LIABILITY FOR LOSS BY FIRE. If the property of A is burned, and the fire is thence communicated to the property of B...

very persuasive voice of Mr. Cooley, who, after mentioning Ryan's case and Kerr's case, adds: "But a different view prevails in England and in most of the American States."

pany is interested. In the first place, the negligence of A would not be a defense to the insurance company in an action brought by either one of the insured on his policy...

It would seem, therefore, clear on principle, that if A's house is burned by A's negligence, and the fire is communicated to B's house and burns it, and is thence communicated to C's house and burns it...

Against these views there are two arguments made by the New York court in Ryan's case, supra, each of which may be not disrespectfully termed an argumentum ad hominem, rather than legitimate legal reasoning.

Rapid eating is slow suicide. Plenty of time should be taken. Fish and oysters are easily digested.

There is a happy mean between eating everything and being squeamish. It is not good to dine when in a state of mental or physical weakness.

Two pounds of potatoes contain as much nutriment as thirteen pounds of turnips.

Light soups, light desserts and light meats should have the preference in warm weather.

Abuse of the stomach at dinner will be repaid sooner or later by that punishment which comes to the glutton.

Vegetables and fruits are to be used most generously at that season of the year in which they naturally mature.

Oskey Hall's Famous Likeness. The caricaturist who catches the expression of prominent men in public life always jumps at some peculiarity of feature and forever brings it out in his drawings.

THE WEB OF LIFE. A thousand busy fingers, Day and night, Weave a wondrous web of mingled shade and light.

At a table d'hotel a Marsailles was seated near an old army captain. The Marsailles was relating to a third guest his remarkable experiences in Algeria.

No Wonder Her Hair Turned White. "Mr. Dusenberry, here's the story of a man's hair turned white from fright. Now, that's a little hard to believe, isn't it?"

A Chicago Boast. Chicago boasts of the immensity of its dry goods business. To what proportions this has grown will be apparent when it is stated on good authority that the yearly gross receipts of one certain leading firm here amounted to $35,000,000...
