President Roosevelt's unasked pledge that he "will carry out, absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace and prosperity and honor of our beloved country" shows a becoming regard for what must be esteemed the desire of the party responsible for the administration of the government. A Communication.

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. But Southern farmers will learn after awhile that this method of sowing and utilizing their corn crop—a large part of it at least—is as valuable to them as it is to the farmers of other sections of the country. And when they produce more feed of this kind they will produce more beef, and more cattle mean richer and more productive lands. All of which mean more prosperous farmers.—Henderson Gold Leaf.
