

The Courier.

ROXBORO, N. C., June 4, 1902.

Dr. Tucker is taking in the commencement at Chapel Hill today.

Rubber collars, linen finish—can't tell them from linen, at A. M. Burns.

Hon. J. A. Long attended a meeting of the trustees of Trinity College in Durham on Monday.

Have you tried orangeade, the new and popular drink at Hambrick's fountain?

Thos. W. Pass wants to buy all old iron you have, and is paying spot cash for it.

There was a large delegation left here yesterday morning for Durham where they will attend the commencement exercises of Trinity College.

Flem Hamlett says there is no question but what he is selling the very best mowing machine there is on the market, and he is selling it cheap, too. Have you seen it?

J. L. Garrett offered us $29.50 for our crop out on the Jay Bird, and we declined, but we want to say just here that the first thing one of our warehousemen know they will have a crop of tobacco on their hands.

It was our pleasure to attend the annual picnic given by Col. C. S. Winstead at Loch Lilly on last Friday, and it was indeed an enjoyable day. A well written and full account of which appears in another column.

In a few weeks now you will be wanting to cut your wheat and when you go to get some one to cut it the chances are that you will have trouble. Why not see George W. Thomas and buy a reaper—will save you money and trouble.

Mr. R. A. Burch, who was for a number of years railway mail clerk, has been reappointed and ordered to report to Lynchburg for duty. He was one of the most efficient men in the service, having made a record equalled by few of the clerks.

We took a look at the work Mr. Barnett is doing on South Main street, and unhesitatingly say that it's the best work that has been done in the town since we have been a citizen, save the work done by the Commissioners several years ago on Depot street.

Mr. H. A. Johnson received a telegram Saturday evening announcing the serious illness of his father. He left on the evening train but his father died before he reached his home. Mr. Johnson's many friends here sympathize with him in his sore bereavement.

The team from Semora came down on last Saturday and played a game of ball with the Ceppo team resulting with a score of 14 to 3 for Ceppo. They are ready for our boys, but somehow or other our boys seem backward about making a date. Come to the line, boys.

The closing exercises of Reade-land Academy took place on last Friday and we hear the address, by Prof. Tompson, highly complimented. The exercises in the evening at 8 p. m. were highly successful, everybody pronouncing them to be of the highest order. We are glad to know that the session just closed has been the most successful since the opening of the school and that Prof. Webb will continue the school which he has so successfully managed.

If all the candidates will call on Louis Goodfriend he says he will save them more money on a suit of clothes than the most of them will get out of all the work they are doing in hunting for that office. He has just received another lot of clothing and is sure that he can suit you out of this lot, and as to the price, says he can astonish you when you hear how very cheap it is. Better give him a call—can save you something on shoes if you will give him the chance.

Ziegler shoes—A. M. Burns.

Ziegler shoes—cheapest because best. A. M. Burns.

Car Carson Line, fresh, at H. A. Thomas', South Boston, Va.

Mr. A. F. Nichols arrived home Friday night from the University.

Bon-bon, nothing better or more refreshing, at Hambrick's fountain. Try it.

Mr. A. B. Newman, one of Leasburg's best citizen's, was a Roxboro visitor last Monday.

Your attention is called to the large and varied line of summer shirts at Clayton & Long's.

Miss Maud Willson, of Summerfield, is visiting her brother Mr. C. T. Willson this week.

Mrs. W. J. Pettigrew was taken sick Monday evening and for some time was very ill. She is very much improved at this writing.

Miss Bessie Thompson, of Leasburg, spent Monday night in town on her way to Trinity commencement.

The campaign will open up soon and you will want to know what is going on in politics—subscribe for THE COURIER and keep posted.

Good weather for summer drinks and Hambrick, the druggist, has good summer drinks for this weather.

C. H. Hunter is selling the first new potatoes on the market today, but he is not much ahead of the Jay Bird for we have plenty of vines.

