ng rates reasonable; terms on application.

New! New!

New!

just arrived: 'the latest and ac vest in General Merchandist at

C. T. WILLSON & CO'S We bought largely and bought early, and feel sure that our line of

Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats, &c., cannot be downed in either price o Special attention is paid to

SHOES.

Don't put off buying them, for when our orders will have to be duplicated they will surely come higher. Handsomer and better Shoes than ours you will not see at any price. The best selected line of shown in these parts. Full stockalmost anything you want in suites he isteads, tables, chairs, &c. The prices are the lowest at which good goods can be sold. We are under price on these things.

FURNITURE

CARPETS! CARPETS

We are agents for a large New York Carpet tactory and have a ful line of samples to select from at New York prices, magni which, thuit that our line of

Groceries

in fact prices generally will so surprise you that on will conclude it is sold at the Exchange Store.

T WILLSON & CO.

lar in this and adjoining counties for years, and is still very popubrand and you may count on raising tobacco which will command high prices. For sale by

C. T WILLSON & CO. Roxboro, N C.

·PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

R. J. TEAGUE, M. D., in Roxboro, offers his professional services in the practice of medicine in all its branches to the people of R horo and surrounding country. Spe cial attention given the treatment of diseases of nose and throat. Office over C. T. Wilson & Co's store.

OR. E. I. TUCKER SURGEON DENTIST.

W. a Dunier Accorney at Law,

Bush in the Co.

BOONE MERRITT & BRYANT,

Attorneys at Law,

Offices in Rexboro and Durhan

WINSTEAD & BROOKS, Attorneys at Law. Rexboro, N. C. Washington, Attend regularly the Courts of Person and Caswell. All business intrusted to our care will receive prompt attention. LUNSFORD,

Attorney at Law,

MM. D. MERRITT, Attorney at Law, Roxboro, N. C.

Office in Court House. W. H. B. NEWELL, Watchmaker

and Jeweic. Roxboro, N. C.

Barber Shop,

ROXBORO, N. C. When you come to Roxboro, don't

PERSON COUNTY COURTE

NOELL BROS, Proprietors.

HOME FIRST: ABROAD NEXT.

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

VOL. XII. ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1896.

No. 38.

DIPLOMATIC HASH.

Lady Whichels thinking. A let- her?" ter lay in her lap, and her correspondown to see her'the same evening.

perfectly well. Rumors of his in- her down here for two or three he had never blundered into it. fatuation had already reached her- weeks. Can she come?" He was coming to tell her that he "It could be arranged, oh yes! himself a whiskey and was engaged to marry Miss Daisy She is at the theatre every night, dropped the glass, which shivered out for the Orient, and set up in were out of the way Mr. Reed would Dornton, who sang for a couple of but I want her to leave the stage, into 50 pieces in the Abbotsford business as a howling dervish. be as certain of getting the nomina pounds a week in the chorus of the and-oh yes, she would come as soon stove. As a man not given to Kansas City Star. Coronet theater. Lady Whichels as you please." groaned, and her lips were pursed in. "Then I will write and ask her noteworthy and suggested that his

she said sharply to a young man who "And now you must tell me all "You'll have treated the girl en of the stranger at the church eye, a bandage on the back of his entered the room a moment later. about it and how nobody ever loved d-d badly," he said sharply. "He is the worst kind of an idiot, a girl so madly before in all the for he is not only idiotic, he is pig- world." headed."

mustache and grinned.

asked, "What is the matter?"

He 'wants to see me on a matter of invitation. importance.' The matter is, of 4:15. Six hours for meditation, and eager eyes upon the door. her. The post lay on the table be in and advanced to be presented to ing to turn in." side her unheeded, and beating a her hostess. Lady Whichels started, It was on the morning of the ilv, murmured something to the Ludy Whichel's plot had failed. ffect that "to make him see it" was the original difficulty.

