At each of the following places we will preach Saturday at II o'clock A. M. before the regular gunday morning appointment: Mt. Zion, Allensville, Mt. Tuzzah, Trinity, Bailey's, Oak Grove and Providence. M. H. HOYLE, P. C. M. T. BEST, JUNIOR.

BAPTIST. Ephcsus—lat Sunday, and Saturday before.
Mill Creek and Let Bethel—2nd Sunday, (Rev.
J. H. Vernon, assisting alternatively at these two places on this Sunday.)
Roxboro—3rd Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M., and at 7 o'clock P. M.
Clement—4th Sunday and Saturday before.
Roxboro—Prayer—Meeting every Thursday

J. H. LAMBERTH, PASTOR.

Med Mountain-det Sunday and Saturday be Antioch—2nd Sunday and Saturday before.

Berry's Grove—3rd Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.
Caldwell—3rd Sunday might at 7 o'clock.

Cross Roads, Halifax county, Va.—4th Sunday and Saturday be fore. J. A. BEAM, PASTOR.

-We need rain.

-Ice is now in demand. -A new barber in town.

-How's this for hot weather?

-Tobacco is beginning to spread the hill,

-A match game of base ball here to-morrow.

-Such weather makes a fellow feel right lazy.

has been quite warm. -Mr. D. S. Parker, of Long's X

Reads, called to see us last Saturday -The Person Circuit Sanday School Convention will be held at Mt. Zion on the 16th of July. -Miss Fannie Fuller who has been spending about two weeks in Danville, Va., returned last week.

-Miss Ida Lansdell and Mrs. C. A. Jordan, of Durham, are here this week visiting relatives and numerous friends.

-Roxboro is on a beom. The sound of the hammer, the carpenters saw and the brick layers voice are constantly heard.

A meeting should be called. In front of the court house some even ing should be the time and place.

-Misses Sallie and Evic Street, or Mill Creek, brightened our sanctum last Thursday evening to view the mysterious workings of a printer's shop.

- We see in the Tobacco Plant that Person county took off the largest check at the Globe and Sunner Warehouses in Durham week before last. Hurrel for old Person.

-Abert Tabora the negro hanged Hurt by Accident. at Oxford last Saturday said that he which he was charged, and that he

-Miss Ella Moore, the beautiful daugh er of Rev. Mr. Moore, of Sax. arahaw, Alamance county, is visiting Miss Cattle Newman, near Leading and will spend a mouth or two with ber 1911 ELLT I

-The Teachers Assembly is in s ssion at Morehead City this week. There will be run an excursion from Morehead to Washington City at an enormous low price for the pleasure of teachers.

-Col. C. S. Winstead, Mr. John W. Williams, and Misses Annie Carsher are attending the Teacher's Assembly at Morehead. A delightful trip with odd 101 laups

-We have received the premium list of the 27th annual fair of the North Carolina State Agricultural Society, a description of which we will publish in our next issue. The fair opens Oct. 18th and holds four days amorgan () terment mat() and (testion

_Mr. W. A. Woody called last week and renewed bis subscription. known, is an energetic young merchant at Mill Creek, and he says de-

- We learn that some yorng ladies in the western portion of this county of good and wise men, and sweeter saved all the speels they could and still to profit thereby. sent them to Milton by an old darkey Tis sweet I trow when a young who offered tham for sale. This old darkey says he never intends to place any more speels on the market. He was laughed at so.

"Tis sweet to a youth who has wan-

-The size of the soda fountain is often beard. -Miss Bettie Anderson, of Cedar Grore, is visiting Mrs. A. R. Foushee. -Mr. June Smith, of Granville. He is here visiting friends and rela-

-There is nothing more pleasant to the taste these warm days than an ice cold milk shake at C. A. Daniel's. Try one; also his excellent soda

-Mr. G. M. Yancey, of Collier,

.- The prospect of the Rexboro Academy for the ensuing term seem to be brightening. Let every body who is interested in the cause of cducation see Prof. Tillett and learn the terms, and enter his children. See new advertisement on first page.

ces have been printed and in the sion hugely, especially the young hands of the town constable, Mr. C. E. Pugh, and can be had by any one ladies, for which Person county is wishing them at the small price of twenty-five cents a copy. Every citizen of the town should have a copy.

book as a premium given Master Willie L. Foushee by his accomplished music teacher, Miss Mollie Jordan. The book is a beautiful one, handsomely and elegantly -The weather for the past week bound. Miss Mollie is an excellent quiet. teacher in music and well knows how to appreciate the rapid advancement of her pupils.

