The annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held in Louisville, Ky., June 14th, 15th and 16th. It will be a great occasion. About four or five years ago Louisville had the honor of entertaining the veterans.

AMONG the laws passed by the Legislature was one requiring the prompt settlement of damages done to goods in transit by common carriers. Heretofore when a merchant had freight damaged while being shipped over a railroad or steamboat line, he has been compelled to go through a lot of red tape business and have to wait about sixty days to get his pay for the damage to the goods. Now early settlement can be effected, which is a considerable advantage.

THE head commander of the Russian forces to succeed Kuropatkin is General Linevitch, who has been in command of the First Army. Rojstvensky is to be sent with warships to face Togo. THE COURIER'S devil says that he is of the opinion that Rojstvensky will meet defeat in the event that he goes to meet Togo; that he thinks that if he were as badly beaten as the Russians, that he would be glad to end the fight without sacrificing any more lives.

By a joint vote of the General Assembly of Colorado, Governor Alva Adams, Democrat, has been ousted out of office, and James H. Peabody declared entitled to it. The ground upon which the contest was made was fraud. Peabody's victory, however, was a barren one. It was achieved only when he had given his pledge to resign and surrender his chair to Lieutenant Governor Jesse H. McDonald, Republican. Adams was inaugurated Governor of Colorado on the 10th of January, the canvass of the returns showing a plurality of 9,774 votes for him.

THE old blue back spelling book is hard to beat, in spite of the fact that the schools discarded its use years ago. When a person mastered it he or she was able to cope with the best of spellers. At a spelling bee at Gastonia the other day, thirty picked spellers from the graded school were pitted against fifteen old-timers who studied Webster's old blue back when they were boys. Gradually the graded school ranks began to thin, and when the smoke of battle cleared away, all the modern spellers had vanished and three grim blue back warriors stood as champions.

THE Winston Guide tells of a marriage that brings about rather a mix up. On Wednesday, March 8th, Martin Peoples, of Winston, and Mrs. Anna Hine, of Old Town, were married. On the 2nd day of last November, Peoples and his first wife were in the reservoir disaster and his wife was killed. Peoples was compelled to remain in the hospital several weeks for repairs. Getting on his feet again, he purchased a pair of nice bay horses, had their tails wrapped in ribbon and kept the ice and snow moving between Winston and Old Town. His recent marriage is the result. Now comes the peculiar part of it. His last wife was his first wife's stepmother, and hence he becomes his own father. Not only that, but he is now his stepson's grandfather and his mother-in-law's husband, and the father of his first wife. His present wife is in nearly as bad fix, as she is her husband's mother and her grandchildren's mother also. We suppose that an expert has figured on this complication, as nobody but such could untangle it.

Letter to W. A. Dixon, Roxboro, N. C.

Dear Sir: Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N. Y., had two houses exactly alike, and painted them: one Devco lead-and-zinc the other barytes-and-zinc. He paid same price for both paints.

He used six gallons of lead-and-zinc, 12 gallons barytes-and-zinc. He paid $18 for painting lead-and-zinc, $36 for painting barytes-and-zinc.

The total cost of the lead-and-zinc job was $27; the total cost of the barytes and zinc job was $54.

He didn't know he was buying barytes; the dealer told him that paint was as good as Devco.

A fair example of how it generally comes out, when you buy "something just as good." Better go by the name: the name; and the name is Devco.

Yours truly

Capt. R. A. Jenkins, of this city, has a handsome ebony cane that is perhaps 200 years old. It was first owned by Chief Justice Williams and next by Chief Justice Henderson, who gave it to Capt. Jenkins during the Civil War.—Winston correspondence Charlotte Observer

THE above picture of the man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion, and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold in almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

If the cod fish became extinct it would be a world-wide calamity, because the oil that comes from its liver surpasses all other fats in nourishing and life-giving properties. Thirty years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion found a way of preparing cod liver oil so that everyone can take it and get the full value of the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak, backward children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.
