

Service Officer To Come Nov. 16

The N. C. Veterans Commission will have Jack C. Winchester, district service officer with the Ashe county service officer on Thursday, November 16, from 11:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m., to assist veterans and their dependents with the various claims and information.

Mr. Winchester stated that there is a death compensation payable by the Veterans Administration, to dependent parents or persons who raised and cared for persons who were killed in World War I, World War II, or the Korean War, or where the serviceman died after being discharged, if the death was due to a service connected disability, or disease. Also there may be entitlement if the person served

Jack Weaver On Debating Team

Berea, Ky. — Jack Weaver, a freshman in Berea College, Berea, Ky., was one of the speakers for the affirmative debating team which traveled to Cincinnati, Ohio, on October 23 to the annual meeting of the Ohio-Kentucky region of the national Tau Kappa Alpha. The sessions were held at the University of Cincinnati.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Weaver, Warrensville. He was a member of the 1950 graduating class of Jefferson high school,
