

SUPERIOR COURT OPENS MONDA Revaluation In West Jefferson Totals Three Million

Aldermen Cut Figures Forty Per Cent Tues.

Tax Rate May Be Fixed At Around $1.00. Current Rate Is $1.75

TO MEET TUESDAY

The revaluation of real estate in the town of West Jefferson has been completed and the board of aldermen and the board of revaluation will hold special session next Tuesday night in the town hall to hear any complaints from taxpayers, Ralph Campbell, town clerk and manager, announced yesterday.

The town's total valuation, as worked out by the revaluation committee, amounts to $3,020,849, with real estate being $2,743,705 and personal property $277,144.

Members of the board of aldermen went over the new figures carefully Tuesday night and decided to cut this amount 40 per cent. They also estimated that they could fix the tax rate for the next fiscal year, starting July 1, at around $1.00, provided it is not necessary to make too many adjustments in the valuation figures. The present rate is $1.75.

the work of the revaluation committee and said they felt the committee had treated every citizen fairly and equally. This committee was composed of Dean McMillan, Ed Osborne and Walter Tucker. They completed their work about two weeks ago and since then the figures have been checked and tabulated.

This special town revaluation was done in compliance with an act passed during the last gen-

Short Term Is Expected, Only 14 Cases Listed

Judge Clement To Preside. Lightest Calendar In Several Years

The May-June term of Ashe superior court for the trial of civil cases will commence next Monday with Judge J. H. Clement presiding.

There are only 14 cases listed on the calendar and three of them have already been settled.

Due to this small number, it is anticipated that the term will last less than a week.

Slated for trial are the followng cases:

County of Ashe against H. C. Fucker and others.

H. M. Miller against H. C. Tucker and others.

T. C. Bowie against J. W. Gambill and others.

Fred Watson against Orville Green and others.

Ira Greer against L. M. Sturgill and others.

William M. Taylor agains: Mont Jones.

Helen Bare against Van Sheets and Frank Miller.

Willie Weaver against Barney Coldiron.

Winnie Farrington against Dor. Bare.

Eunice Roupe Harrison against William Harrison.

There are two Bowie-Gambill cases and if they are tried, it is expected that they will consume ight much time.
