Bible Thought for Today

Honor and Life—"Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths; I am the Lord your God." Lev. 19:3. Prayer—"Help, us our God, to love our parents, and keep holy Thy Sabbaths, and live long in the land."

LOCAL MENTION

No arrests were made by city police officers during Friday and Friday night, it was reported at headquarters this morning.

The offering of the Sunday School department of the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning will be contributed to the Barium Spring Orphanage, near Statesville.

The sum of $75 was collected Friday afternoon at Recorder's court before Judge A. B. Palmer. The majority of the defendants who appeared for trial had minor charges placed against them.

Rev. R. M. Courtney is expected to return this afternoon from Duke University, where he has been attending the summer school for preachers. He will be in his pulpit at Central Methodist Church tomorrow.

L. V. Elliott, register of Deeds, reported today that no marriage licenses had been issued by him for the last two days. Comparatively few licenses have been issued during this month despite the fact that it is supposed to be the month for weddings, Mr. Elliott said.

The elements still have ill-feeling toward June. Friday brought more rain and cool winds, while today is more typical of a winter day. There seems to be little doubt that Concord is experiencing a summerless summer. A warm day in June in this age is becoming almost rare.

Atmospheric conditions forcing smoke issuing from the Y. M. C. A. to hover about the building led persons to believe that the "Y" was on fire shortly after 11:30 o'clock this morning, and an alarm was rung in at the Concord fire station. The call to the department was the first in more than three weeks.

A large number of "Dokies" from Concord attended the "Dokie" dance and reception Friday night in Charlotte at the meeting of the Dramatic Order of the Knights of Khorassan of the four temples of North Carolina Pythians. The dance last evening brought to a close the 28th Convention of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythians.

More than 700 persons visited the clinic Friday night at the Kannapolis Y. M. C. A. More than 600 of this number were given either the first or second treatment of the typhoid vaccination, while the remaining number were given toxin anti-toxin to prevent diphtheria. The Kannapolis clinic is being conducted by the Cabarrus Health Department.

Swiftly the old church of the Saint James Lutheran is falling before the attack of man. Only the tower and walls now remain to be torn away, and workmen Monday will busy themselves with the task. It is probable that the tower will be the last portion of the structure to be wrecked. It will be pulled from its foundation, in all probability, by means of a tractor.

The committee on furnishing of the Better Homes Movement locally Friday afternoon met to discuss plans for furnishing the girl's bedroom of the model home at Jackson Park. This afternoon, weather permitting, the committee on beautifying the grounds about the model home will meet with Miss Ophelia Barker, home demonstration agent, to prepare plans. The model home will be opened for public inspection Tuesday afternoon, June 29th.

Major S. F. Telfair Dead. Raleigh, June 17.—Funeral services were conducted here this afternoon for Major Samuel Fowle Telfair, 64, one time active in State politics, whose death occurred yesterday.

Major Telfair was private secretary to three governors of North Carolina, serving from 1880 to 1898 under Fowle, Holt and Carr. He was a graduate of Davidson College. For the last several years he had been prominently engaged in business affairs.

BRAMHAM APPEARS TO HAVE CLEAR FIELD

A. J. Draper Withdraws From Race For Republican National Committeemanship.

Charlotte, June 17.—W. G. Bramham, of Durham, appears to have a clear field for the office of Republican national committeemanship, says the Charlotte News in a story appearing today. A. J. Draper, Charlotte capitalist, has withdrawn from the race that started with the appointment of Johnson J. Hayes as judge of the middle district federal court.

The News says a telegram has been received by Mecklenburg county Republicans from Mr. Draper announcing that he would not be a candidate for the place.

"Whether Mr. Bramham would find the sailing as easy as thought," the News says, however, "is problematical in the opinion of many," adding that the support of Judge Hayes and David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue, is problematical.

Mr. Bramham is quoted as having said recently, while here in connection with his duties as president of the South Atlantic Baseball association, that he would not make an active fight for the place.

"John, I am really too good to you. You've heard of people being killed with kindness?" "Yes, my dear, but don't be afraid—that kind of murder never gets into the courts."
