Land Sale—W. T. Bradsher Com'r.

Are you going to volunteer?

C. A. Whitefield was in the city to-day.

Sheriff Sims spent last night with Col. Cunningham.

C. H. Morris has been in South Boston the past week.

Stephen Bradsher, of Gordonton was in the city yesterday.

Miss Susie Scoggin, of Bushy Fork is visiting relatives here.

The farmers are using great quantities of fertilizers this season.

S. C. Humphries, of Bethel Hill dropped in to see us Wednesday.

It may be that some of the April showers will be showers of bullets.

J. J. Lawson arrived Saturday and is spending some time with relatives.

The valleys, hills, and woods, in rich array, welcome the coming of longed-for May.

Mrs. M. T. Hambrick, of Leasburg, is visiting her son, W. R. Hambrick this week.

Miss Corinne Brooks and Hester, of Hester's Store, were in town shopping yesterday.

The article on the death of Mrs. Sallie J. Whitefield was received too late for this issue. It will appear next week.

Say! have you heard Ed. Davis was going to the war? If you have it was a misprint; it is only to Durham he is going.

Miss Mamie Lunsford, who has been attending school here, returned to her home at Durham last Monday night, accompanied by little Miss Myrtle Barnett.

Mrs. J. J. Dixon died at her home near Allensville Sunday and was buried Monday evening. Mrs. Dixon leaves a husband and a large family of children to mourn their loss.

When you want anything that comes in the bounds of the hardware business you naturally go to Lukin & Long, the hardware men, because you know they can supply you at the most reasonable price.

When you want the very best lime you are requested to call on Geo. W. Thomas—he has just received a car load. He says he is naming prices on several lines of hardware that are simply astonishing. Call and see him—everything in the hardware line.

Messrs. R. E. Long, J. De Morris, B. R. Long and Prof. C. W. Mason went over to Chapel Hill to see the game of ball between the Universities of Virginia and North Carolina. On account of rain the game was called in the third inning, the score standing Va., 1; N. C., 0.

Dr. E. A. Speed is dead. Such were the sad words received here Monday evening. As will be remembered the Dr. suffered a severe stroke of paralysis a few months ago from which he had never fully recovered. He was one of the best known men in the County, enjoyed a large and lucrative practice, and was universally popular with his people. He leaves a wife and several children who will miss the ministrations of a kind and loving father. His remains were buried at Mt. Tirzah yesterday.

G. P. Bradsher was a caller at this office yesterday morning.

Mrs. I. C. Green and daughter are visiting friends in Danyille.

C. B. Paylor, of Durham, spent Sunday and Monday here with his family.

Miss Blanche Barnett is at home, having returned from Durham on the 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Walker, of Danville, Va., are visiting Mrs. Bettie Winstead.

T. W. Pass and family spent Sunday night and Monday with R. K. Daniel and wife.

Mrs. R. B. Bass and daughter Miss Pattie spent Monday in town visiting Mrs. R. A. Pass.

The little son of Reuben Yarboro died Sunday night and was buried Monday evening.

Quite a wind storm in Reamstown last night. One cottage damaged by losing part of its roof.

Rev. W. B. Morton left Monday morning for Warrenton where he is engaged in a meeting.

Mrs. J. H. Shore, of Burlington was in town the first week of the visiting relatives and friend.

We had a pleasant visit Saturday morning from our good friend W. F. Snipes, of Bushy Fork.

Misses Daisy Fogleman, of Centergrove, and Gracie Masten, of Bethel Hill, were in town the first of the week.

T. B. Powell has been confined to his room for some time with erysipelas on the face. We are glad to report he is some better.

Miss Cora Cunningham is absent from her department at J. A. Long, Son & Co.'s to-day, but expects to be able to be out tomorrow.

Walter Woody spent Friday night in Durham. He says he went over to see the Mikado—we thought her name was Miss _____.

Louis Goodfriend has just received another new lot of clothing, which his low prices will make worth your while to see. He says he can save you money on dry goods and shoes every day in the week.

Mr. Alex. Whitfield, son of Jno. H. Whitfield, was buried Sunday evening. Mr. Whitfield was a student at the Institute here under Prof. Foushee and was noted for his studious habits and kind disposition.

Through the kindness of Dr. Teague we are permitted to publish Gen'l Hoke's farewell address to his division in 1865. The Dr. says he clipped it from a newspaper about fifteen years ago, when it was going the round of the State press.