Whichels impatiently, "but I know nearer, crying than she had for downfal as you did. I certainly the secrets of manufacture.- New also how to do it now. She is, of cours, gauche, awkward, and as ignoral as she can be He has she muttered disconsolately. "She hadn't. Anyhow I worship the seen her with the glamour of the is-preposterous as it sounds when I ground she walks on and we are enfoothgas on her and in the poky admit it-she is really good style, gaged." little it lgings who she lives. Now, Where does she get it from-the And what is more he married her, he shall see her here! I shall invite daughter of a linen draper? It is a fact from which an interesting poker this evenin'." her in to stay with us and ask a awful! They imitate our clothes, moral may be drawn by ladies who lot of people to meet her. Bertie is these people, and our phrases, and fancy their abilities for diplomacy. not brilliant, but he is as sensitive now they even manage to acquire The deposed dowager never forgave as a girl. When Miss Dornton has our style. Nothing is left to us- him, nor herself, and when she recommitted half a dozen solecisms, nothing." and he feels that people are ridiculing her, he will be as anxious to the baronet, "that is the truth. feels there are certain emotions I've heard o' people that got bankoed break his engagement off as I am to What on earth she saw in Bertie which language is wholly inadequate and bought gold bricks even if they

"By jove," said Philip, "you ought

"It is gaod, isn't it?" said Lady now, at any rate," he observed after Whichels complacently. "I felt a pause. "She won't call me Sir that there must be a way out, and Whichel, or come down to luncheon now I have found it. I think your in gloves, or make herself ridiculous brother will be rather astonished by at all, I fancy. You had better put my reception of his news this a good face on it and let Bertie afternoon. Let us now have think you were sine re from the practice, both in the State and at had projected the mesalliance—at for it." the lour expected. He certainly was tonished at his mother's de-said Lady Whichel tartly.

ten and threats and been doggedly hight." and fed for all. Instead of these to complain. Her father was morning, when she was half dead draper, I believe, and her with misery and sleep.

lets or lives in lodgings." Car trust my taste."

not going to be so absurd as to raise In the meantime the baronet's Washington, April 23.—The time of day was for burying husconsent, and I should like to be ir- part as it may to k, she appeared to troduced to her. When stall I see find more pleasure in Sir Ph lip's

"I really don't know," stammered Well, one night, when the brothdent was her sou-not the baronet, the boy. "Whenever you like." ers were alone together in the smokbut his Frother Bertie-who had The question was to entirely unex- ing room, the tounger man unboswritten to say that he meant to run peeted that he was almost speech- omed himself. He told the bar net for the beginning of next month," nerves were not properly under con-"Your brother is an idiot, Philip?" said Lady Whichels conclusively. trol.

Lady Whichels dispatched her "I think you oughn't to have Sir Philip Whichels twirled his charming letter to her prospective asked her if you wern't sure of "Has the climax arrived?" he on the day after came the answer, do?" thanking Bertie's mother for her

She wrote her notes, and a crowd as much as she did, Philip." course, that he has proposed to that of friends accepted, and so the days "A good thing for her if she eresture, and has been accepted, and went by until a full drawing room doesn't!" opined the other. now he is coming to try to gain my sat on tenter hooks one afternoon "I dare say. Anyhow she leaves

We especially ask you to remember show to bring this ninny to his tickel the hour of 4 The degeart, I feel that I made a mistake, and-"I'm sure I don't know what you to the station. Lady Whichels wants a check, I dare say my can do," Sir Philip replied. "If you glanced at the baronet and smiled, mother"softment at astronshing y low prices, bully him, he will marry her to- The baronet pulled his mustache "Oh, don' be such a confounded morrow. If you cajole him, he will and inwardly reflected that, ass as young cad!' exclaimed Philip. "A try to baily you. I don't see what his brother was, all this was a trifle check!" All kinds of barter hought and you can do, upon my soul. It is a rough on him. The company, sip- "You seem to have a very wonderping their tea and nibbling petits ful opinion of Miss Dornton. The lady, however, was not dis fours, and muffine struggled in- wonder you don't marry her yourposed to be beaten so easily. It was effectually to conceal their curiosity self." 0 o'clock, and the fiance might be and impatience. Then there was "Perhaps I may, if I get the expected at the Firs by the express the sound of the wheels on the chance of asking her and she will

