CHILDREN'S CLINIC BE HELD LOCALLY; TO OPEN TUESDAY

Parents Urged to Bring Children of Pre-School Age to Clinic For Examination During This Week.

Children of the pre-school age will be given thorough physical examinations Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week at the children's clinic to be conducted by the Cabarrus county health department.

Much interest has been manifested in the clinic and a number of children are expected to be brought by parents for examination tomorrow afternoon at the health department offices in the county building, South Church street. The hours of the clinic will be from 1:30 to 5 o'clock each of the four afternoons.

The clinic has been well advertised about the county through various channels. Miss Naomi Moore, county nurse, has delivered several talks before the Parent-Teacher associations of the city and Miss Ophelia Barker, home demonstration agent, has distributed much literature.

Each child brought to the clinic will be weighed and measured, besides the physical examination. The physical defects will be noted and advice given to the parents as to the best methods of correction. Children suffering with contagious and infectious diseases are not to be taken to the clinic.

The health laws of the state require that each child entering school must be vaccinated for smallpox. The health department will be glad to administer this vaccine at the request of the children's parents.

Local physicians and dentists will assist Dr. D. G. Caldwell, county health officer, and his corps of helpers in the clinic work.

OTHER RAILROAD WOULD GIVE CITY GREATER GROWTH

Proposed Extension of P. & N. Would Open Factory Sites and Give Additional Express Service.

The proposed extension of the Piedmont and Northern Railway Company's lines, if made through Cabarrus County and Concord would mean much to both city and county. Dr. T. N. Spencer, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said today.

"The lines of the P. and N. Railway through city and county would mean considerable to the future growth and prosperity of the city and entire county," Dr. Spencer said. "In brief two of the main things that the city would get by the lines running through it would be additional factory sites on the railroad, and additional express service."

In speaking further on the fact that the proposed lines if carried out and brought through Concord would mean more factory sites, Dr. Spencer said that as Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce he often received inquiries from manufacturers regarding the opportunities for obtaining factory sites on a railroad, and that the new line coming into the city would open up several very good sites for such plants.

"The P. and N. Railway carries the American Railway Express and that would give us two express services here," he stated.

E. Lagerholm, assistant to the Vice-President of the Piedmont and Northern Railway Company and the Durham and Southern Railway Company, who has been in Concord in the interest of the P. and N. said that about 60 resolutions from clubs, organizations and individuals of Concord had been sent to the Interstate Commerce Commission telling of the need of another railroad through this section of the State and stating that the future development and prosperity of this section calls for another railway.

In telling of the action taken by the railway company and the Interstate Commerce Commission, Mr. Lagerholm gave something of the history of the case. "In 1920," he said, "when the railroads were turned back over to the private owners by the Government it was stated that no railroad construction or extension could be commenced without first obtaining a certificate stating that the construction or extension was of public convenience and necessity. It excluded street car lines, interurban and electric railway lines not operated as part of a general railway system."

"When the P. and N. Railway Company planned to extend its lines it planned on that law and we filed an application with the Interstate Commerce Commission to determine whether or not it had any jurisdiction over the P. and N. Members said that before they could take any action the P. and N. Railway Company would have to ask for a dismissal of its application. That was when the newspapers said we were going to change our route." Mr. Lagerholm said that the question of the definite route had not been settled.

"The other railroads are arguing that this section has enough railway facilities but the merchants and manufacturers in this section of the State have sent in the statements that the proposed extension of the P. and N. lines would be a great advantage to this section and that the facilities of another railroad are necessary to the development of this section of the State."

"Service is all that the Piedmont and Northern Railway Company has to sell and we want to show that we can give service," he said.

The only woman who was ever commissioned regularly in the United States Army was Arabella Macomber Reynolds, who was commissioned a major by Governor Yates of Illinois in recognition of her gallant conduct at the battle of Shiloh. Her services are mentioned twice in Gen. Sherman's memoirs.

