

Last Dry Spot In The "Sugar Bowl" Is Now Threatened By Floods

Break in Levee at McRae Threatens to Send Water Into Five More Parishes Not Yet Under Water.

2,000 MEN FIGHT TO CHECK FLOOD

Warned of Danger 1,500 Persons Were Evacuated From Area—80,000 May Be Affected Later.

New Orleans, May 24.—(AP)—The last dry spot in the famous Louisiana sugar bowl, an area approximately 150 miles north of New Orleans on the west bank of the Mississippi, was threatened with immediate inundation today through a break in the levee at McRae, 10 miles below Old River on the west bank of the Atchafalaya.

WILMINGTON'S PRAYERS FOR RAIN ANSWERED

Rain Falls 24 Hours After Prayers For Rain Were Offered.

Wilmington, May 24.—(AP)—Wilmington's prayers for rain were answered today.

TWO RAINS REPORTED IN STATE ON MONDAY

Winston-Salem and Asheville Visited By Rain, But Rest of the State Remains Dry.

Charlotte, May 24.—(AP)—A good rain at Winston-Salem and a half-inch downpour at Asheville, the first since April 22, were the only rains reported in North Carolina during the last 24 hours.

THE STOCK MARKET

Selling Pressure Accompanied Resumption of Upward Movement Today.

New York, May 24.—(AP)—Increased selling pressure accompanied the resumption of the upward movement in the stock market, giving the general list an irregular appearance most of the day.

THE STOCK MARKET

Reported by Finner & Beane. (Quotations at 1:45 P. M.)

Table with multiple columns listing stock market data including American Smelting, American Locomotive, and various other companies with their respective prices.

DR. HOOD SPEAKS AT COMMENCEMENT AT MT. PLEASANT

"Consider the Trees" Subject of Able Address Delivered to Graduates of Mt. Pleasant Institutions.

BLUME SPEAKS BEFORE ALUMNI

Graduate of Class of '17 Points Out the Problems That Must Be Faced in Future by Schools.

Mt. Pleasant, N. C., May 24.—The literary address to the members of the graduating classes of Mount Amoena Seminary and Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute was delivered here this morning at 10:30 o'clock by Prof. Frazer Hood, Ph.D., Litt., D. of the faculty of Davidson College.

WORLD CONGRATULATES SLIM

The entire world figuratively shakes the hand of Charles Lindbergh in congratulation on his flight from New York to Paris.

Paris Continues To Honor Modest American Aviator

Paris, May 24.—(AP)—A short glimpse into the mass of letters and telegrams that have accumulated since he sailed down upon Le Bourget field, and the sight of a squadron of cavalry called out to help police keep open the streets through which he passed today gave Captain Charles Lindbergh a better outlook than he has had thus far of the arduous future before him as a world hero.

The entire world figuratively shakes the hand of Charles Lindbergh in congratulation on his flight from New York to Paris.

Paris Continues To Honor Modest American Aviator

Paris, May 24.—(AP)—A short glimpse into the mass of letters and telegrams that have accumulated since he sailed down upon Le Bourget field, and the sight of a squadron of cavalry called out to help police keep open the streets through which he passed today gave Captain Charles Lindbergh a better outlook than he has had thus far of the arduous future before him as a world hero.

PINEDO REPORTED SAFE AFTER GOING DOWN IN BIG FOG

Buenos Aires, May 24.—(AP)—Wireless advices from Lisbon to La Nacion say that Commander Francisco de Pinedo landed 150 miles from the Azores because of fog, and that his machine was being towed to Horta.

ONE DEAD, FIVE HURT IN ODD ACCIDENT

Man Killed When Motor Car Ran Off Tracks While Carrying Section Crew.

Charlotte, May 24.—(AP)—One man is dead and three men and two children are in hospitals injured, as a result of three unusual accidents in widely scattered sections of North Carolina today.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Unchanged Prices to Decline of 9 Points.

Want Data on Corporations.

The Tribune Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.

Neal Funeral Today.