> "Philip," sne exclaimed, "I have costume, too, was perfect, and her with ashen cheeks. notion at last. The Miss-Miss words, when spoken, were all that "To Miss Jornton, mother. Bertie manufactured that gum. I never Philip, who had been amusing disguising the fact-if Miss Dorn make her Lady Whichel." taken as typic 1 of Miss Dornton, widow, "and you-you"-

That night when she sat in her scoffed: today I fall! Perhaps it is to have been a diplomatist, dear "I don't see that you have any chance of preventing the mar iage beginning. In fact, you will have special attention given to Federal He arrived—the young man who to do so. There is nothing else

"Philip!"

"Leave me-let me go to bed!" too angry to sit up, and to talk H had looked for remonstrances, about it makes me feel worse. Good he met with smiles and cordial- came to a termination she had cause it He could not understand to feel worse still, for something horrible had happened. It began the way of the bullets?" heard something of the where did it begin? It matured in er," said the widow. "Well, it the smoking room one evening. It democratic age, and if you culminated in Lady Whichel's dressoff are satisfied, nobody has a ing room at 9 o'elock one ghastly

For ten days Bertie had been feeling less sure of himself than he had dr-they are living in apart-done. Opposition was the breath of s, yes," said Bertie. "But- life to him, and, with the course of er- she is charming. I am sure you true love running smooth, he began to ask himself whether it was true society than in B rie's.

You have my full and free ed, and, fickle on the young lady's to be consul-general at Havana. lacks tact.—Texas Siftings.

that his engagement had been a She knew what he was coming for "Well, the best way will be to ask mistake, and he wished to goodness

Sir Philip, who had been mixing dropping things, the accident was

"You think that I ought to marry daughter-in-law on the morrow, and yourself. What are you going to "I'm going to jilt her," said Bertie "Bertie will be with us today, kindness and gladly accepting the sulkily; "that's what I am going to do, and I don't believe she likes me awaiting Miss Dornton's entrance. us tomorrow morning, and I shall "Advise me, Philip," she said, The clock on the mantleshelf had write to her rooms in town, saying with Bertie driving, had long gone and-that it had better end. If she train which reached Threegates at drive, and everybody fixed a pair of have me," answered the baronet. and he granted her one without any "When you have written our elegant epistle let me know New I'm as flector. in six hours an idea might occur to It opened and Miss Dornton came epistle let me Know. Now I'm godevil's tattoo on her dress, she sat and the baronets eyebroys went up. the next day but one that Sir Philip, asked the traveling man in the skull staring out at the lawn with puck- Nothing could have been quieter or who had spent the previous after- cap, by way of introducing himself and the fifty first Psalm. ered brows. The baronet meanwhile in better taste than the manner of noon in London, disturbed his moth- to the passenger in the seat directly had lounged out into the kennels, the girl who crossed the big room er's repose in the fashion alluded to. in front of him. and presently she uttered an excla- under an ordeal which might have He told her that he was going to be The man turned around, looked at mation, and dispatched a servant to shaken the composure of a society married, Lady Whichels, wrapped in the proffered slab, and shook his belle of half a dozen seasons. Her a dressing gowr, listened to him head.

Dornton is, of course, 'impossible.' the most fastidious could have de has jilted her, and I proposed yester- chew it. But if you will join me, I There can be no question about that. sired. Moreover, she was not pretty, day. I don't suppose you will be will open this box of candy I bought It is only necessary to make Bertie but beautiful—the most beautiful pleased, but she is the nicest girl I just before I got on the teain. girl present. There was no good ever met in my life, and I mean to The traveling man looke t at the

"Yes. Even I Last month I

dressing room before the fire, talking a judgment on me; perhaps it is a acquainted over a small bottle, of red bodies of the fine Jersy cows den, Edge combe county, in 1879, "I know all that," said Lady to her favorite son, the widow came judgment on you for plotting her whose content they possessed none of and his high spirited horses. should not have had the opportunity York Sun. "She isn't farouche at all Philip," of failing in love with her-if you flects that it was all entirely due to "She is a very charming girl," said her own brilliant interference she to convey .- F. C. Philips in Madame.

