ARE YOU WILLING TO BE SOLD OUT?

There is a serious question to be determined by some of our good citizens between now and the day of election. The question concerns most directly those men of upright character, who have followed the Populist Party, because they sincerely believed in its principles.

Shall these men go farther with that party, or shall they turn back?

When they allied themselves with it, this new party had some distinct theories and principles. Their policy was to follow these, and by force of being right make might. But today we find this same party fused, or co-operated with a party, whose principles most of the Third Party men have always fought. There is no great principle upon which the Republican or Populist parties agree. One is a party of Protection, the other is a party of Free trade. One is a party favoring the free and unlimited coinage of silver; the other a party who has voted directly to the contrary. One is a party favoring Federal election laws; the other's Representatives in Congress voted for the repeal of such laws. One party has fought against the income tax; the other has fought for it.

Now when two parties, having principles so opposite, join hands and make a common fight, there must be some cause for it. What is that cause? What is the power behind, which instigates this fusion, or co-operation?

It is the desire of Mr. Butler to secure a seat in the United States Senate. The whole machinery, and the entire force of the Populist party is to be used for this end. The party may go, and its principles may go. Those who have followed it for principles sake are to be duped and traded off to honor one man. The Populist party has surrendered. It is being merged into the Republican party.

Now comes the question for many good men to answer. Will you longer follow this party? Your own convention held in this county last Monday had forty-three men. You are bound to have been struck with the falling off in two years. You can have no hope of election. Will you longer follow N. N. Tuck, and help the Republican party elect its ticket in this county by drawing off voters from the Democracy? Some of your party men will go into the Republican fold. Thither some of them have been drifting from the start, and there they will go.

But others ought to be back in the Democratic party, and we bid them welcome when they come. That is the natural place for them, and they will feel better when they land there.

The Republican State Convention was held in Raleigh last week. The fight in the convention was over fusion or no fusion. It was decided by a large majority that the party would fuse with the Populists, by giving them one man on the Republican ticket. The argument used by the friends of fusion was that those Democrats who had gone to the Peoples Party wanted to get out of the Peoples Party, and now if the Republicans would give them a chance they would join their party. Now, we do not believe this, for there are men right here in Person county, who are Populists—men who are honest, and who went to the Populists with good motives, and we believe when they see where their leaders are trying to drag them they will return to the fold of Democracy. They did not join the Populist party for the purpose of being led into the Republican camp, to help the Republicans defeat their old party. They chose the new party on principle; but now they see these principles set aside, in order that their influence may be used in behalf of a party which they have always been fighting. Will the good men of Person county who belong to the Peoples Party be led by the nose in this manner? We think not, they have too much manhood and too much self-respect.

Next Saturday is the time appointed to hold the Democratic primaries in Person county. As we said some weeks ago, these primaries are all important to the success of our party this fall. Let every Democrat go to his township meeting next Saturday and help to elect a full delegation to the county convention. When each township does this there is never any trouble about getting a good ticket. We hope to see a large convention of the untried Democracy here on Saturday the 15th. Come and let us put out a ticket that all Person county should be proud of, and a united Democracy will support.

Graham and Settle will open their canvass in Person on the 21st. They have four appointments in this county, as will be seen in another column. The people should turn out to hear these two candidates. Mr. Graham, the Democratic nominee, is a man who is highly respected by all who know him—and there are in this end of the district few who do not. He is known to be an honest, moral, upright gentleman. And Mr. Settle is well, he is the Republican candidate, and his morality had best not be questioned too closely by his friends.

N. N. Tuck for sheriff—what does the Populist party in Person think of that nomination? Will they support him? Well, we shall see.

A DANGEROUS FLIRTATION.

The Populist party is acting like a giddy headed and unsophisticated maiden. It has wandered forth in charge of chaperones who are not particular as to the kind of company it keeps. Republicanism smiled at it and the wayward thing smiled back. A clandestine friendship sprang up between the two and there have been twilight tete a tete under trying trees. At the solicitation of wily Republicanism, Populism in her muslin gown has lately strolled into darker glades and stayed out later at night. At first she loved moonshine best, then starlight came to be enough, but now when thick clouds bedim night's candles the companionship is most agreeable. Wayward Mary affectionately leans her giddy head upon the breast of deceptive Dan, whose arms encircle her slender waist, whose lips touch hers, and whisper soft, seductive words into her ear. Dan's arm never tires and Mary is so happy that she is not conscious of the fact that she is being squeezed to death. Dan is only a masquerade and he doesn't mean to marry. He is having a good time now and nobody blames him. But what of the giddy creature in his embrace? She has been caught under circumstances that compromise her character and people are talking of her conduct. There will be a tale of woe directly when Dan lets go.

