

ROXBORO, N. C. Sept. 25, 1901.

Woodburn Notes.

The recent incident in our neighborhood as to Mrs Warren should warn all our women, both young and old to learn how to shoot with a gun or pistol. Get your brother's or husband's pistol and practice at a target until you can shoot steadily and without nervousness. After balls are put in the hides of some of the brutes it will be stopped.

Mrs Cunningham with her children returned wednesday evening from an outing of several months at Chase City and Lynchburg.

Mr. Osborne of Charlotte filled the appointment of Rev. F. A. Fetter at Cunningham Chapel last Sabbath, preaching an excellent discourse on the talents.

Mr Fetter was unable to be present on account of the illness of his wife. Mr. Osborne is an old Confederate soldier, being a Col. in Cavalry.

Misses Maud and Belle Cunningham are both at home at Waverly at this time.

Mrs. Wade and children, of Danville, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Bass.

Misses Belle Carington and Lula Oliver are visiting Mrs. T. A. Winstead this week.

Down with all the anarchists.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 25c. Sold by J. D. Morris, Druggist.

A Study of Political Hysterics.

A Most Lamentable Comedy is the title of a powerful novelette by Mr. William Allen White, which begins in the Sept. 21 issue of The Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia. This absorbing serial is a study of political hysterics—the story of a State gone mad. The scene of the novelette is a Western State laboring under the burdens of a panic year. The central figure is a grocery store demagogue, whose hairbrained oratory captures the State convention. The story rises to a height of dramatic power and intensity rarely equalled in the fiction of the day.

Saves two from Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by J. D. Morris. Trial bottles free.

Roosevelt's Son a Nimrod.

North Greek, N. Y. Sept. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is not nearly so proud of his father's accession to the Presidency as he is of his own prowess as a hunter of big game. Young Ted went with his father into the mountains on Friday and hunted during the morning with indifferent success.

About 2 o'clock in the afternoon the Vice President and his son, who was armed with a 40, 82½ calibre rifle, with shotgun stock, came across a big buck browsing in a ravine. It looked to the Vice President to be a good opportunity to test little Ted's mettle. The lad dropped to his knee, sighted and fired. The buck keeled over.

The shot fired by the young hunter struck the deer just back of the left shoulder. The buck was brought here by the guides yesterday. It will be shipped to Washington.
