He said that according to the usual precedence the court had no jurisdiction, but said that this was a most extraordinary case and the Supreme Court had determined to lay aside for the time the question of jurisdiction and go into the merits of the case. It was impossible, he said, to grant the relief that was asked by the petitioner, the negro, fiast because he had related that he is a qualified voter under a system which he admits is fraudulent and in violation of the constitution of the United States.

Several shots were fired by the robbers, one of which narrowly missed Mr. Prentis Wooten, who slept in a store across the street. A number of tools were stolen from the blacksmith shop of Rufus Mewborn with which to operate. The horse and buggy of Dr. J. M. Hodges are missing and are supposed to have been stolen. Two or three other buggies were seen standing back of the bank. At least six men are supposed to have been concerned in the robbery. to talk is above the right of a man to question. Women have a right to talk, they will talk and nobody blames them for it, they can't help it after they have seen the beautiful collection of summer goods that we are showing. They have to tell their neighbors and friends about how stylish and tasty and cheap they are. I have had a dozen ladies to tell me in the past week, "well my neighbor Mrs. So and So told me that if I wanted to save money and find the prettiest stock of woolen and wash goods in Roxboro to go to A. M, Burns' and it certainly is true. I am not disappointed, but find them even prettier and cheaper than she described." You will think so too, if you will come and see you will not only find pretty and stylish goods but you will find many more than you expected to see here.