-The building committee of the jail met in the court house last Monday for the purpose of receiving plans and bids for the new jail. There was three bidders. John D. Fred. of Macon, Ga., was the lowest bidder. The bids were made on the jail includ--Messrs. W. T., J. L. and Clem ing everything, a turn key job. It Critcher and D. M. Andrews went was let at $5,475. Mr. C. W. Brown to Oxford last Saturday to the hang. has the contract to do the brick work, and will begin operations in a

-The last is no of the Winston Sentinel contained the farewell notice of Mr. Edward Oldham, who has edited that paper the past four years the greeting of Mr. Vernon W. Long, any people. who has taken the management of the Sentinel. Mr. Long recently grad--Who's President of the lazy club? mated at Chapel Hill and we bespeak for him a bright future in journalism. Here is our ser for your success brother Long.

"Country Boys," of Virginia, on the ple. grounds of the latter. Good feeling -If you have friends visiting you prevailed throughout the game, the for Roxboro and with the exception or any of your family visiting other "Country Boys" and spectators of a few jolts and jars, for which you places places inform us, as it is treating the visiting club with all due can imagine would be the result of impossible for us to find out when all courtesy. After the game was over riding in a two horse wagon over a ed the clubs with a large freezer of sound, happy and well "shook up." nice ice cream. Such is old Viginia's bospitality. The score stood 41 to 31 in favor of the "Cherry Hill"

The Charlotte Chronicle contains was innocent of the crime with the following relative to Rev. T. A. Bo ne and lady, which will be much was ready to die. They ell say that, regretted by their many friends in this county:

Parties from Lincoln county who were in the city yesterday, informed a Chronicle reporter that Mrs. Boone, wife of Rev. T. A. Boone, of Denver, was very seriously crippled one day this week by a buggy accident. Mr. and Mrs. Boone were driving through the country, when their buggy suddeply collapse and threw them to the ground, with the result above mentioned. Mr. Coone was not injured.

'l'is sweet after toiling through ter, Mary Hester and Eugenia Brad. the day to recline at night on your arms of nature's sweet restorer, ne'er see thy like again. balmy sleep.

be freely forgiven.

the carols of the feathered songsters in this sunny land of ours. of the air.

Tis sweet when fortune frowns upon you and you are almost ready to ed buddeth not again. give up the battle of life, to have a of despond, and place you on a pinacle of safety causing you to joyous-

"Tis sweet to receive the counsel

-The fourth of July will soon be dered far from home, and in forbidden paths to return repentant and find a

the welcome plandit "well done" called to see us Tuesday evening, from him who dwells within the burden to themselves, and yet with no beautiful gate, and where the rose can never fade from the cheek and the light of life can never die out of > RAMBLER. Winstead, N. C., June 19th 1887.

Last Sunday merning by 9 o'clock called to see us last Thursday and people were arriving from every disubscribed to the COURIER. Mut, rection at Mill Creek to attend the on this, set a good example and we union of the neighboring Sunday wish several of our young men would Schools in various modes of travel, such as wagons, carriages, buggies, horse back and on foot, and by 11 o'clock there was on the ground at least 600 people, hold half the prowd, though every -The town charter and ordinans one seemed to be enjoying the ocea people. Those of the beautiful young noted, that failed to secure seats in church were seated in a buggy or carriage full of beaming and pleasbeau by her side. They, of course, were passing time away pleasantly.

The exercises were interesting, perfect and everything went on smoothly. The congregation was attentive and

The following is the programme. Opened by singing. Prayer by Rev. J. H. Lamberth.

I. Street. Singing. Speech by Dr. John A. Geoghegan. Singing.

Speech by Mr. Chas. '1'. Willson. Speech by Mr. R. C. Pugh.

Speech by Mr. II. A. Foushee.

Speech by Rev. J. H. Lamberth. Collection: $24.

cold biscuit and tried chicken. No with such wonderful auccess, and also better dinner was ever spread before

EVENING EXERCISES. Or ened by singing. Prayer by Mr. B. F. Gen'ry. Sermon-liv Ray. J. H. Lamberth -to the children.

