The guard at first refused to admit

The gunrd at first refused to admit Quo Tai Shi, because he declined to submit to search. After calling on the British consult to protest and be-ing advised that the consul was mable to assist him, he went to the mu-police gunrd and thus gained admis-sion to the building without a search. Anong their specialties, cod service and protection of radius based action of the multiple service to the state of North Carolina, and second state of North Carolina and second state of North Carolina in the Board of Health, and those in other depart-ments of the board, show that Dr. State a consul was accredited to a govern-ing against international rights, as a consul was accredited to a governagainst international rights, a onsul was accredited to a govern t not acity, which did not posses right to take such action,

Of course, it is hard'y reasonable to suppose, according to Mr. Maning, that by any means all of those who apply for loans under the act, which set aside $2,000,000 to be used as loan fund, will be able to benefit under the act and borrow the maximum of $3,000. But a goodly per cent of those who have applied will be able to get a loan under the act, the thinks. The two most important questions first, whether the State of North Car-olina could vote funds to men for performing a service to the mation whether or not the passage of such an area was not chese legislation. The Supreme Court, however, answered both of these questions satiafactoriz, and now the act is the law of thr

Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel. By J. C. BASKERVILL. Raleigh, April 8.—There is a pos-sibility that no suit to enjoin the Secretary of the State from distrib-uting the printed copies of the Public Laws of 1927 will be brought, and if it is, it will not be for several days, or several weeks. This was inferred today when Frank Nash, Assistant Attorney Gen-eral said in answer to a question as to when the suit would be brought : "There may not be any suit brought at all." all." He declared that no action of any

He declared that no action of any kind would be taken toward the test-ing of the validity of the county and municipal finance act, and the per-manent improvements appropriation acts, whose constitutionality has veen questioned by Chester B.
