Peach Volle Is Hand Made and Hemstitched.

The dainy hand-made frock has a discrimination. The French, this setson, are featuring such frocks in crepe, batiste and voile.

Above is a delightful example of the sheer voile frock in peach, one of the most effective tints in which this summery material is shown. The hemstitching and French knots carry out the spirit of daintiness and the abbreviated sleeves are a smart warm wheather note.

Great crowds may pass—the high, the lowly—
Or just one person, moving slowly, May wander by wee, meager shops, Toward the dim verge where Main Street stops.

But—be its pavements white or brown
Be it in village, city, town—
The place of which we are a part Owns Main Street as its pulsing heart!

Theesday.

New Bern, June 13.—Flag Day will be celebrated Tuesday by practically every chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in North Carolina, as the sequi-centennial an erican flag by the Second Continental Congress in Philadelphia on June 14, 1777.

These meetings will be the last of the summer season for the D. A. R. chapters in the state, although the committee work will be continued throughout the summer. The chapter meetings will be resumed in the fall.
The Flag Day programs are held every year by the organization. This year special attention will be paid to the 150th anniversary of the flag adoption. The work done during the year also by various regents and members in the formation of living flags in cooperation with the United States Flag association has also encouraged more interest in the celebration of the day.
