

The Courier.

ROXBORO, N. C., July 25, 1900

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For the Legislature: WILLIAM T. BRADSHER.
For Register of Deeds: WILLIAM E. WEBB.
For Sheriff: SAMUEL P. WILLIAMS.
For Treasurer: JOHN B. DAY.
For Commissioners: WILLIAM T. NOELL, HENRY G. CLAYTON, R. H. BAILEY.
For County Surveyor: CHARLES A. WHITEFIELD.
For Coroner: J. A. WISE.

Hon. R. B. Glenn, probably the most powerful speaker on the stump in this State, will speak in Roxboro on Tuesday the 31st. If you fail to hear this speech you will miss a rare treat. Come out and let's give him a crowd worthy the man.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin will speak in Roxboro on Saturday July 28th. If you want to hear an honest speech and know just what all white men should do concerning the amendment come out and hear him. Remember the day, Saturday the 28th.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Hot with a big H!

Seven days off and then—election.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket!

Lost, strayed or stolen—a cold wave.

Obe T. Carver went to Raleigh yesterday.

Watermelons are plentiful on our market now.

Sumac is the most plentiful thing on our market now.

One of the most popular men of the day is the ice man.

Don't vote for any man who is opposed to the Amendment!

If the summer girl knew her business she would be cool to the men.

The fellow who goes to sleep in church merely has a nodding acquaintance with the clergyman.

It's the same old story—anything at any time and any price at Louis Goodfriends. Drop in and see his summer clothing.

Misses Ada and Alice Tucker returned Saturday evening from Chase City Va., where they have been for the past few weeks.

Groceries—The best the market affords is none too good for those who buy them here. Prices within reason, too. Drop in at Foushee's and be convinced.

J. H. Clayton is erecting a residence on his lot on Depot street. It will add greatly to the appearance of the street when completed.

The Semora marble players want to play our men for the champion ship. They'll come over here to do the playing. Suppose Parker Perkins and Mr. Carver try them a few sevens?

It has been aptly said that the man who sits on a limb and says it is a Solomon compared with the one who neglects newspaper advertising and yet thinks he can successfully compete with his more wide awake and enterprising competitor in business who pins his faith to it.

Governor Burch and Jule Daniel are on the limp these days—the first named for monkeying with the rear of his mule and the latter for dreaming he was jumping out on a pile of chaff, and walked out of his room upstairs in the Farmers Warehouse and hit the sidewalk below. Neither were seriously injured. A committee will be selected to buy Governor Burch an automobile; and one also to prepare Jule a room in a basement.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket!

Collars tumble down as the mercury goes up.

It's a poor thermometer that won't work both ways.

Walter Franklin was here Saturday and Sunday.

Do your duty and the Democrats will go in by 400!

M. M. Carver is on the Dillon tobacco market.

Mrs. David Long has been sick for the past few days.

Mayor R. I. Featherstone is at Conway, S. C., for a few days.

Miss Maud Tyer, of Durham, is visiting Mrs. E. A. Bradsher.

Don't vote for any man who is opposed to the Amendment!

The East Cedar Grove Association, colored, met at Lawson's Chapel last week.

The streams which for some days have been dry have been started up again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Clayton and Master Sam Brooks spent Monday, with relatives at Woodsdale.

Miss Geha Bradsher returned to Durham Saturday night after two weeks visit to her mother here.

Robert S. Long has the thanks of the typstickers in this shop for a basket of apples brought in the other day.

After an extended and pleasant visit to Richmond and Manchester, Va., Miss Johnnie Lovelace returned home last Thursday evening.

You don't get the best pocket cutlery if you don't buy from Long Woody & Co. They have in stock the best line ever in Roxboro. Call and see for yourself.

Tobacco flues—we have them ready, nothing to do but load your wagon! We have them in all sizes, and made of the best iron. Save dollars by buying your flues at George W. Thomas.

On account of the sickness and death of Dr. Satterfield's father, he has been unable to attend all his appointments, but will get around just as early as possible. He requests that his customers be as patient as they can with him until he can get to them.

Good rains have fallen since our last issue. During the storm last Sunday afternoon lightning struck the prizery of Blalock & Murphy, but no damage was done save the knocking off of weather boarding. A shower of hail, lasting about fifteen minutes was in progress. Some large hailstones fell.

There is an immense and constantly growing number of people who read the advertising columns of the newspaper before starting out to buy things. Many of them have no opportunity to study window displays or to examine a large variety of good over the counter. The advertiser who tells them from day to day what he has that is new benefits both himself and prospective purchasers.

Rev. J. L. White, of Macon, Ga., arrived yesterday and preached his first sermon last night, and made a most favorable impression. Services will be held every morning from 10 to 11 o'clock, and every evening beginning at 8 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. W. B. Morton, extends a cordial invitation to everybody in the town and community to attend these services.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin is making some mighty fine Democratic speeches in the County this week. He will close his campaign here next Saturday, and we hope to see a large crowd out to hear him. Mr. Kitchin makes one of the strongest Amendment speeches that has been made in the State. His many friends in Person, as well as in the fifth district, are just proud of him, and delight in the many nice things, which have been said of him in this campaign.

Mrs. D. W. Long and child visited relatives at Woodsdale last week.

J. T. Walker and Bob Scoggin left Tuesday for the Scranton, S. C., tobacco market.

Clarence D. Hicks went to Kinston today, where he assumes work in a tobacco warehouse.