-Last Saturday there was a match speeches were short, well pointed ry Hill' nine, of this county and the time for both children and old peo-

About 3 o'clock we pulled reins the young ladies of the vicinity treat. rocky road, we reached here safe.

Melange of Dots.

It is said that Col. W. H. Sparks. of New Orleans, is author of the an- Hip, hip, hurrah, hurrah, we cry, cient and well known song, 'Rossum the Beau," and it was first sung by his friend, Mr. Cox, who was a celebrated vocalist during the twenties, Col Sparks is still living, and is now three score, ten and five years old. He wrote the song in 1826 John Rossum, a school teacher of note, inspired the Bothel and Olive Branch churches diseases peculiar to females, chronic

It is said that on one occasion Din iel Webster, one of the trio of America's groatest Statesmen, sat at table amid a coterie of intellectual giants. A lively conversation ensued for a short time, when the following query was propounded to Mr. Webster by one of that a good man has gone to his heav his friends. Mr. Webster, what has been the chief concern of your life? Dropping his head a moment, the giaut Statesman replied, "My chief concern has been, my accountability to my Maker," Profound silence reigned for a few moments smid the brilliant party, ere conversation was resumed. downy couch and fall gentle into the Daniel Webster! We doubtless will

It is said that a man can, by close Tis sweet at early morn to hear times out of ten, acquire a competency the blossoms of the heart once blight imitation, as she mitated Josus.

It is said by ---- that the blos-"Buck," by which name he is well, friend to lift you out of the sleugh- soms of the heart once blighted bud M.s. Harvey Rountree who died last again but not so vigorous'y as at first. Saturday after a few days of latense spite the hard times trade is quite ly exclaim "Richard is himself to the flowing bowl, will, if he persusts River church last Sunday evening in his saturate way for a series of years She has followed her husband who ere long sink into neglect and oblivi- died about two years ago. One daugh. Allenaville, N. C. on-die without the solace of pity or ter is left alme to mourn her great sorrow- and enter the grave, un loss. wept, unbonored and unsung.

PHILANDEB. Olive Hill, N. C., June 20th 1887,

A fresh let of graceties arrived at Pass & Chayten's.

Tired and Languld Women,

How many women are there of whom Brooks, near Hester's Store, on the 14th cordial welcome under the paternal these words are true: "They feel lan- inst., Mr. John L. Bro ks d'od in his 18th guid and tired, hardly able to bear year of typhoid fever, after a sickness of ontheir weight on their feet, the bloom ly two weeks. Just entering the gate of And me thinks 'twill be sweet be sil gone from their cheeks, irratable manhood and usefulness; loved, honored and ond compare when life's firful fevor and cross without meaning to be s over, and we go hence, to receive nerves all upset, worried with the children, fretted over little things. acute disease." What a pity it is. Bu a few bottles of Parker's Tonic wil drive all this away, and relieve the death without one incoming murmur, to troubles peculiar to their sex.

Proceedings of Jail Building Committee.

Pursuant to a special call the build ing committee heretofore appointed by the magistrates of said county met in the court house at 12 m. Present, A. Long, chairman, W. T. Noell, D. W. K. Richmend, T. H. Street, J. J. Brooks, G. A. Rogers, W. M. Falkner, Baptist church here Monday evening. Rev. W. P. Yancey and W. A. Blalock, J. M. Luck delivered a touching discourse After lengthy debate between the com- and from her life of christian zeal and good petitors for the building, to-wit: Co', works drew lessons of comfort and instruc-John D. Fred, of Macon, Ga. C. W. Brown, Esq., of Hillsborg, N. C., and Mr. O'Briunt, of Durham, N. C., the About the first words uttered by chair then declared the committee Record" of the 17th inst. Mrs. Yancey each after arriving were, "Whew, really to receive bids according to plun 226 and specifications accompanying, The Louse would not begin to said plan as exhibited by Col. John D Fred. After an intermission of two hours the above named gentlemen, contractors, returned with their sealed bids. On thorough examination the committee found that Col. John D. Fred had made and was in fact detion of said building according to the -We have been shown a music ant smiles with a gay and festive cations to be and remain in the office religion of Jesus. of Board of County Commissioners. Thereupon his bid was accepted and the contract signed by the parties of the first and second part, for the sum $5,475. The said house to be erected on the old jail, lot and in the corner of the new street to run across said lot and the street running west from the court house by the old jail and warehouse and to front the main Address of welcome by Mr. Thos. street. J. A. Long, J. S. Merritt and S. P. Satterfi-ld were constituted a committee to carry said contract into execution. There being no further > business the board adjourned. J. A. LONG, Chairman. S. P. SATTERFIELD, Secretary.

