"SWEET SIXTEEN."

HOW SHE BEHAVES IN THE BOARDING SCHOOL

"Friday Night" Boarder Tells All About Her-Conging Down a "Suspect"-Giving the Professor of Chemistry-Candy.

"I suspect you young ladies are very jolly at school among yourselves," said a reporter...

"Oh, that we are," was her ready reply, "it would be too dreadful to play all day without a bit of fun to vivify us..."

"Not at all," replied his fair informant, "the girls call the other girls 'dudes'..."

"Oxidizing the Professor." "Professor of chemistry," continued the fair informant...

"What Macbethian plot!" gasped the reporter. "But he went on, after he had regained his composure somewhat..."

A SUCCESSFUL FRENCH NEWSPAPER.

The Petit Journal with its Phenomenal Circulation of 900,000.

The greatest French newspaper is The Petit Journal, the circulation of which, at the present moment, exceeds 900,000.

"The results obtained by The Petit Journal are certainly marvellous, and its chief-editor, M. Henri Brisson (Thomas Grimm), has displayed remarkable business ability..."

"At this moment, now that politics is dull, the Petit Journal, owing to the continuous increase of its circulation mainly to its excellent and useful articles on practical matters..."

"Slaves to Vehicles." Early carriages and street cars are a great convenience, but the growing use of them is driving the people of our great cities out of the habit of walking...

"Substitute for Carboic Acid." The extraordinary power of naphthalin as an antiseptic and disinfectant agent has been known for a long time...

"Electricity and Gas." In the centre of a recent paper on distributing light and heat and supplying heated air to ordinary gas burners...

AS A SCIENCE.

GAMBLING VIEWED FROM AN STRICTLY PROFESSIONAL STANDPOINT.

Founded upon the Follies of Frankfort It is an Evolution of Certain Phases of Human Nature-How Different Men Play.

"Gambling," in the common profession founded upon the follies of mankind, is a sort of science...

"There goes a man now," he continued, "passing into the restaurant, who is a fair type of the bones and sinew of these places..."

"Well," was the reply, "the apparent percentage of small success in the service of the game is small, and carrying different rates, but the real percentage is enormously in the bank's favor..."

"But if this is a fact," said the reporter, "why is not the practice more universal?" "Because," was the emphatic response...

"Alaska's Newspaper." Sitka, Alaska, is to have a newspaper. It will be called The Alaskan, and be devoted to the development of the material resources of the territory...

TREATMENT OF LONDON SEWAGE.

What It is Estimated to be Worth-Plans for its Disposal.

It has been computed that the annual value of London sewage amounts to $3,000,000 and the population of 4,000,000 persons...

The method which meets with the greatest favor from the commission is the last one mentioned. The chief advantage is that the sewage is thereby much more thoroughly deprived of its objectionable qualities...

"An Anecdote of Beau Brummell." "Your dinner, sir! Why here is your bill for that which you pay, with the witness amounts to three pounds ten and six pence..."

"In the Bank's Favor." "Well," was the reply, "the apparent percentage of small success in the service of the game is small, and carrying different rates, but the real percentage is enormously in the bank's favor..."

"Inquiry into California." The San Francisco Bulletin accounts for the prevalence of insanity in California by an analysis of the state's history...

"Use It or Lose It." Johnny Fessenden, who is attending the law university, did not return home until about last Monday afternoon...

A DETECTIVE'S MAP.

HOW A POSTOFFICE INSPECTOR STICKS PINS THROUGH THIEVES.

Catching Railway Postal Clerks Who Steal Letters Containing Money-Leaving the "Blucher" Detection-Made Certain-Caught at Last.

"One of the most important duties of the chief inspector is to detect railway postal clerks who steal letters containing money..."

"First we ascertain exactly when and where the missing letter was mailed and its address. Then we ascertain for the mail it would take to go from Boston to Kansas City..."

"Your dinner, sir! Why here is your bill for that which you pay, with the witness amounts to three pounds ten and six pence..."
