. "Counsellor" Rollins was rushed out to stem the tide after it was too late to be stemmed. The latter was knocked and M. Widenhouse, who replaced him was not effective. Red Fowler, shortstop, finished the game.

Allman, Cadet outfielder, won the batting honors of the day with three doubles. Ballard, toweler receiver, belted three hits in four visits to the tee, while Watts, Mt. Pleasant catcher who gained wide renown with Gibson Mill last summer, wallowed one of Funderburke's twisters for a round trip, sending in three men ahead of him.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Kannapolis—020 001 000—3 7 4. Mt. Pleasant 102 402 008—15 12 1.

Funderburke, Rollins, Widenhouse, R. Fowler, and Ballard; Davis and Watts. Summary: Two-base hits, Allman (3), Goodman, Davis, Ballard, Rev. Three-base hit, Ayres. Home run, Waltz. Double plays: Watts to Ayres to Klutz. Left on bases, Kannapolis 7; Mt. Pleasant 6. Base on balls: Off Davis 2; Widenhouse, 3; Rollins 1. Struck out: Davis 10; Funderburke 2. Hits off Funderburke 9 in 5 innings; Rollins 3 in 3 innings. Losing pitcher Funderburke. Umpires, Guthrie and Crane. Time of game 1:55.

CLOSE-UPS OF KANNAPOLIS NEWS ITEMS

The Kannapolis Y volleyball team will leave Thursday morning for Atlanta to compete in the big Southern Carnival. A number of the businessmen of the town, including T. M. Widenhouse, E. J. Sharpe, and others, will accompany the players.

Hard drills have been reeled off during the past week and every man, in the Provincial pink of condition, is on his toes and ready for the official announcement, "play ball." Two victories were collected last week when the Concord volleyballers were the victims in both affairs. Of the first set, which took place here Tuesday night, Concord was drubbed four times out of five starts while in the final set Concord annexed the opener 15 to 12 but dropped the other four tilts by overwhelming counts.

Edward Hanes Kelley, University student, is spending the week-end with his parents here.

M. P. C. I. TO BATTLE SPENCER TUESDAY AT SPENCER

The strong Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute baseball team will meet the Spencer Hi nine Tuesday afternoon at Spencer, according to announcement made here Saturday by the M. P. C. I. manager.

The Cadet cohort seized the North Carolina prep title last year and prospects are bright for a duplication this year. Two games have been played thus far this season, Wineoff falling for by 22 to 1 and Kannapolis tasting a 15 to 3 defeat.

Several old men have returned to make the team almost formidable, even against college outfits. Watts, who skied to a high perch in amateur ball last summer with Gibson Mill; Davis, of Albemarle Hi fame; Goodman, noted Greensboro Hi athlete; Cox, Allman and Duwe are among those on the team.

On Saturday afternoon the Cadets will battle Wingate College at Mt. Pleasant, while on April Fool Day an invasion will be made of Oak Ridge. Twenty games are listed on the season's calendar.

FENNER AND BEANE COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, March 18.—Cotton prices moved but little today and trading was largely of an evening character. Prospects of had weather and large spinners takings stimulated some covering and gave the market a good tone and slightly higher range of prices. Map shows considerable rainfall over Arkansas and Tennessee and the forecast is for rains over the week-end with cold wave behind. Mr. Hester made spinners takings 420,000 and the total for the season is now a million over last year while exports are about two million greater. Chief interest is centered in the final spinning figure and the forecast is that they are not apt to have much influence on prices but probably will if they vary much either way. Trading between now and the census figures is likely to be of an evening up character and prices are not apt to change much either way.

FENNER AND BEANE

Seize Jimison on Rum Charge.—Winston-Salem, March 18.—Tom P. Jimison, Charlotte attorney, ex-preacher and former labor leader, was arrested tonight on a charge of violating the prohibition law. Jimison was arrested with T. P. McNulty and Gus Bell when the police seized a quantity of liquor near their automobile. At midnight the three were being detained at police headquarters, but were expected to arrange bond. Jimison denied having any knowledge of the "rum." He said he was en route to Lexington to take a train for Charlotte, where he said he was to appear in a case in municipal court tomorrow morning.

SEEN ABOUT NEW YORK

New York.—Thousands of white crosses chalked or painted on window panes of buildings under construction give parts of New York a cabalistic appearance.

The crosses, however, are merely indications to workmen that glass has been installed in those windows.

There is a building boom of Floridian proportions in New York all the time, and this in itself is ample evidence to two groups of aged women that the city is going to the dogs.

They are scattered through the city after having been driven by progress from their homes in two old fashioned hotels opposite each other in Fifth Avenue. Sky-scrapers are rising on the building sites.

Even before their rout the aged women complained that New York "isn't what it used to be" in the good old days when 59th Street was almost in the country.

"One used to know everyone one saw on Fifth Avenue Sunday morning," they said. "Now one may see almost any one."

Land values are driving even the wealthy from their Fifth Avenue mansions into apartments, and in turn high rents of apartments are forcing a revival of seedy houses in once-fashionable sections.

Small brownstone homes are being reclaimed and restored by young couples who can't afford roomy apartments. Such an old house has a wisteria vine in front and a magnolia tree in the garden at the rear.

One of the Vanderbilts started the reclaiming movement several years ago by building in Sutton Place, then a tenement section.

Fifty-seventh street bounds with fashionable shops and fashionable garçons. The other day a luxurious limousine stopped before one of the shops and an expensively dressed young woman emerged.

On the sidewalk she turned with a most superior air, as if to give an order to her chauffeur, and dropped her chewing gum into the gutter.

JEWELS AND CLOTHES TEMPT POOR WIVES

Billie Dove Says Average Woman Isn't Goldigger, But Loves Finery.

"The average woman isn't a gold-digger, but she is eternally tempted by beautiful clothes, and especially, I think, by expensive furs. To most women, furs are more tempting than jewelry. And young, pretty, loving wives are by no means exempt from these temptations."

So says Billie Dove, charming screen actress, who is featured with Lewis Stone and Lloyd Hughes in

An Affair of the Follies," which Al Rocket produced for First National. "A young wife may be very, very much in love with her husband, but at some time she is liable—in fact, almost certain—to face temptations that arise from modern social conditions," Billie declares. "She is sure to meet some man who could give her more beautiful things than her husband, and who is not above offering all sorts of bait. Then the sense of loyalty and honor, as well as love, must come to her aid." Miss Dove was discussing the basic situation of the film wherein she plays a wife who had been a chorus beauty prior to her marriage to a young clerk and her relinquishment of her familiar life and surroundings to wrestle with the problems brought about by her husband's slender salary and later loss of position. Plenty of real drama, humor and touches of pathos are found in this intensely human story which might be a page from the life of almost any young married couple who are not overburdened with wealth. Millard Webb directed the picture, which is

Suppose you met a Chorus Girl--

—and fell in love with her —and she loved you —and you got married —but you weren't making enough to support her —so she went back to the lure and glare of the foot-lights "just to help out the family income"