Long's X Roads Items.

taught us the more excellent way, for a bountiful yield.

On Sunday the 19th inst. you hup -The singing was very good and the ble correspondent attended divine service at Lea's Chapel. The beloved game of buse bull between the "Cher- and able. It was quite a pleasant pastor, Rev. L. L. Nush, gave the Sun- Merrit & Co. cigar factory, where he sermon to an attentive congregation, His subject was, "The more excellent way of a Christian," his text being the 12th chapter, 31st verse 5th Corinthi-

> We are all highly elated with the idea of a Reilroad through our county in the near future, the consolidation has taken place, and that business is Bedford Alum and Iron Springs, meant by powers that be:

We'll have a Rullroad bye and bye. PRINEAS.

Long's X Roads, N. C., June 20th 1887.

Mill Creek church wish to add to what and cutaneous effections, scrofula, kave said about the decesso of their diarrhoes, chills and malaria, disorder beloved paster, Rev. John E. Monta-

Resolved 1. We believe God has removed him to a higher sphere of christian activity.

2. That in his departure, we feel only inher tance.

3. As children of God we bumlly submit to the dealings of our Heaven 4. As our earthly union with him was sweet, we patiently await our heavenly meeting, hoping it may be

MILL CREEK CHURCH.

At her home last Monday morning pound, snuff at 4 cents a box or 8 for West, and corresponded with those o' "Tis sweet when you have wrenged attention to his own business, and the June 20 h, Mrs. Mary A. Wrens, aged an neighbor and pardon is asked, to assertion is generally believed by a 55 years. She leaves seven children. majority of mankind, and not inter- five sons and two daughters, to mourn beautiful me of standard prints and both notive and foreign. The reputation fere with that of his neighbor, nine her departure. The neighborhood has lawns, which he offers low for cash. of Pomona Hill Nurseries is such that lost a good neighbor and Mill Creek church a pure member. We recom-It is said by Martin F. Tupper that mend her writes to all, as worthy of

> We regret to hear of the death of It is said that a man who is wedded suffering. She was buried at Little > > Mrs. Thos. Wilkerson died last Sunevening of consumption in her 35th year. We p rot, grieved ones, she has only been transplanted in the reg on of blissfulness where all sorrows and roubles are forever banished.

At the home of his father, Mr. J. respected by all thrown in his presence: mere youth, it may be said, of care intellect and cultured talents, a dutiful, loving and noble son; has passed away with no jolts of dreaded apprehension, and without one jar of i'll fore-boding; smoothly, peacefully and triumphantly entered the tunnel of await the reward treasured in heaven for him there. He died in full accord with the sincerest heartfelt sympathy. Mrs. Nancy Yancey, the venerable mother of Messrs. E. B. and P. H. Yancey died at the residence of the former last Sunday night. Her funeral took place at the Has Stood the Test, christian's hope. The bereaved parent brother, and sisters have our deepest and tion. The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. The above is taken from the "Halifa: was a native of this county and in her 84th year, but for sometime had been living in South Boston. She has many friends and relatives in this county to mourn her death and their irreparable loss. Truly she was a good woman, a thoroughtly consecrated christian, and her death, or rather be it said her glorious translation from this life to the land of pure magnificence, was a splendid triumph of christianity over the clared the lowest bidder for the erecterrors of the grave, revealing in all of its glorious lustre the beauty, the comfort, the plan 226 and according to the specifi- blessedness and the raptuous wealth of the

OBSTRIARY.

"Leaves have their time to fall And flowers to fade at the north winds breath: But thou hast all seasons for thine own.