There is going to be a breach of promise affair awhile, a Breckinridge case politically speaking. See if there isn't.—Sampson Democrat.

Young Warren's Awful Death. NORFOLK, Aug. 24.—Today a horrible accident occurred on the Atlantic and Danville railroad near Cumberland, which resulted in the death of a young man named Samuel Warren, who is employed as brakeman on the road. It seems that he was applying the brakes and fell between the cars and was cut in two. The remains were removed immediately to his home in Greenville county.

GREENSBORO, N. C., August 25.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Piedmont Bank last night it was decided not to elect a President in the place of Col. J. M. Winstead at present. The Vice-President Mr. S. L. Trogon will act in his place.

The affairs of the bank were found to be in first rate condition.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Senator Ransom Opens His Campaign The 4th—Personal—Pythians—An Explanation—Wm. L. Wilson on the Tariff—Labor Day.

Senator Ransom leaves here today and will make the first speech of the campaign at Jackson, the county seat of Northampton, Sept. 4th.

It looks as if N. C. will have a superb delegation in the House next year, judging from the personnel of the nominees. The state did well to nominate such men as Charles Cook, Augustus Graham "Jeems" Lockhart etc. to represent her here. As to the Senate I wish to make a personal remark. I have received several letters from my highly valued editorial friends within the past few days which can be best answered in this way. A stalwart young Democrat from the east says: "I am forced to 'blue pencil' your letters. You strain a point to praise Ransom to Jarvis' discredit." An equally honest and able editor from the west wrote me two days ago: "You seem to like Jarvis much better than Ransom. I thought you were a most loyal friend to Gen. Ransom. You must not let your personal feeling bias your letters. My letters of last week and of every preceding week was a compilation of facts. I have nothing to do with the fight between Ransom and Jarvis for a seat in the U. S. Senate. Both are good men, and Democrats. So far as my correspondence has any bias it is toward a straight-out, untried, honest Democracy. Party success on upright principles is the only thing I can advocate with justice to myself and the larger number of able gentlemen who control the press of my state and who have contracted on a purely business basis to use my letters."

The settlement of the tariff bill is giving a new impetus to business all over the country. In accepting his renomination Wm. L. Wilson said: The new bill carries in it substantial relief to the American people, and must be accepted as a substantial beginning of thorough and progressive tariff reform. It means cheaper clothing, cheaper tools, cheaper pottery and many other necessities for the people. It means freer and larger commerce with those nations that buy our farm products and consequently larger and better markets for our farmers. The day of market protection is over in this country. McKinleyism will disappear as a dark and hideous blight from our statute books. The fight will go on, it may be, not in such a general engagement and protested struggle as we have just passed through but in that steady and relentless pressure that will take one after another of the strongholds of privilege until all shall disappear before the advance of public opinion and public emancipation.

Inquiries have been coming into the P. O. Dept. from postmasters all over the country as to whether post offices can be closed to observe Labor Day. The Post Office Department has in each case referred to the act of Congress approved June 28 last which declares "That the first Monday of September in each year, being the day celebrated and known as Labor's Holiday is hereby made a legal holiday in the same manner as Christmas, the 1st day of Jan. the 28th day of Feb., 30th day of May and the 4th day of July are now made by law public holidays."

Naval Cadet Worth Bagley of Raleigh, one of the finest young officers in the service is here visiting his mother, he is very popular at Annapolis and I was told yesterday that he stood very well in his classes. Seventy thousand Pythians and visitors have been here this week. Mr. Branch is the only member of our House delegation left in the city. Mr. Henderson left Wednesday and begins an active canvass of his entire district at Lexington on Tuesday 8th inst.

Ordination of T. J. Hudson. At the call of Bethel Hill church, Person county, N. C., Elders P. H. Fountain, J. A. Beam, G. T. Watkins, and H. T. Williams met at Bethel Hill Tuesday, Aug. 28, 1894, for the purpose of ordaining to the work of the Gospel Ministry T. J. Hudson. The Presbytery organized by electing P. H. Fountain, Chairman and H. T. Williams, Secretary. Elder E. S. Pearce and J. T. Riddick were invited to sit with the Presbytery. After a thorough and very satisfactory examination, it was decided to ordain Bro. Hudson. The afternoon, P. H. Fountain preached the ordination sermon from Rom. 1:14, G. T. Watkins delivered the charge, H. T. Williams presented the Bible and J. A. Beam offered the prayer. The Presbytery extended the right hand of fellowship and Bro. Hudson pronounced the benediction. H. T. WILLIAMS, Clerk.

SOMETHING

OF GREAT FEMINE INTEREST AND VALUE.

Do Women Learn Anything From What They Read.