Reports from the western section of the county say that the hail storm Sunday afternoon was very injurious to tobacco and other crops.

Mrs. J. M. Burton and daughter, of Summerfield, returned this morning, after a week's visit to relatives here.

Hon. L. C. Caldwell, of Statesville, arrived this morning and will make two speeches in this County for the Amendment.

Special sale of clothing and shoes at Koplun next week, just received over three hundred suits that we will offer them at less than half price.

A. D. Samuel, dealer in high grade pianos and organs, is in town. His instruments can be seen at the Reade Hotel. He has a Lester Piano that is a beauty.

The ladies are cordially invited to attend the speaking Saturday by Hon. W. W. Kitchin, and Tuesday July 31st, by Hon. R. B. Glenn. Their presence are not only desired by the Democratic party but also by these distinguished gentlemen.

We have heard many complimentary things said about the speeches made in this county by Hon. Victor S. Bryant during this campaign. Person County Democracy will not soon forget his efforts in their behalf. He is all eloquent, forcible speaker and deservedly popular in Person County.

Like a church, our services are free. We don't charge anything for showing goods. We're so proud of the stock we like to show it off. It's your business to buy or not, just as your own good sense dictates. We are glad to have you look—glad to have your opinion.—J. A. Long, Son & Co.

Experience is the most practical instructor. If there's any flaw in this it's never found. Everybody knows that 15 years experience is enough to learn any one. Johnson, the groceryman, is an old hand at the business and will make everything right to you. There is no place there for unworthy goods.

Don't forget that Hon. R. B. Glenn will address the citizens of Person county in Roxboro next Tuesday on the Amendment. Bob Glenn has few equals and no superiors on the stump in North Carolina. Come out and hear him and be convinced that you ought to vote for the Amendment, and forever make white supremacy in North Carolina certain.

The speaking Monday by Mr. Seawell was a very tame affair. Of course the negro was there in all his glory, and he enjoyed the speech—no doubt about that, but his presence this year seems to disturb the Rep-Pop. crowd considerably. Mr. A. P. Kitchin asked for division of time with Mr. Seawell, but the acting chairman of the Republican party had more sense than to allow it and it is well for his speaker that he did not.

The Roxboro Cotton Mill.

Work at the Cotton Mill is now on full time as it has been since beginning operation. There are about sixty or seventy five persons employed in the mill,—men, women, boys, and girls.

A car load of new machinery was received last week and has been placed in working order.

The dynamo for the electric light plant for the mill will be put in in a short time.

The ball bearing "Olimax" Sewing Machine only $25.00 at Morris' drugstore. The New Ideal at $17.90—better than ever. Don't pay two prices for machines not as good.

Big lot of "Buists Prize Medal" turnip seed, this year's (1900) crop just arrived at Morris' drugstore. Best that can be bought at any price.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

A Party of Our People Spend a Moonlight Night on the Lake.

On Thursday evening, July 12th, a party of our people—young and old, spent the evening on that beautiful and breezy sheet of water—Loch Lily. The fragrance of the water lily, and the lonesome song of frogs were helpful in making the visit more enjoyable. The moonlight evening was beautiful and refreshing, intermingled with an occasional shower, which made the evening more agreeable.

The following composed the party: Mrs. R. I. Featherston, Mrs. Obe T. Carver, Mrs. Maggie Strayhorn, Mrs. Lucy Chambers, Misses Lizzie Moore, Elma Featherston, and Talmage Long and L. T. Bowles. The following couples were in buggies: J. N. Thompson, Miss Gelia Bradsher; A. P. Kitchin, Miss Lilla Mann; W. R. Woody, Miss Willie Johnson; E. V. Webb, Miss Maud Tyer; Wm. D. Merritt, Miss Annie Williams; J. F. Harvey, Miss Meggie Johnson; M. M. Carver, Miss Susie Bowling; H. A. Field, Miss Mary Hunter.

Every one of the party expressed themselves as having a royal time. Supper was carried out in baskets, furnished by the Reade Hotel. The menu consisted of chicken, ham, sandwich, pickle and cake. Coffee being served last.

The party left for their respective homes about the hour of ten, and as the old saying goes, "Only wishing for another similar occasion," and no one regretting how soon that time would come. H-S.

Deaths.

W. D. Satterfield died at his home near Prospect Hill last Thursday. He was about 66 years of age. Many years ago Mr. Satterfield and his family resided here. He was a good man, and respected by everybody. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist church. Mr. Satterfield was a brother of Mrs. J. A. Carver, of this place. He leaves several children, all of whom have our heartfelt sympathy.

John Bowes, aged about 75 or 80 years, died at his home near Woodsdale last Thursday. Mr. Bowes, we think was a Confederate soldier. He resided in this county all his life, and was a chair and basket maker by occupation.

The many friends here of Mrs. W. L. Foreman, (nee Miss Lillian Simpson), were pained to hear of the death of her husband, whose life ended last week, at his home at Newbern. Mr. Foreman was a young man, about 23 years of age, and had been married about two years. About six weeks ago Mrs. Foreman lost her only child. She has the sympathy of all Roxboro in her double sad affliction.

Mrs. David Yarboro died Saturday at her home at Allensville, after a lingering illness. She leaves a large family connection to mourn for her. Her remains were interred Sunday afternoon.
