OUR COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic County Convention for this county was held here last Saturday, and it was a gala day for the Democracy of Person county.

The court house was filled with enthusiastic Democrats from every township in the county. The convention was exceedingly harmonious and every delegate in the convention showed plainly that he meant business and that the enemy must be routed.

The nominees, from the Legislature to Coroner are men of known integrity and moral character, and everybody knows that if they are elected their interest of the county will not suffer, for their interests are identified with that of every other man in the county.

For those who will not obey the law a place has been provided, and the penitentiary holds within its high and strong walls those who would destroy society. All All these things are ours without any heavy burden of taxation.

"Add to these my freedom of conscience, my freedom of thought, of word and of action, and my perfect independence, under kind and my perfect laws; and then contrast these blessings with the condition of any people under any other government and you will begin to see why I am now what I have ever been, a pure old-fashioned Democrat. Change our State government! No, sir! Change to what? To civil war as they had in South Carolina? Go threatening and breathing fire and death as they have in Colorado? Change! and become only a nod and a shaking of the head to the peaceful people of the earth? No, sir! Never. We want no change in North Carolina."

—News & Observer. A Good Thing to Keep at Hand. Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus, and now when we feel any of the symptoms that precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared.

We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by W. R. Hambrick & Co.

CAMPAIGN OPENED.

The Congressional campaign for this district opened at Oxford last Monday, and joint discussions between Graham and Settle will continue up to November.

Reports from the opening speeches indicate that Graham had settle on the defensive throughout the discussion. Both speeches are highly commended, being free from personal abuse and mud slinging. Graham pressed the "young Demosthenes" to his record, which is by no means pleasant or complimentary to Mr. Settle. Especially is this true in the dodging of 252 roll calls out of 308 calls during the session.

It would appear from this part of his record that as a dodger Tommie is a success; but that is not the kind of man the voters of the Fifth district want to represent them in Congress. They want a man who will stay in his seat and look after the interests of his constituents. A man who only answers to 56 roll calls out of a total of 308 is a mighty poor Representative—in fact we don't think you could call him a Representative.

Their campaign will open in Person county Friday, at Holloways; Saturday at Ceffo; Monday, at Roxboro and Tuesday, at Mt. Tirzah. We hope as many of the people as can do so will go out and hear these candidates discuss the issues, then they can the better judge which of the two men is the friend of the laboring people. Come to Roxboro Monday.

BRECKENRIDGE DEFEATED.

In the Ashland Congressional district, in Kentucky, last Saturday, Congressman Breckenridge, after a very bitter fight, was defeated for re-nomination by Mr. W. C. Owen. This fight has been watched with much interest all over the country, on account of the Pollard affair.

Thus the political career of a once popular and highly esteemed gentleman goes down in disgrace and dishonor. Col. Breckenridge made a most desperate fight, and though he controlled the election machinery, and with two candidates to divide the opposition vote, yet the forces arrayed against him proved overwhelming.

An exchange says that "William C. Owen, his successful opponent, is an active young Democratic politician of his district. Though he is not an able man than Breckenridge it is to be hoped that he is a better one."

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Within less than a score of miles from Raleigh lives an old man whose days have been spent in the Democratic party. Nigh unto four score years has he lived, and in such wise that people honor his life and respect his opinions—although weary with sickness and bodily infirmity, the life of Ransom Gully, for his name is none other, still shine forth as a beacon to light more fickle and less clear visioned men down the uncertain pathway that every son of Adam must travel.

When the political craze to leave the old party first took possession of the minds of some of his neighbors they gathered about this old prophet of Israel and sought encouragement from him. They found it not. "Ah!" said he, our God has saved this good land of ours for us. Why shall we complain? Why shall we repine? Our deaf and dumb and blind children have the care and love and instruction of the State; our unfortunate insane have homes provided at Raleigh and at Morganton; the last days of the old soldiers are made glad by the recognition of their services by a loving and appreciative generation. Peace and good will pervade our State—Christian men occupy our places of trust and honor.

For those who will not obey the law a place has been provided, and the penitentiary holds within its high and strong walls those who would destroy society. All All these things are ours without any heavy burden of taxation.

"Add to these my freedom of conscience, my freedom of thought, of word and of action, and my perfect independence, under kind and my perfect laws; and then contrast these blessings with the condition of any people under any other government and you will begin to see why I am now what I have ever been, a pure old-fashioned Democrat. Change our State government! No, sir! Change to what? To civil war as they had in South Carolina? Go threatening and breathing fire and death as they have in Colorado? Change! and become only a nod and a shaking of the head to the peaceful people of the earth? No, sir! Never. We want no change in North Carolina."

Atlanta Submerged. ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 17.—A heavy rain storm broke over Atlanta at 6 o'clock and at midnight torrents are still falling.

