P. P. P. purifies the blood, builds up weak and debilitated, gives ngth to weakened nerves, expels asses, giving the patient health and piness where sickness, gloomy lngs and lassitude first prevailed. For primary, secondary and tertiary philis, for blood poisoning, mercurial poison, malaria, dyspepsia, and in all blood and skin algeases, like blotches, pimples, old chronic ulcers, tetter, scald head, boils, erysipelas, eczema—we may say, without fear of contradiction that P. P. P. is the best blood purifier in the world, and more positive, speedy and permanent cures in all cases.

Ladies whose systems are poisoned and whose blood is in an impure condition, due to menstrual irregularities, are peculiarly benefited by the wonderful tonic and blood cleansing properties of P. P. P.—Prickly Ash, Poke Boot and Potassium.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 14th 1893.

—I can speak in the highest terms of your medicine from my wan personal knowledge. I was affected with heart disease, pleurisy and rheumatism for 35 years, wastreated by the very beet physicians and spent hundreds of dollars, tried every known remedy without finding relief. I have only taken one bottle of your P. P. P., and can cheerfully say it has done me more good than anything I have over taken. I can recommend your medicine to all sufferers of the above diseases.

CLEAR STARCH.

As the years go by there is less and ess starch in the laundry. Bodily comfort is recognized as of too great importance to tolerate the old-time starched garments next the skin. which were about as comfortable as a coat of mail; and good form sets its face against starched table-linen, artistic sense upholding fashion in this respect. Skirts, of course, must have some starch, but should never be so stiffened as to rattle; handker chiefs should have just that soupcon which approaches the - unlaundered article; anything more is an abomi nation, and an insult to the nostrals

To make fine, clear starch, first wet the starch with cold water and work till smooth, then pour boiling water over it in the proportions of one quart to every two tablespo nfuls o starch; set upon the stove and stir till it boils clear. If stirred for a few moments with a sperm candle, it will prevent the irons from sticking; and with the same object in view some laundresses add a little butter or lard A small quantity of gum Arabic water added to the starch will give an appearance of freshness to muslins and lawns, either white or colored, not attainable by any other means. It is a great help to keep it in readiness prepared as follows: Pour a pint of boiling water over two ounces of white gum Arabic, stir well, cover it and let it stand over night; in the morning pour the liquid off the dregs into a clean bottle, and keep it corked for use .- From "Some Laundry Hints," in Demorest's Mayazine for

Happiness. How much the possession of .nappiness depends upon the point of view we choose to take in seeing things! She who determines to look upon the bright side of affairs will generally find that some brightness is visible; she who wants to point out to herself and others that discouragements abound, can, as a rule, succeed to her own satisfaction in the gloomy pursuit. There is such a thing as curbing one's natural tendency to depression and in wholesome fashion casting lamentable mclancholy out of doors. And one means to this end is mentally and spiritually to outgrow the necetsity of being happy. The less one thinks about the deprivations and lack of those conditions which are commonly supposed to be requisites of happiness, and the less one cultivates a C. B. BROOKS spirit of restless pursuit of happi-J. L. BPOOKS ness-a spirit which by its very lightness and delicacy eludes a harsh grasp-the more likely is happiness to come all unsought, particularly if one is more anxious about securing conditions of happiness for others

A Hotel Clerk Arrested.

MACON, Ga., April 5 .- John Tierney, a well known hotel clerk who has been clerk at the Park Hotel in this city, was arrested here to-day on a warrant from North Carolina charging him with burning a hotel at Hendersonsville N. C., a little over a year ago. The warrant also calls for J. J. Nelson. Tierney says he will go back to North Carolina without requisition papers as he is positive he can easily establish his innocence. According to Tierney, Nelson was proprietor of the hotel and Tierney was chief clerk. Nelson gave $14,000 in mortgages on the property and had insured for $14,500. Tierney's home is at Niagara Falls, N. Y. He has many friends in Macon.

We don't know what old cancelled postage stamps are quoted at on the market, but they are holding up well.