The Safest Place.

General Lee used to tell a story about a darkey that served in the war. . It seems that during the heat of the battle the General and his attendants were posted on a small action. They Edescried a colored four kings au' an ace, an ye laid soldier racing toward them, leaping down ver hand as usual. over obstacles in his path, his face blanched with fear. He rushed up and fell headlong on the ground in quite cover the ground fur front of Lee, crying, "Oh, massa, Pardner, I don't say yer workin one almost frightened to death, and use- more poker this evenin'."-Washingless as a soldier. It disgusted him ton Star. But just after Miss Dornton's visit somewhat, but his curiosity was Needed No Director. Mrs, Knice-But don't you think the boy would get along more com-direct his tastes? Mrs. Knumb-Oh, his tastes are all right. He'll eat anything you to take place. Now, what do you put before him, 's long's it's vituals.

-Boston Transcript. Fitz Lee Confirmed.

ABSOLUTELY PURF

When Tillman reaches the end of The count made by Mr. Reed's his rope in this country he can pull friends shows that if one McKinler head, several stripes of court-plaster Would I? exclaimed the stranger on his cheek and his arm in a sling. radiantly. Well I should say I "Well, I licked him," he said " would, but - his voice fell to a whis- admit that I look pretty tough, but per and the eager light in his eyes I licked him just the same." died to a far away, sad expression, I am already married .- Washing on Spanish plan," suggested the man

Another Product of Fusion. Hardly a day passes that the papers do not tell of some peculiar and astounding action by the freak abled there would have been another p oducts of the late legislature. A fight right then .- Chicago Post. gentleman who returned to Winston a few days ago from a visit to Moore county tells the Sentinel a colored man was tried before one of the new magistrates in that county, several the heart, read the third chapter of days ago, on the charge of beating his wife with a board. A voung lawyer appeared for the defendant and plead earnestly for the release of the old darkey. The magistrate ruled, however, that Sambo was guilty of manslanghter and he entered up his judgment accordingly. n addition to this, he decided that the wife was entitled to a divorce,

May I offer you a stick of gum?

I-I beg your pardon, he said, I

Subsequently they became better

Reasonable Doubt

" Pardner," said Derringer Dan, "you'll excuse me, but I'll have to quit you. Lain't playin no more Vil know it. And I'm goin' cash 'em in, too You look like er tenderfoot, an' ve talk like one. But did read the newspapers, an' orter know better."

while ago."

knoll watching the course of the flush an' ve said the same. I got "That was remarkable," "'Remarkable' don't seem te o' these Roentgen ray outfits on me Lee saw at once that the man was All I say is thet I ain't a-playin no

He Lacked Tact. "That boy of yours is not adapt

"What's the trouble with him?" "He has not got a realizing sense of what is due the afflicted. Day before yesterday Mrs. B buried her mendably if he had somabody to fourth husband. I sent your boy up to learn at what time the distressed widow wished the ceremouy

"I've no idea." "He asked her what her regular forg time I am always willing and the objection, my dear boy. You first impression of his brother's Senate to-day confirmed the nominable bands. I expect to lose her trade entered to accommodate my custom. The objection of his brother's limit objection, my dear boy. You first impression of his brother's limit of Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, tirely. ers, and always keep up with the we t to marry Miss Dornton—marry figures had been more than confirm- tion of Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, latest styles.

How We Do It.

He had a green shade over one he had stopped to tell about it.

If he had not been so badly dis

Remedy for Trouble.

If you are down with the blues

If there is a chilly sensation about

If you don't know where to lool for a month's rent, read the twenty-

If you are lonesome and unpro-

If the stove pipe has fallen down

A Touching Sight.

Hall and Money Fight.

chapter of first Corinthians.

read the twenty third Psalm.

"How is that," he asked.

Foreign Mission for Tillman. Might have Some Show Then.