Mrs. D. Tyne who was out driving, attempted to cross a swollen stream on the outskirts of the city. Her horses and cart were swept down the stream and she was carried down also and neither the lady nor the team has been found. It is supposed that she has been drowned. The streets of the city are flooded. The rainfall has been so great that the parade corner stone laying of the cotton states and international exhibitions has been postponed.

DEAR SIRS—I sold three bottles of P. P. P., large size yesterday, and one bottle small size today. The P. P. P. cured my wife of Rheumatism winter before last. It came back on her the past winter and a half a bottle, $1.00 size, relieved her again, and she has not had a symptom since.

I sold a bottle of P. P. P. to a friend of mine, one of my turkeys, a small one took sick, and his wife gave it a teaspoonful, that was in the evening, and the little fellow turned over like he was dead, but next morning was up following and well. Yours respectfully, J. N. McELROY.

SAVANNAH GA. MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., SAVANNAH, GA.: DEAR SIRS—I have suffered from rheumatism for a long time, and did not find a cure until I found P. P. P., which completely cured me. Yours truly, KELLY F. JONES, 16 Orange St., Savannah, Ga.

DOCTORS ASTONISHED!

Something They Cannot Understand or Explain. Now and then you hear something that is so perfectly and exactly true to nature that its description by one person would be almost exactly as most other people would give it.

The following is a case in point, and you will see that the description would almost tally with your own. The lady's name is Mrs. W. A. Truitt, of Franklin, Williamson county, Tennessee.

"Years ago," she said, "I was in a position of complete physical and nervous prostration, had but little appetite, severe indigestion, stomach distended with gas, constipation, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, pain in back of neck and base of brain, and was so nervous and dependent that life was a burden. As a result of this condition other weaknesses peculiar to my sex fell upon me until I was utterly wretched. After much medical treatment and constant failure, I was induced to try Bragg's 4 B. B. B. It was in a faint hearted way and with little hope, but I soon began to sleep better. My digestion improved and the pain in my head became less severe and I gradually gained strength until I felt as if I had been extricated from a pit of abject darkness and despair and emerged into the sunlight. Bragg's Best Blood Balm saved me. Very many of my friends to whom I have recommended the remedy can attest to similar results in their own cases."

If you are a sufferer do not fail to get this medicine immediately from your druggist. It costs but $1.00 per box, or six boxes for $5. It is purely vegetable and is tasteless; put up in capsules. One month's treatment in a box. If not found at your druggist's, send to H. C. Bragg, Manufacturer, Connorsville, Indiana. For sale by W. R. Hambrick & Co., Roxboro, N. C.

The Barefoot Fad. Barefoot women are supposed to be oftener seen among the peasants of Europe and the lower classes of our own country than anywhere else; but this may all change before long, since Dame Fashion has set the seal of her approval upon the custom, though as yet she would confine it to the privacy of my lady's boudoir, or to very informal and semi-private mornings in the drawing room. The fad originated in the treatment of the celebrated German physician, Knippen, who, among other things, required his patients to take a run in their bare feet every morning, no matter what the weather. He was successful in his practice, and it became fashionable to go to him, and hence to adopt his methods. Madame Sarah Bernhardt, it is said, spends her mornings, either when alone or when receiving visitors informally, in her bare feet. In two of her plays she appears barefooted, though part of the time her feet are tied to sandals. It is unnecessary, say the fadists, by any but women who have pretty feet. It has already resulted in greater attention being given to the feet and many persons have their toe-nails trimmed and polished as carefully as they do their finger-nails. There is something to be said in favor of the practice, since it hardens the feet and renders them less sensitive.—From "Chat," Demorest's Magazine for October.

SAVANNAH, GA., P. For impure blood and general weakness, and having derived great benefits from the same, having gained 11 pounds in weight in four weeks, I take great pleasure in recommending it to all unfortunates like me. Yours truly, JOHN MORRIS.

Mr. Gillis Defends N. Tuck. Simple justice to our party demands a reply to the misrepresentation found in last week's COURIER in regard to Dr. Merritt's speech. It fell flat only in the ears of those too near dead to appreciate the sentiments of a party that is working for the prosperity of our country. Also notice Bro. Gentry is spoken slightly of simply because he asked the aid of the Almighty. Can it be that our country has reached that deplorable condition that the supreme being is not to be recognized at all, much less adored. The Bible expressly says the prayers of the wicked availeth nothing, so our party is sure that Bro. Gentry did not request the prayers of one so vile as to disregard his Maker. God fearing men are not such as use or encourage profanity.

N. M. Tuck was happy simply because he saw his party was determined to have better times. Again he saw in the Democratic convention at Holloways the remnants of the now dead party, only two men came to watch the expiring agonies of the Democratic party. I consider the convention at Roxboro a grand success as we nominated good, honest God fearing men and we have no doubt as to their election. N. Tuck in our estimation is not merely an office seeker but a Populist from principle and he will receive the hearty support of his party. We are willing to excuse all remarks made by the Democratic party, we have found them all fair promises but slow performers. Yours Respectfully, J. J. GILLIS, Mill Creek, Sep. 10, '94.
