OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

WHAT THE PRESS OF OUR STATE HAS TO SAY ABOUT MEN AND MEASURES.

As it Appears to Our Brethren of the Quill in North Carolina—On Political and other Questions.

The stir which has lately been made over fraudulent pensions is bearing good fruit, and public attention being now directed to the practicability of making reforms, there is an apparent weakening of the opposition to measures that are calculated to put an end to abuses.

As one who has pinned his faith to Grover Cleveland all along—before the Chicago convention as well as since that time—we are more his admirer now than ever. His declaration with regard to calling an extra session of Congress is to the point and in full time.

It is now stated on good authority that Judge Daniel Russell, of Wilmington, and Wm. S. O'Brien, of Goldsboro, have been negotiating with Mary Ann Butler for a sale of the State Republican party to the Populist. Developments may be looked for. Butler is evidently moving to the Republican ranks.

There is illimitable discussion now-a-days as to the currency question. Democratic newspapers are as wide apart as possible in their views. Many of the ablest stand up bravely and vigorously for an honest dollar, for one with more than the present "dollar of our daddies."

On account of the low price of wheat during the last twelve months, some farmers are fearful that the new crop will not bring more than 50 cents a bushel. But about this we believe they will be agreeably surprised. The excited condition of finances, may have a tendency at first to keep down a boom in prices.

The Washington correspondence of the New York Herald contains the statement that the President is not alarmed about the financial situation and will not be until the reserve funds sink to the danger line, which is placed at $60,000,000 to $70,000,000.

There does not seem to be any conflict of opinion among Democrats in this city—official or otherwise—concerning the appointment of Mr. Dayton as postmaster. They all speak highly of his ability. Mayor Gilroy told a Press reporter that he thought the appointment a most excellent one, and that the President could hardly have made a better.

The Waldenses Have Come.

From Mr. Ellis Coulter we learn that the advance guard of the Waldenses arrived at Connelly Springs Monday. They came in a special car which was sidetracked for them at the coal chute, about four miles above Connelly's and on the 10,000 acre tract the colony has purchased.

There were 26 persons in the squad who will occupy the six houses that are now completed on their lands. Contracts have been let for other houses, which will be ready by the time the next installment arrives.

BAXLEY, Ga., June 7.—Mr. Joe Williams was disturbed while sweetly slumbering by an unusual loud and strange noise at his horse lot. He sprang from the bed and, hurriedly jumping in his trousers went immediately to ascertain the trouble.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Secretary of State today received notice of the intention of the Russian government to raise the rank of its mission here to an embassy. It is not known yet whether the present Russian minister, Prince Catauzene, will succeed to the office of ambassador, and in view of the fact that his experience in diplomatic service has not been of long duration it is thought possible that Russia, like Germany, may send some other diplomat as an ambassador.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The formal bill of indictment against the Cattle Feeding and Distilling Company was filed in the Circuit Court by Attorney General Maloney this morning. The prayer of the bill is that the Whiskey Trust may be compelled to show by what warrant they have perverted their franchises and violated the law of the State in destroying competition and creating a monopoly in the whiskey business.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 7.—A special from Spartanburg says that W. A. Lawrence and Mr. Odenheimer had a difficulty in which the lie was passed and it was decided to settle the matter on the field of honor. Pistols, cartridges and cartridges were secured and they repaired to the field for the purpose of battle. Lawrence was shot in the right leg, and the wound is considered serious. Full particulars cannot be obtained as all parties are trying to keep the affair secret.

DALLAS, Texas, June 7.—The Times-Herald, the only afternoon newspaper in the city, was sold at receiver's sale yesterday to Dr. C. M. Rosser for $16,000. The paper is anti-Cleveland and free silver. It will be continued as a Democratic daily.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME.

There is a great deal of charitable work done in this and other cities. There are organizations to provide for destitute orphans, and societies which lend a helping hand to the deserving poor and the unfortunate. Women who have wealth, and those who have incomes barely sufficient to furnish the necessities of life alike respond promptly to the demands of charity.

We do not refer to the fact that there are homes that are comfortable and unattractive for the want of careful housekeeping, but to the neglect which the babies and the older children suffer. How often are they entrusted to nurses who are in every way unfit to have charge of them? The colored nurses of the present day are not to be compared with those of a quarter of a century ago.

A few days ago a negro nurse about twenty-five years of age, who had two children in charge, was taken to task for cruel treatment of one of them, a little boy about two years old. The woman was pushing a baby carriage, in which was a baby, at a rapid rate, and the boy was clinging to it crying, being almost exhausted by his efforts to keep up with the nurse.

How many mothers are there whose children are entrusted to these careless and unfit negro nurses, who know how their children spend their time, how they are treated, or where they go? May they not hear words which should never reach their innocent ears? May they not be taken to the badly ventilated homes of these nurses, or of the nurse's friends, where disease lurks, or may they not be so cruelly treated as to make them bad-tempered and bad mannered?

There is a level headed writer in an exchange: "Parents are as censurable for not providing newspapers for their children to read and learn to read as for not sending them to school. The child receives far more information from the reading of good papers than it does from school books. Education such as the child receives in the school is indispensable, but give the boy or girl no other opportunities for acquiring a practical education—general information—and he will be a dunce in spite of all the work he may do or that may be done for him in the school room. The country is full of educated numskulls, men and women who have a little school book knowledge but practically no education."—Gold Leaf.

RALEIGH, June 7.—The trustees of the University of North Carolina today established a professorship of history and philosophy of education and elected Prof. Edwin A. Alderman, of the State Normal College, to the chair, and also elected to the chair of Greek Dr. Hobart Cushing Tolman, of the University of Wisconsin.

A Virginia Applicant for a North Carolina Office. A Virginian thinks either that there are not enough candidates in North Carolina for the prominent offices or that there are none of the residents of that State who have sufficient backing to override his influence, for F. G. McMillan, of Mouth of Wilson, in Grayson county, filed an application in the Treasury Department today for the collectorship of internal revenue of the western district of North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Marine Hospital Service has received a telegram transmitted through the Department of State, from the United States consul at San Jose, Costa Rica, stating that an yellow fever epidemic prevails at Limon, Costa Rica. The Surgeon general at once notified by telegraph the health officers at Savannah, Mobile, Charleston, New Orleans and Jacksonville, Fla., and the officer in charge of the Gulf Quarantine Station.

First Country Editor.—How are you coming on with your paper? Second Country Editor.—First rate. Got seventy-five subscribers last week. "So they pay up?" "You bet they do." "How do you manage to make them pay?" "I issue phenological charts to every subscriber, and those who pay in advance have finely developed heads. It's a great scheme.

The curfew bell has been revived in Canada. Every boy under 17 years of age found on the streets after 9 P. M. is arrested unless he can give a satisfactory reason for being away from home. A good law. This suggests an item that is going the rounds of the press to the effect that Shelby, N. C., has an ordinance imposing a fine of $25 upon any minor found in a saloon or pool-room. The morals of our youth cannot be guarded too jealously. They should be kept off the streets at night and away from the barrooms.—The Weekly.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay st., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife when threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than any thing he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at J. De Morris' Drug Store. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00

Superintendent McCall, of the county home, has had two more crazy colored people—one a boy, the other a woman—given him this week for safe-keeping. This makes his list complete. He says he has all the strongholds of the place filled and no room to lock up any more in. There are now 64 inmates at the home.—Charlotte Observer.
