LOCALS OF INTEREST.

Lack of Space on the Local Page Caused them Being Here.

—Autumn leaves are getting ready to take a tumble.

—John Robinson's circus is billed to show in So. Boston Sept. 18th.

—September contains an "r," and with the advent of the month comes the oyster.

—Archie Noell, of Person county, has accepted a position as salesman, here with his brother, E. R. Noell, in the Vestal building, says the Graham Gleaner.

—Our school is opening up well and it is to be hoped that there will be regularity in attendance. Let parents do all they can to make the school a success. Miss Pully has also opened a school at Pass's Academy, which is very prosperous.

—G. H. Hunter has added a line of nice stationery to his stock, and respectfully ask that you examine it if in need of writing material. It is good material at little price.

—Sunshine is not brighter than the smile of a child. There is no sweeter music than the innocent, merry laugh of childhood. Children should be happy. Happy boys and girls give life and cheer to this old world of ours.

—In the August Bulletin of Agriculture the following Roxboro enterprises are reported: Roxboro Cotton Mill; Noell Bros. Pants Company; Roxboro Cannery, and the G. W. Barch Cannery.

—Shooting, trapping or netting partridges, or hunting them with a dog, is prohibited prior to October 15th. The penalty is a fine of $10 for each offence, and each bird makes a separate offence.

—Osmond notes in Milton Herald: Mrs. Sam Pointer returned to her home, near Roxboro last week, after spending sometime visiting relatives and friends. —A. Y. Russell and Miss Kate Thomas spent Saturday and Sunday with J. Y. Thomas.

—Now is the time for farmers to save their fodder, and it is important that they should save all the feed possible. It will be needed when winter comes. The saving of feed now means saving of dollars then.

—Rev. W. B. Morton, of Roxboro, accompanied by his wife, arrived here on Tuesday to visit relatives. Mr. Morton left yesterday to assist in a religious meeting near Salisbury, but Mrs. Morton will be here for awhile, says the Louisburg Times.

—The election of a new pastor for the Scottsburg Baptist church was postponed until the third Saturday in September, because of the unavoidable absence of several of the leading members. Rev. C. R. Hairfield has been supplying of late and has been giving us excellent sermons. —Scottsburg letter in South Boston Times.

—T. K. Bruner, Secretary to the State Board of Agriculture, has been travelling through the bright tobacco section selecting specimens and securing photographs for the Paris exposition. He says the crop is fine and the cures are satisfactory. Col. John S. Cunningham's crop is especially good this year. He has 3,000,000 hills of tobacco under cultivation, being the largest tobacco farmer in the world.

Invite their Trade.

People like to trade with those merchants who manifest a desire for their custom. They argue that if the merchant feels the value of their trade he will be at greater pains to serve them and to give them the lowest prices. As soon as they believe a merchant feels independent to their trade or indifferent to their patronage they go to others of less pretensions possibly but of greater enterprise. One of the best ways to manifest an interest in the patronage of the public and to maintain an interest in your business is to advertise regularly. A concern that reaches the point where it no longer feels the need of advertising, has also reached a point where the public no longer feels that its trade is needed or appreciated.

Rocked the Cars.

Waller Holladay who returned from Roxboro, Saturday night, says the Durham Herald, brings the news that some one threw rocks at the L. & D. passenger train when half a mile north of Rougemont. The glass in one of the windows of the first-class car was shattered, though the stone did not reach the inside of the car because the blinds were down. This is not the first time this train has been rocked. This practise is becoming entirely too common; in fact so much so that people do not feel comfortable when riding through the localities in which these outrages have been committed. The authorities should see that the guilty parties are caught and punished.

Undelivered Letters.

The following letters remain in the Roxboro postoffice uncalled for. The Postmaster requests that when calling for any of the same, state that they were advertised.

MALES—P. C. Parham, Henry Young, colored, Bob Lynch, R. U. Brooks, E. R. Webb, Linard Tapp, Glen Toler, Haywood Solomon, W. M. Price, James Pauplin.

H. F. Glancey Dead.

He had been a sufferer from this disease for several months, and his death was not unexpected. He leaves a wife and three small children, and his aged father and mother to mourn for him. His remains left over the N. & W. road Friday evening for Beaufort, for burial. They were accompanied by the father and mother of the deceased young man.

Brave Men Fall

But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care much whether he lives or dies. It did me more to give me my new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Morris' Drug Store. I have come to stay, and am prepared to do all kinds of work in my line. S. E. Wooding.

Death of Little Carrie Pettigrew.

Died, in Burlington, September 5, 1899, the death angel entered the home of John and Willie Pettigrew, and took from them their precious baby, Carrie Alice. She was sick only five days. She was born July, 21, 1898 and died Sept. 5, 1899, making her stay on earth thirteen months and fourteen days—her life was short like the dew-drop on the rose. But her stay on earth was long enough to gladden papa's and mama's hearts, and home. How they will miss her! But she was too pure for this sinful world and all of its troubles.

Our Heavenly Father in his alwise Providence, saw it was best to take her to himself.

May this sad bereavement cause the mother to ever look to God for comfort and sustaining grace, and have an ever-abiding faith in Christ our Saviour, and may her husband be brought into the fold of the great Shepherd, and both be reconciled to the divine will of God, who never makes mistakes, and may they both press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, is the wish of their friend.

Death Still Reaping.

Mrs. Rebecca Duncan, widow of Giles Duncan, died at the home of Mrs. Henry O'Briant, her son-in-law, near Allensville, on Sunday morning, September 10th, 1899, aged 66 years, 2 months, and 26 days.

She was for several years a consistent member of the M. E. church, South, at Allensville. The last two or three months of her life were full of suffering; but God's grace abounded unto her, and she gave ample testimony that she fully trusted Christ, and died triumphantly. She requested that her body be borne to the church at Allensville, her funeral be preached by this writer, and her remains be buried in the church yard there. These things were done yesterday afternoon, witnessed by a large gathering of relatives and friends. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrow-stricken children, and many hope that each one of them may be enabled believingly to pray, "Remember me, O Lord, with the favor that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation."—Psalms 106:4.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Died.

Death the sure but unwelcome visitor visited the home of Mr. Magruda Wilborn on Aug. 12th 1899, and as its victim his wife Mrs. Mollie G. Wilborn. She had been a faithful member of Olive Branch Baptist church for several years past and to say that she was a good christian is the best that can be said of any one, so we think we can surely say of Mrs. Wilborn, she was always ready in time of need, a good friend and neighbor and the home that her presence once brightened is now filled with grief and desolation for wife and mother is gone. She leaves a husband and three little children to mourn their great loss while she, we verily believe has gone to reap the reward of a christian. The burial services were conducted by Rev J. A. Beam her former pastor at Olive Branch church and there laid to rest to await the resurrection of the children of God when she will again come forth to meet with loved ones she left behind. Weep not husband and children for her as for one having no hope but rather let the God of her faith comfort you in the time of your great sorrow. By her
