Teachers to serve the public schools of Concord for the 1927-28 scholastic year were chosen by members of the school board at a meeting held Tuesday night in the offices of J. A. Cannon, chairman.

Practically all of the present teachers were reelected, it was stated by Prof. A. S. Webb, superintendent of the schools. Mr. Webb was unanimously reelected as was Prof. A. H. Jarratt, principal of the high school. Mr. Webb stated that the list of teachers would be announced later.

Miss Agnes Efird, Miss Julia Arrowood, Miss Sarah Noe and Miss Muriel Bulwinkle notified the board previous to the meeting that they would take up new work next year, so they were not chosen.

To succeed Miss Efird and Miss Arrowood at Central Grammar School the board selected Miss Ruth Blackwelder and Miss Emily Weddington, both of Concord. Miss Blackwelder has taught in the schools here before, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blackwelder. Miss Weddington will come from the Mebane schools, where she is completing her second year as teacher.

It was not announced who had been secured to succeed Miss Noe and Miss Noe will enter Columbia University in the Fall, it was stated, and Miss Bulwinkle will be associated with the High Point schools.

Tar Heel Trackmen Meet State Friday.

Chapel Hill. April 27.—The Tar Heel track squad clashes with N. C. State on Riddick Field in Raleigh Friday afternoon of this week in the final dual meet of the season. Only that meet stands between the Far Heels and a clear dual meet record for the fourth consecutive year, and Coach Bob Fetzer is bending every effort to win from the Techmen.

The Tar Heels are just nome from a week's invasion of Georgia, and fresh from victories over both Georgia and Georgia was by a subtantial score, but the win from Lech was by a 65 to 61 count and featured by a tremendous Tar Heel rally, in the closing events of the day.

To date this year the Tar Hee's have wan from Duke, V. P. I., Virginia, Georgia and Georgia Tech. A win from the State College runners and field men. Friday will enable them to enter the State and the Southern Conference meets with a clean state.

Gus Tebell's State outfit apparently is strongest in the field events, while the Tar Heels boast their greatest threat in the distance running events. Starting the season with seemingly little strength in the field contests, Coach Bob Fetzer has developed several capable field men, and Friday's meet bids fair to bring some fine records in all classes of competition.
