A Cool Costume in Black and Gaily Printed Crepe de Chine.

There is no more useful street costume for warmish weather than the simple frock of crepe de chine, with a slim straight coat to be worn over it.

The one shown here chooses black crepe de chine, and combines it with printed crepe de chine using bright red and touches of black on a white ground. The coat is lined to match, and has loops and black ball buttons all the way down the front.

A hat of cream felt, with the crown out in pattern and fitted down over a band of black satin is worn with ensemble.

News and Views of Women

College Girl Has $100 Prize Smiles. Fort Worth, Texas—Miss Willa Mae Lee, an orphan earning her way through college, won this year's $100 prize for being the "smilingest" girl on the campus at Texas Woman's College last year. Before entering college last year, Miss Lee lived at the Waco Methodist Home.

As the climax of a contest instituted last semester, Willa Mae was elected "T. W. C. Smiles Girl" by vote of all the student body this spring. Despite the fact that most of her extra-study time is occupied with earning expenses in school by serving in the college dining room, she participates in much of the social life of the campus. She is president of the Teacup Club, composed of girls who assist the college dietitian and is a member of the Susan M. Key Literary Society and Y. W. C. A.

Drama Lover's Home Includes Tiny Stage. Chicago—High above the pavement, the new apartment home of Mrs. Howard L. Willett, president of the Drama League of Chicago, and her husband, will have a miniature theater of its own. The stage, which is on the 18th story, is set in gardens and terraces and is so situated that at favorable seasons it will receive its lighting from the moon.

Mosques of Turkey to See Women Priests. Constantinople—The minarets of Turkey will soon be sealed by women dressed in turban and priestly robes, calling the faithful to prayer, in the belief of 23-year old Semih Hanem, first woman graduate of the Istanbul Theological school.

Until the government grants permission for women to preach in the mosques, Semih Hanem will devote herself to religious writings. She is the first religious revivalist to rise in "new Turkey" and believes the Turkish people will always be deeply religious.

"I approve of foreign schools here," she says, "because they help a people to adopt the best international social customs."

Peers Wears Monocle Easily. London—Viscountess Ellbank, England's newest peeress, has won the distinction of wearing more gracefully than any other woman in England, a monocle which she adjusts so easily to her eye that it does not appear at all uncomfortable.

Lady Ellbank is chairman of the United Empire circle of the Lyceum Club. In this capacity she recently acted as hostess to Princess Louise, the King's aunt, who is known as the most enterprising and individualistic of the royal women travelers. Lady Ellbank herself is fond of foreign travel.

Mr. Steckel Honored Last Evening. Edwin M. Steckel, director of music in the public schools of Gastonia, and an organizer of notes, was the guest of honor Wednesday evening at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ritchie, at their home on South Union street, prior to Mr. Steckel's recital at the First Presbyterian Church.

The dining room table covered with a beautiful Madeira cloth, had as its centerpiece a bowl of lovely pink snap dragons. An elaborate dinner of several courses was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie's guests were: Mr. Steckel, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wagoner, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ritchie, Miss Margaret Ritchie and Patterson Ritchie.

It is estimated that by midsummer 30,000 miles of connecting air lines will be operating regularly in Europe, Asia and Northern Africa.

Walker-Cress. One of the most beautiful weddings ever solemnized in St. John's Lutheran church occurred Wednesday, May the 4th at 7 o'clock, when Miss Mary Lillie Cress became the bride of Mr. Paul Alexander Walker, Rev. L. D. Miller officiating.

The church was artistically decorated, the spring effect being beautifully carried out in the decorations of ivy, and many graceful baskets of white lilies and sweet peas.

Prior to the ceremony "Melody of Love" by Engleman, was rendered, Mrs. L. D. Miller presiding at the organ. Miss Helen Misenheimer, a member of the faculty of Mont Amoen Seminary, sweetly sang "I Love You Truly." Then to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bridal party entered from the rear of the church in the following order: Mr. John Daniel Suther and Mr. Glenn Penninger as ushers, followed by the groomsmen, Mr. Jay Cress and Mr. Allan Watts. Then came the attendants, Misses Annie Walker and Thelma Suther, in orchid georgette over pink satin, with picture hats to match, carrying sweet peas and pink roses. Then came the dame of honor, Mrs. Houck Richards, sister of the bride, gowned in peach georgette over peach satin wearing corresponding picture hat, carrying yellow rosebuds and peach sweet peas. She was followed by the ring bearer, Master J. D. Walker, nephew of the groom, in a white satin suit, bearing the ring in a calla lily. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. John W. Cress. The bride was especially beautiful in white georgette over white satin, trimmed in silver lace. The veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily of the valley. She was met at the altar by the groom, who entered with his best man, Mr. James Walker, student of the Lutheran Theological Seminary of Columbia, S. C., a brother of the groom.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Miller softly played "To a Wild Rose." While the couple knelt in prayer, Miss Misenheimer sang "O Perfect Love."

The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony of the Lutheran Church was held, after which the bridal party retired to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for Washington and other cities of interest.