Wanted Additional GUERNSEY CATTLE IN THIS COUNTY

County Agent Urges Farmers To Increase Number of Guernseys.—Make Dairying Part of Farm Work.

"Cabarrus county has more registered Guernsey cattle than any other breed; let's increase the number as well as feed them better," is the statement that comes from the office of R. D. Goodman, Cabarrus farm agent.

Agent Goodman is devoting much attention to this particular breed of cattle, and cites the attention of farmers of this county to the auction sale of fifty head of registered and grade Guernsey cattle to be sold May 19th at Asheboro.

A letter from the North Carolina Guernsey Breeders Association reads in part:

"Ordinary farming like our fathers did no longer pays and the sooner the farmer realizes this and makes dairy cows a part of his farm the sooner the farm will pay. North Carolina and the South are making some progress in the dairy industry but we will not be a factor for many years to come unless we wake up."

At Hotel Concord.

Guests registered at Hotel Concord during the week-end included the following:

J. M. Tibbitts, Reading, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Maxey, Owensboro, Ky.; J. J. O'Donnell, Baltimore, Md.; D. C. Munn, Meriden, Conn.; Mrs. F. A. Taylor, Meriden, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown, Atlanta, Ga.; J. C. Jones, Laurensburg, R. S. Irving, Greensboro; H. L. Fitzgerald, Asheville; M. H. Schlosser, and A. Valen, both of Baltimore, Md.; W. V. MRS. CORRELL DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME; WAS WIDELY KNOWN

Although She Had Been in Ill Health Condition For Past Several Days Was Not Considered Critical.

Mrs. W. C. Correll, widely known and beloved woman of Concord, died suddenly this morning at her home on South Union street, announcement of her death coming as a great shock to her wide circle of friends and relatives.

Although Mrs. Correll had been in ill health for several weeks her condition was not regarded as critical and for several days she had appeared brighter and more cheerful. Shortly before 8 o'clock this morning she suffered a coughing spell which affected her heart, and her death followed almost immediately.

Mrs. Minnie Floyd Correll was born in Concord in 1862, being in her 65th year. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander and spent her entire life here.

She joined St. James Lutheran Church in girlhood and kept her membership in this church throughout her life. She was keenly interested in affairs of the church and was one of the most active members of the St. James congregation.

Mrs. Correll was married November 10, 1872, to W. C. Correll and to the union three children were born. Two of these, Eugene, of Hiddendale, and Miss Wilma Correll, of Concord, survive. One son, Noah, died several years ago.

Funeral plans were held up this morning pending the arrival of Mr. Correll from his Hiddendale home. He left home on a business trip early this morning, before word of his mother's death reached him, and no plans for the funeral were being made until his arrival here.

KANNAPOLIS MAN DIED OF WOUNDS RECEIVED FRIDAY

Richard Hamilton Lucas, Shot Friday Night by Sid Elliott, Died in Concord Hospital.

Richard Hamilton Lucas, 20-year-old Kannapolis youth wounded Friday night when shot in the left wrist and abdomen by Sid Elliott, also of Kannapolis, died in the Concord Hospital Sunday afternoon. His body will be sent to Churchland, N. C., for burial.

Elliott is being held in the Rowan county jail at Salisbury, the shooting affair having taken place in North Kannapolis, just over the Rowan line. A coroner's jury from Rowan is expected to investigate the shooting some time today.

Elliott told officers to whom he surrendered that the shooting was an accident. He and Lucas, he has been quoted as saying, were discussing the purchase of the gun, which was accidentally discharged while he was examining it.

Lucas was quoted as telling the officers, however, that he was not accidentally shot, claiming that had blood had existed between him and Elliott for some time.

Elliott's present status will be determined by the Rowan coroner's jury.

The deceased was born in Davidson county May 13th, 1907, being a son of the late John Lucas. His mother has been married twice, now the wife of Mr. Hamilton, of Poplar street, Kannapolis. The deceased was generally known as Richard Hamilton, he having used that name most of the time since moving to Kannapolis.

FLOODS DAMAGE LOCAL MAN'S HOME IN COLUMBIA, LA.