Deputy Sheriff Harris and W. R. McBroom carried six prisoners off Monday night, four to Durham who go on the County roads and two to the penitentiary. Those to the roads were, Henrieta Willson, John Willson, Sandy Goode and John Bowes; John Mitchell and Bob Trotter went to the penitentiary.

"In time of peace prepare for war." Don't wait until the latest hour before seeing what's in the larder, or trying to prepare something for dinner, for like old Mother Hubbard it might be bare; but when such emergency arises you know Johnson, the groceryman, is your best friend. Not only table delicacies, but heavy groceries too.

Mr. C. G. Harris died here at the home of Sheriff Sims last Thursday night after an illness of only thirty-six hours. Mr. Harris lived near Hurdle Mills, and was one of the best men in the County. He came here to attend court Wednesday morning, was taken sick on the street and was carried to Sheriff Sims, where he continued to grow worse until Thursday night at 10 o'clock when he passed away. He leaves a wife, four children—three daughters and one son. His remains were buried at Clements, where he was a faithful, consistent member.

Messrs. J. A. Long, Son & Co. call your attention this week to the many different things they are showing for the ladies. Of course, you know they are always prepared to satisfy the wants of everybody in dress goods, clothing and shoes, but they also want you to know that they can supply you with the novelties in belts, shirt waist sets, side combs, etc.

About the neatest thing for the money that we have seen is the Banner Buggy, sold at $40 by E. D. Cheek, and with every baggy goes a written guarantee. This is something new, but the Co. says their guarantee means something, hence they insist on you having one. Call and see them, and remember the written guarantee.

New Postmasters.

During the past week President McKinley appointed the following postmasters for this County:

W. J. Winstead, Chublake, vice H. G. Clayton, removed.

Mrs. Eliza G. Carver, Roseville, vice W. H. Moore, removed.

Hester's Store News.

Miss Pearl Allen from near Flat River, spent last week with Miss Emma Satterfield, to the delight of her many friends.

John Hester, his daughter Bettie Low and Miss Alice Brooks from Concord spent Saturday and Sunday at G. C. Hester's.

One of our bright little girls asked her mother why the baby had no hair. She told her because he had to lie down so much. She then asked, "does Mr. Lem Brooks lie down on top of his head?"

Several of our young people attended church on Pea Ridge Sunday, but if they got a "goodly sprinkle" returning they didn't care.

Miss Addie Hester came home Friday. We would be glad to see her home more often, she is such a nice little girl.

Miss Annie Winston, our popular teacher, spent Saturday night and Sunday night with Miss Corinne Brooks.

Thinking you'd like to hear from us before we go to the war, we grasp this opportunity for fear it may be the last.

KERCHUNKER.

Hesters Store, April 25, '98.

Died.

Sister Charlotte Satterfield died April 11th, 1898 after a long and painful illness of two years, helpless but resigned to God's Will, a Christian in heaven at rest. I believe "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

REBECCA ROYSTER.

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Person county, subject to the Democratic County Convention. If my party honors me with the nomination, and the good people see fit to elect me, I promise them that the office shall have my personal attention. I will live in Roxboro and have an office where I can always be found ready and willing to perform all the duties involved upon me as Treasurer.

Very Respectfully,

T. K. GLENN.

April 26, 1898.

R. H. Dowdy Announces Himself.

EDITORS COURIER:—In your last issue I notice the compliment you pay the Mayor and Board of Town Commissioners, for which I thank you. As you have brought me out in your paper for Mayor, and as it is being discussed on the streets, the next Monday's election, I beg to say that my record as Mayor is before the people. I have worked for what I thought was to the interest of Roxboro, and done that which I thought was my duty—without fear or favor.

Appreciating the compliment paid me by the people one year ago I stand before them now as theirs to command.

If they shall say serve us again I will do so to the best of my ability, not forgetting that a "public office is a public trust."

Respectfully,

R. H. DOWDY.

For County Treasurer

In a short while now the Democratic County Convention will meet to nominate our candidates for the County offices. We should be careful and nominate the very best men for those places. I want to suggest the name of Mr. T. K. Glenn for the position of County Treasurer, believing that if he is nominated will make a successful run and when elected a good officer.

Respectfully,
Bushy Fork.