Our correspondent, Mrs. R. A. Millikin, of Rannels, Rannels Co., Texas, writes us concerning herself as follows. She says:

"I have suffered for the last five years with heart trouble and nervousness. I am now taking my third box of 4 B. B. B., and feel greatly relieved. I do not have those smothering spells any more or palpitation of the heart since I began the use of 4 B's. They are also a great remedy for indigestion. Before taking your medicine I had to be very careful about my diet, but now I eat anything I want. I have also suffered very much with my back and now my back is strong and never aches. I have recommended the 4 B's to all my friends as the best remedy for all complaints resulting from a diseased condition of the nervous system."

If you are a sufferer do not fail to get this medicine immediately from your druggist. It cost but $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. It is purely vegetable and is tasteless; put up in capsules. One month's treatment in a box. If not found at your druggist's, send to H. C. Bragg, Manufacturer, Connersville, Indiana.

An Evening at Castledale. The traveler crossing down Castle Creek between Woodside and Denison may see from the window of the moving car one of the most pleasant country houses in Person county. In this section nature has bestowed some of her most beautiful gifts. On the one side of this lovely stream are high and rugged hills, while on the other is a beautiful valley covered over with a most luxuriant growth of corn. On the further edge of this valley, situated on a little mound is Castledale, the home of Mrs. Neenie Hall.

While nature has made this beautiful place, it has been rendered more so, by the hands of those who love a sweet home in the country. But the scenery is not the chief attraction, for above all things that make this a delightful place to visit is the kind and hospitable family who reside here.

Miss Alma, the young lady of the place is a most excellent girl, and by her beauty and other admirable qualities has made for herself a host of friends and admirers. She now has visiting her two of Henderson's most charming young ladies, Misses Gussie and Lily Judd. On last Saturday evening there was a social gathering at her home. The young ladies present besides Miss Alma and those whose names I have already mentioned were, Misses Ella Carrington and Nora Hampton of Durham county, and Miss Sallie Brooks of Wooddale. The young men were Messrs. W. T. Bass, A. L. Brooks, Z. G. Rogers, W. R. Woody and W. D. Merritt, of Roxboro, Messrs. Willie Bacon and Percy Umstead of Durham county and Mr. Jas Taylor of Concord.

The entire evening was spent very pleasantly in various amusements until a discreet voice was heard at the door to say that it was near the midnight hour. So we bade each other good night, feeling indebted to Miss Alma for a most delightful spent evening.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand. Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by W. R. Hambrick & Co.

Hardaway, J. A. Stradley, Alternate. Each church is requested to send delegates. H. T. WILLIAMS, } Com. T. H. STREET, } G. T. WATKINS, }

A Card.

To my Republican friends of Person County:

The campaign is now upon us and it behooves us to get to work. I must congratulate you upon the encouraging outlook for Republican success in the coming election. The record of the Democratic party since its ascendancy to power has been such that the masses will refuse to approve at the polls. They clamor now as they never did before for a return of the Republicans to power. Such times as are now upon us never blackened the history of free America before. That relief must come through Republican success is potent to all. Two years ago you nominated and elected me to a seat in the House of Representatives of N. C. How well my campaign was made my friends, together with the vote of that year will witness. How well I discharged my duty as a member, the Journal of that session will testify and to such I refer you. I have been solicited by many friends to become a candidate for Register of Deeds. I must state to these friends, that my pride of honor, of propriety with courtesy, forbids me to accept of them. I would or indeed to offer for any place other than the one I now hold. It has been a life of all parties to tender to the sitting member a second nomination. This being facts. If it should be your pleasure to place your banner in my hands at your convention I promise a vigorous campaign, such as I trust I will be proud of and that you will not be ashamed of.

Thanking you for your liberal support in the past and tendering you my feeble services,

I am your obedient servant, SAMUEL P. SATTERFIELD.

Expelled. Every poison and impurity of your blood, by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Then there's a clear skin and clean system. Where is the Line. A great deal is being said in these days about the eastern and western sections of our State, and different people have different and vague ideas as to where the dividing line really is.

Dr. J. M. Hays, in preparing a medical article involving certain statistical questions, has ascertained the interesting fact that the "half-way" line is at the same place both for population and area. The population of the State by counties (census of 1890) aggregated 1,744,947.

A line running to the east of Caswell, Alamance, Moore, Richmond and two thirds of Chatham, falling, of course, west of Person, Orange, Harnett, Cumberland, Robeson and one third of Chatham, gives the area a population of 808,572 and to the west 809,375, while in area the same line gives to the east 13,525,956 and to the west 13,776,596. The acreage is usually put down at 31,091,200, but of this 377,648 acres is embraced in large bodies of water in the eastern section.—Greensboro Record.
