

TO THE COMING RALEIGH.

Hello there, Raleigh!
Hello, come in,
To the sound of guns
And the merry din
Of a million people
Glad to get
You in once more
Out of the wet.
Where have you been so long?
Where—what?
Out on a lark
To give Spain a swat?
Oh, yes! that's so.
And didn't you do
A rag-tyme dance
To the Red, White and Blue,
All around the bay
Where the Spanish ships
Got their first of their real
American tips?
Well, we should smile.
And there isn't a mark
To show that you were ever
On a lark.
And Spain?
Where's she?
Ask of the cracks
In the floor of the sea.
And you benged away
Where the
Stars and stripes
Are afloat today,
And the Star-Spangled Banner
Has come to stay.
You seen you duty
And you done it, too.
And that's on a reason
We welcome you.
But there are hundreds more
That speak in thunders
As the cannons roar.
So come right in;
Take a chair;
Sit down;
Lay off your things;
You'll own the town.
Oh, good ship!
Coming home
From the rising sun,
With the fight
Of the East
Where the light
Was begun.
Lift up your gray arms
From the sea.
To the hands at home.
That are now
Stretched out to welcome thee.
—W. J. L. in N. Y. Sur.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and cholera. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. STROUD, Pepomoke City, Md. For sale by W. R. Hambrick & Co.

"I didn't see the widow at the funeral."

"No; her gown gtted so badly that there is a providence in everything; everything works for the best."

In journeys, as in life, it is a great deal easier to go down hill than up.

she couldn't restrain her grief enough to be present.—New York Weekly.

Miss Fondart—"Jack, what do they mean when they speak of the first water diamond?"

Jack—"One that's never been soaked."

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by W. R. Hambrick & Co.

A Test to Be Made on the Big Coal and Coke Combination Formed in the Kanawaba Valley.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—By direction of Solicitor General Richards, with the approval of Attorney General Griggs, a bill in equity has been prepared by United States Attorney William E. Bundy, bringing action in the United States Circuit Court for the Southern district of Ohio against the Chesapeake & Ohio Fuel Company, Cincinnati, and fifteen other companies or corporations, miners or producers and shippers of coal or coke, for violation of the anti-trust act of July 2, 1890.

In addition to the Chesapeake & Fuel Company, the defendants in the case are given as follows:

Donald MacDonal, the Robinson Coal Company, W. R. Johnson, the Kanawha Splint Coal Company, Carver Bros., Enoch Carver, Joseph R. Enshaw, receiver for the Big Black Band Coal Company, McCallister & Company, Charlemore Coal Company, Mecca Cole & Coke Company, Chesapeake Mining Company, the Coalburg Colliery Company, the Montgomery Coal Company, Belmont Coal Company and Harris B. Smith, special receiver for the Lens Creek Coal & Coke Company.—Philadelphia Record.

For a quick remedy and one that is perfectly safe for children let us recommend One Minute Cough Cure. It's their endorsement for croup, hoarseness, tickling in the throat and coughs. W. R. Hambrick & Co.

WASHINGTON'S VIEWS.

Why Should the Negro Oppose Southern Whites in Politics?

TUSKEGEE, Ala., April 10.—Prof. Booker T. Washington, answering the request of a prominent colored man in North Carolina as to what should be done to allay the present conflict between the races, says:

"I have been asking myself lately some rather serious questions, and I want to put one or two of them to you. Is there any reason why the negro in the South should continue to oppose the Southern white man and his politics? Is not this the source of nearly all of our troubles? Unconsciously we seem to have gotten the idea in our blood and bones that we are only acting in a manly way when we oppose Southern white men with our votes.

"In some way, by some method, we must bring the race to the point where it will cease that the only way for it to succeed is to oppose every thing suggested or put forth by the Southern white men.

"This I consider one of our real problems. I believe that there are thousands of white Democrats in North Carolina who are fifty per cent better friends to the negro than Governor Russell, and I see no necessity in continuing to follow Governor Russell, who has no power to protect, or, if he has the power, does not exercise it, rather than these other white men, who can protect us if we cease to continually and forever oppose them."
