A person never realizes a good thing until he sees it. The best bargains in clothing can be seen at Louis Goodfriends.

A man never realizes what fools men can make of themselves until he reads a love letter written by some other fellow.

Spring begins with next Wednesday, and the weather calendar says we are to have good weather. Had it occurred to you that this winter has been a mild one, and that it is not compared with last winter? Up to the present time, we have had scarcely any snow.

But for a few things anything could be complete, and sometimes a few things do not hinder at all. It is an assured fact that the line of goods carried by A. R. Foushee is complete, and as to prices, no few things will hinder him from giving the most reasonable.

Who's the man that serves you with groceries? Is he satisfactory? Are his goods fresh? Are they good? Are they what your husband like—that's important—but the most important is: Are his prices right? If you answer the first question with Johnson's name you can put a great big YES after all others. They are good grocers; they've got everything good grocers ought to have, and their prices are as low as good grocers ought to make.

When Fortune's favors we would woo,
The sweets of life to quaff,
We find she smiles on just a few,
And gives the rest the laugh!

Victor Koplon is on the northern markets this week, buying his spring and summer goods. He expects to have a better and nicer line, and sell them cheaper than ever before.

Misses Pallie Yancy, Ada Hughes, and Willie Lee Nelson, left Saturday evening for the Northern markets to purchase their Spring and Summer Millinery.

An attractive fertilizer advertisement of A. R. Foushee, found on another page. It will be worth a great deal to you to call and examine these goods and prices. These goods are made of the best materials.

Jas. L. Foushee, his mother, Mrs. A. R. Foushee, and S. G. Wilkerson have been confined to their rooms on account of sickness, for the past week. We hope they will soon be out again.

A new buggy to use when pretty weather sets in would be very nice and appropriate. You can't afford not to see E. D. Cheek's brand new line of standard buggies. He has the prettiest line ever shown in this section. See for yourself.

The condition of H. M. Jordan, city editor of the Sun, who came so near losing his life in attempting to board a moving train last Saturday, is most gratifying to his friends. It is now expected that he will return to duty by next week.—Durham correspondent Raleigh Post, 13th.

Does it fit? That's the final test of a good shoe. Our shoes do fit. We won't sell you a pair that won't. We had rather lose a sale than lose a friend. Our $3 shoes is a surprise. The latest styles for men and women, boys and girls. A dollar's worth of value for every dollar spent at H. G. Clayton's.

General T. E. Gordon, the A. T. Co.'s popular buyer on this market, is the only person in Roxboro who can "duck" a sold, 16-ounce South African diamond. When he crosses one end of Main street, the glitter lights up the entire town. The diamond is a present from Cecil Rhodes, so the General says.

The following is a notice that was tacked up on a country store in this county recently: "I will hereby noticefy to the publick that I will sell on the premation of —, on the 2nd Monday in March the 13th of 1900 day to wit: My entire household and kitchen furniture namely, hogs, cows, chickens, feed, sweet taters, peas and meat and c. This day of March 1900 2nd."

Mrs. H. C. Barnett and daughter, Miss Maud, who left last Thursday for Baltimore, to have an operation performed on the latter, returned Monday night. Remember the 90 day offer, in which we offer THE COURIER and a good nickel-plate, stem wind and stem set watch, with good works, for $1.75. Call and examine it.

"Telegraph ticks" from New York say Bill Harris is buying the biggest stock Long's store ever held. Don't buy your Spring wants till you see their line.

The farmers are soon to be busy with their farm work, and will need supplies. They should bear in mind that good tools cost no more at Geo. Thomas' than poor ones elsewhere. Examine prices.

Tomorrow is the 15th, and your attention is called to a notice in this paper about taxes. Sheriff Sims says he will be compelled to collect them after the 15th, and those failing to pay, theirs will be put in the hands of the deputies. He says you will save money and trouble if you will attend to this at once. The Sheriff has been very indulgent.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at J. De Morris' Drug Store.

It used to be "Blest are the ties that bind:
But now, with the dude who has naught on his mind
But a passion for gaudy apparel we find
It really is: "Best are the ties that bind."