Chicago Record.

tion as any other man in the field .-Misunderstood.

Would you like to take a chance? asked the timid, rosy-cheeked maid-

Knew Too Much.

label on the box and shuddered hims if outside and did not relish ton's first appearance was to be "Bertie has jilted her!" gasped the We make that candy, he remarked the building and the bay, but most shape and general appearance conshruggling his shoulders. I never of the animals also. After the fire form in every particular to that of a the owner walked over the ruins.

"But you have a lot of chins vet." remarked the young man from the

"I really don't quite follow you." "I had four nine-spots a little "Sartin'. An' ye didn't do a thing but say ve'd stay out. Then I had a

"Did you come here to get out of ed to the undertaking business," explained an undertaker to the boy "Yes, massa; where de generals father, who inquired why he had am is de safest place on de field." been discharged.

suppose he asked her?"

He Caught on A modest young lady wanting to make a purchase stepped in at Jim Starkey's and addressed him thus: "It is my desire to obtain a pair of circular elastic appendages, capable of being contracted or expanded by means of oscillating burnished steel appliances that sparkle like particles of gold leaf set with Alaskan diamonds and which are utilized for retaining in proper position the habiliments of the lower extremitie:, which innate delicacy forbids me to mention." Jim looked puzzled for a minute but got out of the dilemma by saying: "I guess you can fin

Hold on, Boys.

garters at Clark's right next door."

Hold on to virtue, it is above all price to you, in all times and places. Hold on to your good character, for it is and ever will be your best

"You must have done it on the Hold on to your hand when you are about to strike, steal or do an improper act.

Hold on to truth, for it will serve "Why, the way Spain has whipped well and do you good throughout eternity.

> Hold on to your tougue when you are just ready to swear, lie, or speak harshly, or use an improper word. Hold on to your temper when you are angry, excited, or imposed upon. or others are angry about you.

Hold on to your heart when evil persons seek your company and invite you to join their games, mirth and revelry. Hold on to your good name at all LUXURIES.

to you than gold, high place or tected, read the ninety first Psalm. fashionable attire. - Selected. Free Pills.

times, for it is much more valuable and the cook gone off in a pet, put Send your address to H. E. Bucklen up the pipe and wash your hands, & Co., Chicago, and get a free sam. THE DAY OF and read the third chapter of ple box of Dr. King, s New Life Pills. THE CANDLE merits. These pills are easy in ac-If you find yourself losing confidence in men, re i the thirteenth tion are particulary effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver trou-If people pelt you with hard words, bles they have been proved invalua read the fifteenth chapter of John ble. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious If you are getting discouraged substance and to be purely vegetable. about your work, read Psalms exxvi and Galatians vi: 7.9

If you are all out or sorts, read the twelfth chapter of Hebrews.—

Sold by J. De Morris Druggist.

If you are getting discoursged and to be purely vigetable.

They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box.

Sold by J. De Morris Druggist.

IF YOU'RE

A Frog Boy.

The Tarboro Southernor last week In the western part of Massagave the following description of a chusetts a man * had a fine stock most wonderful human being: "There was on exhibition on our But a few weeks ago fire broke streats last Saturday quite a curosity out in the barn and burned not only in form of the negro boy, whose

It was a sad sight to see he char- "This boy was born at Bear Gar-On account of his unfortunate con--But at the end of the barn he dicion, his mother kept him confined saw a sight which touched him more and did not disclose his existence for than the rest. There sat an old ten years. His mother has six children besides him, and they are all in He wondered that she did not good health and have every sign of move her head to look at him as he being well developed. This human came near, but be thought she must freak has a head twenty-three inches around and is remarkably bright He poked her with his cane, and He has musicial talent and learns to his surprise the wing ne touched easily. He walks on his elbows and rolls on the ground like a ball. He Then he knew that she had been has been known to go two or three miles a day over ploughed ground. But out from under her wing his legs are badly deformed. In came a faint peep, and pushing her them are the bones, but in the hips the case or M. H. Garrett vs. Har-

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Repre- for any museum. "Mr. J. B. Keech will take the Money, of Mississippi, came to blows boy to New York in a week or two place." This 22nd day of April 1896.