Oh! death." There is a vacant chair in the house of our friend and neighbor. Thos. E. Wilkerson, Mrs. Mollie Wilkerson his beloved wife passed calmly away from the scenes of earth about 10:30 P, M. on the 19th inst. She died of that dread disease, consumption. She was about 85 years old, joined the Methodist church in Orange county in early I fe, and lived a consistent and christian life. When the sun had dipped Watermelous and musk melons now low in the western horizon she called ber dear husband and precious children Friend -----who has planted to her bedside, bade them a final adjeu 250 bill of melons requests me to say after commending their spirits to Him to the readers of the Courier that all who gave it. One of Mrs. Wilkerson's Thus closed the morning exercises who are competing for the premium intimate friends informed the writer. and all repaired to the grove and in the melon line had better be look. that the deceased expressed herselt as sumptuously feasted on cakes, pies, ing to their laurels, as he is confident being fully prepared for an exchange he will raise a watermelon during this of worlds. Her friends mourn not as seas L, if propitious showers attend those without hope for they confidentus, that will tip the beam at fifty ly believe that her freed spirit bas been borne ere this by a convoy of Wheat harvest is nearly over and ten angels to Heaven, there to bask in the thousand thanks to Him who has sun light of God and the Lamb forever.

BUSINESS LCCALS.

James W. Brandon, of Mil'on, has opened a Tonsorial Hall in the old day School a very excellent and inter- is prepared to do work in the latest esting talk, and on the conclusion of style and at reasonable prices. Satiswhich, he preached a very impressive faction guaranteed. Only first class instruments used.

Mr. Go. Woody, of Person county, s with the Eagle Warehouse South Boston where he is enabled to guarantee his old friends the highest prices for tobacco. Try the Eagle with a Va., Open June 15, 1887. These waters are tonic, alterative, diuratic and anti periodi ; have an established reputation of thirty years; are endorsed by the medical profession and attested by results in thousands f cases as efficient in dysp psia, de-The brethren and sisters composing bility, nervous beadsches, bronchial of the liver, kidneys, stomach and bladder. Address; Bedford Springs, P. O. Va.

694t J. W. YOUNGER, Lessee. -I have one hundred thousand need of brick would do well to cull ro. N. C. The main line of the R. & D. on me before trying elsewhere. C. W. BROWN. Roxboro, N. C.

Burch's, Allensville, is the place to little money.

R. A. Burch, Allensville, N. C., sells the South. scap at 4 cents a cake or 3 cakes for The proprietor has for many years

R. A. Burch received last week a chappest of J. L. Stone, dealer in Sow- do it? - Let the public answer. ing Machines. Furniture and Musical I have in stock growing (and can show the lead among the North Carolina reses, do. farmers. He gives every pile his attent tion and secures the highest averages.

F r the best groceries call on Pas & Caylon.

Your Tobacco Wanted.

The Pulic Warehouse of Danvill Virginia of which Mesers. Thomas L Poindexter & Son are proprietors made some fine sales of tobacco in Danville a few days ago. Wrappers sold all the way from $40 to $90 per hundred. Try them with a load.

When you go to South Boston don't tail to stop at the Eagle, where Mr. Moon will spread himself for you and after sales you will go home happy.

Mr. M. Wiley of Loxington, Va., bas bought out Blount the photographer of Danville and is prepared to give the public the finest work for reasonable prices. We have seen bis work and

Back in they days when South Bos. ton has just commenced her career as a tobacco market the Eagle warehouse was tonaded tounded and ever since, whether in dull or good years held her own always paying prices that were second to none.

NOTICE.

Having qualified as executor of the last will and testament of Matthew Brooks, dec'd, I here by give notice to all persons indebted to said estate to make payment immediately, and per sons having claims will present them within the time prescribed by law or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.

W. G. BRADSHER, Ex'r.

June 12th 1887. June 12th 1887.

Notice

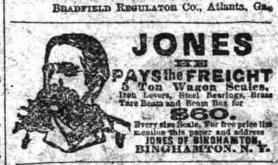

The following amount of fines collected from the Magistrates of Person county, from 1st, 10 June 1st, 1887.

March 18th, 1887. John F. Woody, Esq. State vs. Francis Tally,
April 11th, 1887. H. H. Mchols, Esq. State vs Nuit and James,
April 1th, 1887, W. M. Blalock, Esq. State vs W. O Pearce, Ppril 1th, 1887, W. T. Noell, Esq. State vs Mendows and Carrington,
"Thos. P. Day."
"O. J. Kennedy,
"Marion Kennedy,
"Walter Cothrap. the Magistrates of Person county, from March Walter Cothran, April 25th, 1887, H. H. Nichols, Esq. April 25th, 1887, H. H. Nichols, Esq.
State vs. W. P. Satterfield,
April 35th, 1887, B. R. Yarbro, Esq.
State vs Thes. Jacobs,
May 2nd, 1887, G. A. Jones, Esq.
State vs E. C. Jacobs,
May 2nd, 1887, W. F. Timberlake, Esq.
State vs S. S. Beastey,
May 2nd, 1887, G. G. M. More. Esq.
State vs W. W. McCauless,
May 4th, 1887, E. N. Wilkerson, Esq.
State vs W. W. McCauless,
May 4th, 1887, E. N. Wilkerson, Esq.
State vs W. G. U. Lawson, 1 00 5 00

Total amount reported, 8 2 5-9-4t S. B. WINSTEAD. Treasure

Send for book "To Mornens," mailed free.

