LOCAL MENTION

Miss Black in the office of the Cabarrus county health department states that one case of measles was reported Wednesday.

R. D. Goodman, farm agent of Cabarrus county, has gone to Raleigh to attend special meetings there when an expert English agriculture agent will speak.

In the decisions handed down by the Supreme Court of the State yesterday was one affirming the decision reached in Cabarrus Superior court in the case of Ross vs. Brenizer.

Commencement exercises will be held at Central and No. 2 Grammar School tonight at 8 o'clock. Certificates of graduation will be presented and short literary addresses will be delivered. The public is invited.

Those who have not secured their season tickets to the Redpath Chautauqua which opens here tomorrow afternoon are asked to get them at once. The tickets may be secured from a member of the woman's club.

Charlotte won from Spartanburg in the South Atlantic while Asheville and Greenville were both winning. In the National League Pittsburgh won again while the Yankees and Athletics were idle in the American League.

Considerable improvements are being made at the Pearl Drug Company, including installation of new fixtures and rearrangement of the fountain, candy and cigar cases. Only recently improvements were made on the front of the drug store.

The Supreme Court of the State handed down another batch of decisions on appeals yesterday but the Pentuff appeal was not among them. This case was tried in Cabarrus and was argued before the court four weeks ago.

The Redpath Chautauqua tent is being erected now on the Central school campus. The opening number of the 1927 program will be presented tomorrow afternoon, Chautauqua officials here declaring that everything will be in readiness for the opening tomorrow.

Capt. Quint E. Smith, city engineer, who has received orders to report for duty in the flood area of the Mississippi River Valley, has received orders to go to New Orleans, La., instead of Memphis, Tenn., as his first orders were. Captain Smith will leave during the afternoon.

Temperatures dropped some in Concord yesterday afternoon, following a light shower shortly after noon. Heavy black clouds hung over the city for about an hour and there was some lightning and high winds but little rain. In some other sections of the county refreshing rains fell.

Webb field will be the scene of a second amateur baseball game this afternoon when the lawyer-doctor team will find opposition in the Concord insurance agents. The game begins at 4 o'clock, and admission of 25 cents will be charged of each customer for the benefit of the Mississippi flood relief fund.

The Redpath Chautauqua will open in Concord Friday afternoon at the tent on the grounds of the Central Grammar School. The afternoon number will consist of a popular concert by the Arcadia Novelty Company, and the evening performance will be a short concert by the Company and a lecture by Charles H. Plattenburg.

His Watch. "You look all in, Ned. Didn't you sleep well?" "No! My roommate and I suffer from alternate insomnia."

"What's that?" "Why, whichever of us gets to sleep first keeps the other awake."

Baby Announces His Presence. She—"It's nearly six weeks now since baby was born. Have you told the registrar yet?" He—"If the registrar lives anywhere within ten miles' radius he'll know already."

We Wish to

THANK
