GOODLY SIZED CROWD TO MEET.

A goodly crowd of fans and officials turned out for the meeting. Following the election of new officers the greater part of the time was given. Over to a discussion of the needs of the club. The greatest need materialized from an idea that originated with Mr. Sharpe who echoed that the men in attendance underwrite-one thousand dollars to begin, and gradually increase the amount to three thousand dollars or one thousand fans at three dollars each. This will defray the expenses of the playing manager during the season and pay for ally increase; the amount to the stress of the playing man ager during the season and pay for the services of two star moundsemen.

The rest of Ahe players will be paid from the receipts taken at the grates.

Mr. Sharpe also announced that Charles A. Cannon, president of the Cannon Mills Company, had agreed to rebuild the Cabarrus Park and should a fast team be guaranted the work of reconstruction will begin at once.

MANAGERIAL SELECTION NOT KNOWN.

The selection of a playing manager was not made known, the entire matter being placed, in the hands of Business Manager Lady, who will receive a fortnight to consider the applicants for the job.

The moset prominent timber for that berth revealed the names of Bob Kirke, of China Grove, the highly successful pilot of last year's contingent, and Oscar Donaldson, who is apt to be clipped off the payroll at Spartanburg because of his being the fifth class performer on the Kelley team. Donaldson was in the city Friday morning and his appearance gave air loss ground.

NOVARRO'S LOVE AT THE THEATRE BEGAN AT TWELVE

Present of a Marionette Theatre Created His Interest in Drama.

A theatrical producer at twelve.

A world film idol at twenty-seven. This is the gamut of the eventful history of Ramon Novarro, here of "Ben-Hur," star of a dozen other big features, now appearing in the principal role of "Lovers," which comes Monday and Turesday to the Concord Theatre, with Alice Terry as the heroine, and a big Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer cast,
