

The Tyranny of the Desk.

We will suppose that your occupation is sedentary—that you are chained, so to speak to the desk in some counting house, or perhaps to the loom in some vast mill where you are compelled to labor from morning till night. Sunday is your only day of relaxation. You return home every evening wearied mentally and bodily. Your health and strength begins to fail. What will most effectually recuperate your vital energy? The weight of evidence points to no other conclusion than that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is your safest, most reliable sheet anchor. Used persistently, your system will soon regain its pristine vigor. Every function will receive a healthful impulse. There is no remedy to equal the Bitters for nervousness and want of sleep, dyspepsia, constipations and biliousness. It averts and remedies all forms of malarial disease, and is a preventive of rheumatism and neuralgia.

The Caucasian printing press ran all day Sunday and night without stopping. With every revolution of the press a Hayseeder was manufactured. Sixty five thousand copies were printed to be used as campaign documents. Republicans are sending them out and Hanna must foot the bill.

WINSTON, N. C., July 2, '96.

Mr. Jno. A. Young, Greensboro, N. C.
DEAR SIR:—You will remember that last fall you shipped a lot of peach trees to my father's plantation in South Carolina, which place is located in the great peach belt in the State. I have just returned from a trip to that place and I find out of the large number of trees sent I think every one is growing and is most vigorous and healthy. My father, who is an old fruit grower, stated to me that this was the finest lot of fruit trees he had ever received and that they grew better than any he had ever planted. The trees are very fine. They give every promise of being the finest lot that we have on our peach farm in that State. I shall take great pleasure to recommend your trees to any who are in the market for the best line of fruit trees.

What a noble specimen of a legal official is that fellow Mott, of the mountains, a radical solicitor. He gives out that he will not prosecute Russell's "savages" for voting without paying poll tax. He is a fit representative of a party that has thrived on rascalities practiced against the white people of North Carolina. While there is no cause for charging frauds in registration among Democrats the whole State is probably more or less cursed with frauds of this kind perpetrated by Russellites.—Messnger.