Dwelling, Belonging to Mrs. Lily F. Blanks, Mother of Local Y Secretary, Partly Submerged.

Ravaging flood waters of the anadromous Mississippi river have practically ruined the residence, at Columbia, La., of Mrs. Lily F. Blanks, mother of H. W. Blanks, secretary of the Concord Y. M. C. A. The raging floods have also taken a heavy property and livestock toll on the plantation of J. S. Buies, La. Mr. Buies is a brother of Mrs. H. W. Blanks.

Mr. Blanks, who has communicated with his mother since the advent of the floods at Columbia, tells that his mother's home is in the highest location of the town, but the depth of the water about her house varies between five and ten feet, submerging the floor of the dwelling.

Two miles from Columbia a refugee camp has been established, its inhabitants numbering several hundred. Mrs. Blanks advises her son that both colored and white people have been sleeping together in the top stories of the high buildings in Columbia.

She makes special mention of the fact that 110 people, white and black, slept on the top floor of the Masonic Temple one night, and at Besco, near Columbia, 110 people were crowded by the waters, and when rescued had been without food some time.

Mr. Buies large plantation, on which 60 families of negroes were tenants, is beneath the swirling waters. All the buildings have been submerged, and the negroes were forced to flee for safety, climbing to tree tops and atop houses awaiting rescue boats.

Mr. Buies lost 75 steers, 80 sheep and approximately 1,000 head of swine when the flood waters swept across his Louisiana farm.

The nature of the Mississippi valley flood, the greatest known to history, is so terrible that it is almost impossible to picture it. Hardships, hunger, untold dangers, disease and death thrive in this area of horror.

Secretary Blanks this morning expressed his thanks to the Concord people who have sent clothing to him, which in turn will be expressed directly to his mother for distribution among the sufferers. Any other people who care to send clothing to Mr. Blanks are reminded that their aid will be deeply appreciated.

REDMON COLE CANNON QUILTS AS HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Kannapolis, May 15.—Redmon Cole Cannon, for whom the high school's annual publication was dedicated this year, has announced his resignation as principal of Central high school, effective at the expiration of the present school term.

The appointment of his successor with the city schools superintendent and up to late Saturday no selection had been made, although it is generally believed that H. B. Moore, principal of the South School, will be the choice.

The resignation of Mr. Cannon came as a surprise insofar as the public is concerned. His plans for the future have not been announced but it is known that he is contemplating effecting a broader field of service.

Mr. Cannon has been principal of the high school since 1923. During his administration the school has been added to the accredited list, a home economic department and commercial course added. The curriculum of two courses and athletics have been elevated to a higher plane. Recognizing the good accomplished, the graduating class of 1927 dedicated "The Pioneer" high school annual to him, avowing that the dedication was made to him who has labored that they might find the highest and best in life, to him who by his noble example has taught the seniors to honor the right and revere the truth and to him whom they expressed their love with an unfeigned love.

Mr. Cannon is a native of Henningway, South Carolina and a graduate of Wofford College. Aside from his scholastic vocation he has been actively connected with the promotion of various civic work.

Two Alleged Forgers Waived Hearing

Mecklenburg County Court.

Charles Smith and J. D. Ashton, both of Baltimore, Md., who are charged by several Concord people with forgery and who also face such charges from Charlotte people and are wanted by the Baltimore police, waived preliminary hearing this morning in Charlotte and were bound over to Mecklenburg Superior Court.

The two men had about ten cases against them, G. Ed. Kestler, editor and publisher of the Concord Observer, said today. Mr. Kestler had several charges against them and attended the hearing of the case in Charlotte along with H. I. Woodhouse and another Concord man who have charges against the men.

Mr. Kestler said that the Baltimore police also wanted the two men on other charges. They will be given a hearing in the North Carolina Courts though, he said.