Notice.

By an order of the Superior court I will offer for sale on Saturday the 9th of July, at the court house door in Roxboro, a certain tract of land, known as the James Bradsher Tract, in Bushy Fork township, containing 98 acres, more or less. Terms: 875 cash, balance six months credit with hond and security, with interest from date. Title retained until full purchase money is paid. This May 16th, 1887.

D. W. BRADSHER,

Land Sale Notice.

Monday July 1987 a certain lot of land in Person county adjoining the lands of Mrs. Mattle lithen, James Rhen, David Hicks and others Terms one half cash, balance in six months at 8

POMONA HILL NURSERIES. POMONA, N.C.

Lunsford, attorney.

good brick for sale. Any one in Two and a half miles west of Greensbo-R. R. passes through the grounds and within 100 feet of the office. Salem trains make regular stops twice daily Judge's Second Prize Offering each way. Those interested in Fruit and Fruit growing are cordially invited get a big quantity of good goods with to inspect this the largest nursery in GRANT MONUMENT FUND the State and one among the largest in 10 cents, and soils at 6 cents per visited the leading Nurseries North and foreign countries, gathering every fruitthat was calculated to suit the, South, Prohibition does not prohibit no representing other nurseries, try to matter what interested parties may leave the impression that they are rep- or b say. You can buy the best and the resenting these nurseries. Why do they visitors the same) the largest and best The remaining h Canvass and California hams at stock of trees &c., ever shown or suen Canvass and California hams at stock of trees &c., ever shown or such that the pass & Clayton's.

New Goods—cash terms—and log plum, grape, Japanese persimmon, prices—just arrived at R. A. Burch's Allensvike, N. C.

W. L. Moon proprietor of the Engle Warehouse at South Boston is taking barb, aparagus, evergreens, shade trees, proceeding the stock of trees &c., ever shown or such in any two nurseries in North Carolina, consisting of taple, peach, pear, cherry, plum, grape, Japanese print, apricots, nectarine, Rassian apuent, mulberry, quinces. Small fruits: Strawberry, rapperry, currents, pecans, Eaglish walants rhubard, apparagus, evergreens, shade trees, proceeding the peach, pe

Give your order to my authorized agent or order circut from the nursery, catalogues free to applicants. Address J. VAN. LINDLEY, Guilford county, N. C.

WORKING CLASSI

HARNESS & SADDLES

A large stock of all kinds of BUGGY ROBES, WHIPS & COLLARS. All kinds of repairing Done On Short Ho TERMS REASONABLE

South Boston, Va. E. H. Griffin. GRIFFIN & SON

JOSEPH H. HALL.

Saddles, Harness & Collars WHIPS, SPURS, BITS, BLANKETS, &C.,

W. J. WYATT & CO

MAIN STREET / SOUTH BOSTON, VA

Carry at all times largest and most

HEAVY AND FANCY CROCERIES.

Hay, Fodder, Ship Stuff, Bran, Ctton Seed meal.

Crn. Oats, Meal. Feed Stuff of All Kinds IN DURHAM.

SELL FOR CASH ONLY

you know can and will sell for a maller profit than any meachant can who does a promischous Credit busi-

Bring us Your Produce Also will pay you at all times highest market price.

YOURS TRULY,

W. J. WYATT & CO. DURHAM, N. C. THE PRICES

> OF GOODS Have Gone Down

WITH A RUSH AT A. R. FOUSHEE'S

Cheap Cash Store

ROXBORO, N. C., Where you will find a NEW STOCK of just such goods as you want for the SPRING AND SUMMER So don't fail to Call and Secure Great Bargains. NO TROUBLE TO Show You The Goods, Whether you buy or not. A. R. FOUSHER.

Roxboro, N. C. Apl 11 3m. ANOTHER CHANCE FOR PUZZLE WORKERS.

In Hehalf of the