Ice cream as pure and wholesome as is possible to make it is what we serve, any flavor or in ice cream soda water, 5c at Morris' new fountain.

Death visited the home of Mr. W. F. Long this morning claiming the little baby which was just three months old. Mr. and Mrs. Long have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad visitation.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature on each box. 25c.

The mid summer selling is on at the millinery department of Mess. J. A. Long, Son & Co. and you will save money and at the same time get the very latest styles if you will call and see what they are offering.

All the young ladies from the town and county who have been away for the past session at the different schools have returned, those from the Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro arrived last Wednesday evening.

Miss Yancey says that with her two good trimmers she has largely increased her sales this season, and that she is receiving new goods in her line almost every day. She has ordered more than 20 pattern hats this season. Big line of hats for children, all of which are being sold at her old time popular prices.

There are lot's of people who can not drink coffee because it does not agree with them—makes them nervous and keeps them awake at night. Don't worry about it but call on Mess. A. R. Foushee & Son, the up-to-date grocerymen, and try cereal postum, the only genuine substitute for coffee, has all the good parts of coffee with none of the bad effects. Try it.

The Democratic Executive Committee met in Roxboro yesterday, and after discussion decided to hold two conventions this year, one to name delegates to the State, Congressional, Judicial and Senatorial Conventions and the County Convention to nominate candidates for the various county offices will be held early in the fall. The first is called to be held in Roxboro on Saturday July 12th. The township primaries will be held on the Saturday before July 5th. The committee was unanimously in favor of instructing for Judge Clark for Chief Justice.

Hot weather—time for hammocks—You will find them at A. M. Burns'.

Miss Lottie Bass, of Danville, visited the family of Mr. D. W. Long during the past week.

Miss Alice Carter has been quite sick for the past week, but her friends hope she is improving now.

Quite a number of young ladies who have been attending Littleton Female College came in last Saturday evening.

Mr. T. D. Winstead has just purchased another sheiland pony, this making the third one he has bought recently.

Mr. Hunter, of Apex, arrived Monday evening and is visiting his sister-in-law, Miss Carter, who as announced elsewhere is very sick.

Mess. Clayton & Long want you to inspect their general line before buying as their prices are especially interesting right now.

C. C. Critcher says he is anxious to show you what he can do for you in the way of selling you a buggy—big stock and low price for the summer.

Hon. J. A. Long, who was in Raleigh on last Tuesday and Wednesday, made a sacrifice in dollars and cents to be able to get home in time to vote for the graded school.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, No pay. Price 25 cents.

Don't wait for the rush, but come in today and subscribe for THE COURIER and perhaps you may be the lucky one to get that $65.00 buggy. It's worth the effort.

Saturday is the last day of "special soap sale" at Morris' Drug Store but if you don't need any this week you can find best line in town at lowest price any week you do need it.

Mr. J. W. James writes us that his friends Mess. David Long and Wesley Laws have left Ill. and have gone over into Kentucky where they will spend some time visiting relatives and friends.

We were glad to have a visit from our friend Mr. J. H. Scott, of Semora, on last Monday. He reports the outlook for tobacco this season very fine in his neighborhood.

When it comes to soda fountain drinks, there is no use of talking, you simply get the fresh pure fruit juices served in the best possible manner, as healthful as is possible to be at Morris' new fountain.

Don't think because it is hot, dry and rusty that you will not find any one in our office willing to write you one of those receipts, and furnish you with a ticket for the buggy. Come right on, you shall have our attention.

You Know What You Are Taking
When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No cure No pay. 50 cents.

We met a prominent citizen from Leasburg a few days ago and asked him why he was looking so thin? He answered, "because we have not a Johnson, the grocerymen, to furnish us with good things to eat." Well, we are lucky in having him to furnish us with eatables and whenever you want anything at all to eat remember he will furnish you if any one can.

Make your arrangements to go on D. F. Hankins' Excursion to Lynchburg Sunday June the 15th. Hear a good sermon and some fine music and take a ride on the electric street railways to the beautiful parks.
