

North Carolina Highway Patrol Car Wreck Fatal To Two Officers

At the left is Patrolman Weaver Hogan, driver of the above N. C. patrol car which was demolished, when it struck a bridge near Wytheville, Va., March 1. At the right is Brantley Taylor, Sparta police chief, who also met his death in the wreck. Hogan, who was stationed in Ashe county for some time, was located in Alleghany at the time of the accident.

Mrs. Segraves Hostess To Group

The Womans' Society of Christian Service of the local Methodist church met in the home of Mrs. J. L. Segraves last Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance.

The program for March consisted of a review of the work of the society with each officer giving a sketch of her duties and responsibilities. Mrs. John Rhodes conducted the devotionals. Special music was presented by Mrs. E. R. Sturdivant and Mrs. Sharpe Shoemaker who sang "The Old

Rugged Cross."

During the business session, Mrs. Carl Graybeal and Mrs. J. L. Segraves were appointed delegates to the convention of the society, to be held in Asheville,

April 15 and 16. The hostess served a delicious course of refreshments, carrying out the colors of St. Patrick's Day motif during the social hour. Mrs. B. B. Graybeal will be hostess to the society in April.

Clinic For Pressure Cookers Will Be Held Fri. And Sat.

It was announced this week by Miss Ella Mae Crosby, home demonstration agent, that a pressure cooker clinic will be conducted Friday and Saturday, with the cooperation of the Ray Hardware store.
 Miss Crosby pointed out that the pressure cookers would be checked for the following: accuracy of the pressure gauges, safety valves, and general condition of the pressure cooker; and advice to owners on making corrections will be given.
 She explained that a small fee will be charged for this service, which will be paid by the person having a pressure cooker checked.
 Miss Crosby announced the following schedule for the various home demonstration clubs of the county: Friday, March 19, Baldwin, 8:00-9:00 a. m., Glendale Springs, 9:00-10:00 a. m., Grassy Creek, 10:00-11:00 a. m., Healing Springs, 11:00-12:00 noon, Helton, 1:00-2:00 p. m., Lansing, 2:00-3:00 p. m., Nathan's Creek, 3:00-4:00 p. m.