To Celebrate Completion of Route 20

With the completion of the hard surface highway between Charlotte and Wilmington on Route 20, a dream of many years has become a reality. Fitting recognition of the importance of the event will be given at noon, Friday May 27th, at Lumberton. The citizens of that hospitable town invite the public generally to join in the celebration. All county governments, commercial and civic organizations, newspapers and individuals between Wilmington and Charlotte are asked to join in giving publicity to the event. They are asked to appoint committees to secure representative attendance from all communities between the two points mentioned.

This is a banner event. Every person interested in the planning and completion of North Carolina's magnificent system of highways is invited and urged to attend.

PIANO SOLOS BY MISS JARRATT TO BE BROADCASTED

Young Woman, Daughter of A. H. Jaratt, and Graduate of Salem College to Be on Air Tuesday Night.

Miss Frances Jarratt, daughter of A. H. Jaratt, principal of the Concord High School, and graduate of the music department of Salem College this year will be one of several artists who will have a program broadcasted from Winston-Salem beginning Tuesday.

Miss Jarratt will be on the program for Tuesday evening and many of the Concord radio enthusiasts will have an opportunity to tune in and hear a local artist "on the air."

Miss Jarratt will render the following selections: "Pastorale", "Gavotte Fantastique", and "Brahm's" "Rhapsody Op. 79." These numbers were highly praised and received special press notices following her rendering of them at her graduating recital last week at the college.

The program will be broadcast from a station placed in the Robert E. Lee Hotel. The program of music is being given by the Redpath Chautauqua in co-operation with the Woman's Club of Winston-Salem.

The station will be WHLE, wave length 203.3, which is about ten on the dial. The station will carry over 500 miles, a report from Greensboro states, and Concord residents should be able to tune in on the program to be given by Miss Jarratt with very little trouble.

GOODMAN ATTENDS FARMERS' MEETING AT HARTSVILLE, S. C.

Cabarrus County Agent Today Attending Interesting Session in South Carolina.

—Return Tonight.

R. D. Goodman, agriculture agent of Cabarrus county, departed today this morning for Hartsville, S. C., where he attends a meeting of South Carolina farmers and county agents today.

The purpose of the Hartsville gathering is to inspect demonstration farms of the Coker Pedigreed Seed Company.

Agent Goodman will return to Concord this evening.

"THE SPIRIT OF CABARRUS"

To Be Given Tonight at the High School Auditorium.

EPISODE I.

Scene 1: Time, around 1775. A group of early settlers have journeyed to Rocky River. Seated about their camp fire, they talk of the country and their journey.

Scene 2: Time, about 1780. A quilling party in an early colonial home in Cabarrus. Seated around the quilling frame, the party talks about the historic churches of the county.

EPISODE II.

"The Story of the Cabarrus Black Boys."

Scene 1: Time, 1771. The "Boys" congregated at the home of James White. They hear that supplies for Governor Tryon to be against the Regulators are to be brought from Charlotte by way of Philfer's Hill. They plan to destroy the supplies and take a solemn oath not to betray the plan or each other.

After a lapse of time, indicated by the curtain, they complete their plan and start toward Philfer's Hill.

Scene 2: Same day, after sunset. The powder has been blown up. James White is hurt. The "Boys" escape.

Scene 3: Some months later. The home of Colonel Moses Alexander, the King's officer in Mecklenburg. Ashmore and Hadley confess to their part in the plot and betray the others. Ashmore and Hadley are pardoned.

Scene 4: Time, early summer of 1775. Camp of the Black Boys on Rocky River.

The "Boys" have just returned to North Carolina from hiding in Georgia. Betsy comes, bringing food and tells them news of the Battle of Lexington and Concord. They plan to join the Continental Army.

EPISODE III.

Scene 1: Time, 1783. Concord created as county seat. The commissioners meet to locate a county seat. After a dissent between the two factions, they decide on a central location and name it Concord.

Scene 2: Time, 1826. Home of John Reed, who tells his friend, Eli, the story of the discovery of Reed's Gold Mine.

Scene 3: Time, 1825. A ball in honor of General Lafayette. The General pays a tribute to Washington. The Minuet.
