CAPT. GLENN'S CANDIDACY.

What Some of His Friends and Admirers Say of His High Character and Personal Worth, and Also His Fitness for Gubernatorial Honors. To the Democratic Voters of Person County:—

Having no strong state officer, connected with you by ties of friendship and kinship as my manager, to ask you to vote for me, and being unable to visit you, I take this method of asking you to help me in obtaining the nomination for Governor. Tho' not able to meet you now, in the past I have been in your midst, and that too at your earnest invitation. In the dark days, when laborers were few, and you wanted speakers to come among you to rally your forces against Radical misrule and corruption, I heard your call and visited different parts of your county, and did my best to arouse your people to action. One occasion, I will never forget, it was in 1900, when white men were trying to forever break the yoke of negro domination, you urged me to visit Roxboro and try and save your county in the election.

I went, the crowd was immense, excitement ran high, and every one anxious about its result. For two hours, with all the power I possessed I painted its wrongs and tried to arouse the people to a sense of their danger. When I finished, and came down among the people, you gathered around me, and hailed me as your friend, and said "if chance ever comes to us to benefit you, we will not forget you."

You need me then, I want your help now, it was a pleasure for me to help you, I was doing my duty and deserve no thanks, still if you will remember it, and not reward, but honor me by your support, I will greatly value it.

If in those dark days from 1892 to 1900 the other candidates were also among you, doing what they could, then they deserve your remembrance, if not, have I not a right to hope, that in times of peace, you will help those, who were with you in danger. I ask you to organize to go to your primaries and convention, and help me, if you deem me worthy I will gratefully remember your kindness.

Sincerely,
R. B. GLENN.

The following in regard to Capt. Glenn's candidacy is from Reidsville Review (of May 13):

"I am always for my home people," said Mr. E. R. Harris yesterday when he was asked as to who was his choice for Governor. If my vote should decide the contest Glenn will be the man.

Mr. Harris, who is the Commander of the Scales-Boyd camp Confederate Veterans, is one of the most enthusiastic of Colonel Glenn's scores of friends. He is always glad to talk about the brilliant son of a Rockingham veteran who gave his life for the cause which was so dear and near to our people.

"I know Major Siedman did his duty in the war, but there are other things to be considered in this contest," he added. "Glenn has never faltered at any duty, and had he been one of us in the sixties, he too would have been in the forefront. His father died on the battlefield, and a braver or better soldier never shouldered a gun. Isn't it one of Glenn's peculiar characteristics to get in the forefront of the battles today, and do a full share of the fighting for his party and his State.

The veterans have no firmer friend in the State than Mr. Harris. He would do everything possible for their comfort in their declining years and he loves them with a tender devotion. His advocacy of Colonel Glenn's candidacy is consistent with this devotion to the minutest detail.

"Here is a son of a Confederate soldier, who at the end of the war found himself dependent upon a widowed mother for his support and his education. His family home was in ashes but heroic efforts, the like of which is known only to those women who were left here in those days in similar circumstances, he was brought to maturity the result of war takes up the fight where the soldier laid it down. Will the brave say that he deserves less? If our great triumphs so largely won by Glenn are to insure peace, who is more worthy of his countrymen's favor? But if another great campaign is required, if an able adversary must be met to whom would the people turn for their champion? Fellow Democrats of North Carolina, think upon these things. Your high sense of simple justice and political wisdom is the strength of our cause.—A. H. Eller, President Glenn Democratic Club, Winston.

He is fit, capable, intelligent, just, firm, able and honest. He is a loyal unselfish friend; a man who has more than once sacrificed his own ambition to make way for his friends; he is a man of success—won by his big heart and big brain. His executive ability is second to

HON. ROBERT B. GLENN.

and educated

"Not only has he made for himself a place in the world which the average man can envy, but he has reflected credit upon his State, and spent such a liberal amount of his time in behalf of the Democratic party that he is personally known to a great majority of the people all over the State.

"Nearly all my life I have voted for Confederate veterans for Governor, for Congress and for other important offices. I have never allowed an opportunity to pass to show them my love and respect. I am now going to vote for a son of a veteran's widow—to pay these brave women a compliment, and to show my love and admiration for them.

"Yes sir, if my vote will decide the contest you can put it down that Glenn will be North Carolina's next Governor," he added, "and it seems to me that a great majority of the people of the State are thinking just as I think about it."

If great reward should follow great party service, who would deny it to Glenn? Supreme courage is glorious whether exhibited in war as in peace. A valiant champion of vital principles endangered by no man's in the State. In a word he will fit the Governor's chair completely and satisfactorily.—Mayor P. D. Watt, Reidsville.

Every man who has held office under a Democratic administration in this State is under personal obligations to Mr. Glenn for he has done more than any other man to keep Democracy's rudder true and lead the old ship in the harbor called victory.—Ex-Sheriff R. W. Hutcherson, Reidsville.

While District Attorney he made an attempt to stop the American Tobacco Co. of its robbery of the farmers and went out of office with a record of being the only District Attorney who ever made an effort in this direction. The trust is against him therefore I am for him.—J. W. Fitzgerald, Ruffin.

He is like a giant oak in the forest—a giant in intellect and in his devotion to the Democratic party. No man in the State can compare services for the party with him and make a favorable showing. It will be a real pleasure to vote for him.—N. C. Thompson, Reidsville.

Glenn is the man. The stars in their course seem to point to his nomination. I had thought of retiring from politics, but I have concluded not to do so until Colonel Glenn is rewarded by being made Governor.—J. H. Richardson, Bensaja.

I am for Glenn—not because I love the white haired soldier less, but because it is now time to reward the young soldier who has fought so gallantly in the battles of Democracy.—Dr. J. C. Mills, Reidsville.

Although Suffering With Consumption, Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy Cured Him. One of the Greatest Accomplishments of the age.

I was very ill and confined to my bed. The doctors and every one else said I had consumption. My mother, two uncles, an aunt, and my sister, twelve years old, all died of consumption. My family were confident that I was going the same way, and that I could not live much longer. I had a terrible cough and night sweats, and I was just a living skeleton. I commenced taking Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and in a short while I began to improve and continued to do so, and now I can truthfully say that I believe if I had not taken the Remedy I would have been in my grave today. I have taken over one hundred bottles and now I am a well man. I am,

Yours truly,
FRED HOWELL.