Laurinburg, N. C., May 24.—(AP)—Funeral services for W. H. Neal, former judge of the eighth judicial district, will be held here at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Fiery and Scathing Addresses Before the Efrid Will Jury

Albemarle, May 23.—The Stantly county jury trying the Efrid will case and a courtroom full of spectators today listened to two of the most fiery and scathing addresses ever delivered in a North Carolina courtroom.

Paris Continues To Honor Modest American Aviator

Paris, May 24.—(AP)—A short glimpse into the mass of letters and telegrams that have accumulated since he sailed down upon Le Bourget field, and the sight of a squadron of cavalry called out to help police keep open the streets through which he passed today gave Captain Charles Lindbergh a better outlook than he has had thus far of the arduous future before him as a world hero.

Princess Galatine Gets Divorce

Paris, May 24.—(AP)—A decree of divorce was granted today to the Princess Galatine, formerly Miss Aimee Crocker, California heiress. The court upheld her contention that Prince Mistislaw Galatine, whom she married here in September, 1925, had deceived her and maintained relations with other women.

Wilson Funeral Today.

Charlotte, May 24.—(AP)—John M. Wilson, 54, former mayor of Charlotte, and for nearly 15 years connected with the city government, will be buried from his late home here today at 11 o'clock this afternoon.

Great Britain To End Trade Agreement With The Soviets Thursday

London, May 24.—(AP)—Premier Baldwin told the House of Commons today that Great Britain would terminate her trade agreement with Russia on Thursday, and require withdrawal of the trade mission and Soviet delegation from London unless the House should express disapproval of this course.

TRADE MISSION TO LEAVE CITY

Great Britain Will Recall Mission From Moscow if the Plans Are Given Approval of the House.

London, May 24.—(AP)—Premier Baldwin told the House of Commons today that Great Britain would terminate her trade agreement with Russia on Thursday, and require withdrawal of the trade mission and Soviet delegation from London unless the House should express disapproval of this course.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Unchanged Prices to Decline of 9 Points.

Byrd Howell Takes Own Life.

Burnsville, N. C., May 24.—(AP)—Byrd Howell, 45 year old farmer, living near the Mitchell County line, at Boone Ford, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. The tragedy occurred at the home of a distant relative, R. M. Howell, at whose home Byrd Howell was living at the time with his wife and 5 children. No motive had been assigned today.

Fiery and Scathing Addresses Before the Efrid Will Jury

Albemarle, May 23.—The Stantly county jury trying the Efrid will case and a courtroom full of spectators today listened to two of the most fiery and scathing addresses ever delivered in a North Carolina courtroom.

Paris Continues To Honor Modest American Aviator

Paris, May 24.—(AP)—A short glimpse into the mass of letters and telegrams that have accumulated since he sailed down upon Le Bourget field, and the sight of a squadron of cavalry called out to help police keep open the streets through which he passed today gave Captain Charles Lindbergh a better outlook than he has had thus far of the arduous future before him as a world hero.

Princess Galatine Gets Divorce

Paris, May 24.—(AP)—A decree of divorce was granted today to the Princess Galatine, formerly Miss Aimee Crocker, California heiress. The court upheld her contention that Prince Mistislaw Galatine, whom she married here in September, 1925, had deceived her and maintained relations with other women.

Wilson Funeral Today.

Charlotte, May 24.—(AP)—John M. Wilson, 54, former mayor of Charlotte, and for nearly 15 years connected with the city government, will be buried from his late home here today at 11 o'clock this afternoon.

Don't Forget That THURSDAY, May 26, At 2 P. M.

Is Your Last Chance to Buy a Lot in JACKSON PARK

AT AUCTION J. B. LINKER

CAN YOU SCORE TEN ON THESE?

- 1—Name the American novelist who recently retired as ambassador to Italy. 2—Who was the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table"? 3—Name the high judicial office his son and namesake filled.

CAN YOU SCORE TEN ON THESE?

- 1—Name the American novelist who recently retired as ambassador to Italy. 2—Who was the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table"? 3—Name the high judicial office his son and namesake filled.

WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday, probably local thunderstorms Wednesday in west and north counties; not much change in temperature.