A. L. BROOKS, to-day in the room of the House to place him in a museum. He has committee on naval affairs, of which several offers. both are members and from blows "If the boy comes up to expecta- Buy the BEST. to throwing heavy inkstands. Money tions, he will be valuable."

received an ungly gash on the head from an inkstand thrown by Hall So Mr. Gilman Brown of 34 Mil' and was out and scratched elsewhere on the face by fragments of glass, by the doctors. His son had Lung Hall was not struck by Money's mis- trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, sles and suffered no injury. Money and he spent three hundred and sev- MR. R. I. FEATHERSTON. required the services of a surgeon to finally gave him up saying: "Your sew up his cut after which he went boy won't live a month." He tired 1 will say in reply that I am well home. Hall shortly after the fracas Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few pleased with the result from your took his accustomed seat in the bottle restored him to health and en-House. There are a number of ver- abled him to work a perfetly well baceo from the ground up at an avman. He says he owes his present erage of $28.50 per hundred. Shall sions as to how the difficulty arose but it seems that while talking over a bill pending before the committee, the lie was passed or exchanged and the lie was passed or excha

the fight begau. There is probability that one or both would have suffered Any prayer is too long that is worse harm if the door-keeper of the made in church by the man whose committee, Thomas Coakley, had not vrrdstick is too short.

seperated them and given their There is a sense in which we must friends an opportunity to restrain pray for everybody before we can sold load on the Pioneer Warehouse ray for ourselvs.

There are pleasures in sin, but We can never have right views

Person County Courier Published every Wednesday by

NOBIL BROS

BOXBORO, N. C. One Copy One Yest,

One Copy Six Mon Cash invariably in ac

ADMITTED AT

1st-That death will come to all. 2nd-That Groceries sold by W. J. JOHNSON & CO. are the best that can be had, and the price is just as low as firstclass goods can be bought anywhere.

GROCERIES. TABLE

Lots of dainties not found in ordinary stores; prices no higher than you pay for inferior grades.

has gone and the lamp has taken its place and our line of Crockery

we are offering the largest assortment of lamps in this town. Ask to see for Groceries always come

W. J. JOHNSON & CO.

Cough, one or tro staht efforts on quently during the right. Short breathing after exertion. Tightness of the chest.

Quick pulse, especially the ceable in the rening and a ter a from al.

Chilliness in the e-change followed by Slight fever.

Perspiration toward morning and Pale face and langued in the morning r. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption away the symptoms named. It is manufactured by the Acker Medicine Co., 16 and 18 Chambers St., New York, and sold by all reputable druggists.

NOTICE. aside with his cane the man found— no bone can be found. He can put riett A. Garrett et als, I will on the what do you think?—ten little live his feet back of his head and rest the Court House door in Roxboro to vellow chickens. The poor hen had them easily in almost any position the highest bidder at public auction sacrificed her own life to save them. When stting erect, his feet are under for cash, the following described lot The sight touched the man more him like a frog. He cannot stand of land for partition, to wit: A lot than anything else.—The Church- alone. In fact, his feet and legs are on either side of the Lynchburg & useless. This boy is a wonderful Durham Railroad, and adje piece of humanity and a fit subject lands of J. C. Pass, Calvin H Reubin Blackwell and others: Con known as the "Rachael Williams

YELLOW LEAF GUANO

MANUFACTURED BY CLEMENTS, CARINGTON & Co. Lynchburg, Va.

Roxboro, N. C.

J. T. Jordan.

Agent Yellow Leaf Guano I will say in reply that I have been using your guano for several years. and I am well pleased with the re sults last year, being a had year for floor at an average of $35 per bundred pounds and will use it again

W. E. Farley.

Rai y; leave 1 6 15 p. 7.40 p. 1 leave 1 30 am, ille 8 04

Oxford sept Sun-e at Hen-n. daily ii y. Ke-n. daily, and 8 30 30 p. m.,