

To Mothers of Ailing Children

Many little boys and girls in this town are weak, thin-legged, hollow-cheeked and bloodless. We wish every mother could know what our Vinol will do for such children. We promise that it will create flesh, build them up and make them strong, robust and rosy. If it fails to do this we will cheerfully return all the money paid us for the Vinol taken. On these terms it's your duty to try it.

Just received at the Red Front a car load of No. 1 Hay. This hay is bought to sell and prices are right. If you don't believe our prices are tempting just drop in and let Graham Thompson or Joe Moore quote prices on some of our goods to you. Bring us your chickens and eggs.

CARVER, MOORE & Co

Remember we are doing business at the same old stand. Shipstuf and Flour going at lowest prices. Come to see us and bring your produce. We are paying high market prices for it. A new line of Furniture just arrived. Guano rolling in by car loads, all of which we must sell.

A. R. FOUSHEE.

The people of a community, in order to be prosperous and happy, must pull together in every movement inaugurated for the betterment of their town. Fault finders and kickers against improvements along all lines, never do themselves or their fellow men any good whatever, and those who have the upbuilding of their communities at heart and are doing what they can to accomplish something, should not stop to listen to those who are trying to pull them back.—Louisburg Times.

"Everybody may feel at ease, for the winter is over," says the Philadelphia Record. The Record then goes on to say that Chief Sutcliffe, of the Bureau of Street Cleaning of that city, bases his belief that the winter is over from the fact that his horse is shedding. "It is a more certain sign than the ground hog furnishes," says Chief Sutcliffe. "You can bet my horse knows what he is doing."

TO THE PUBLIC.—I have sold a half interest in my business to J. N. Loy, and we desire to enlarge our business, therefore I earnestly request all persons owing the firms of Reade & Pass, or T. W. Pass to come in at once and settle same. I wish to close up all old business as soon as possible.

Thanking my friends and customers for their liberal patronage and hoping for a continuance of the same, I am yours truly

Mare Taken Up.

North Carolina, } Cuninghams Town-
Person County. } ship.

Taken up and entered on my stray book according to law by Cary Royster of Ceppo, Person county, N. C., living eleven miles of the court house of said county, in Cuninghams township, a certain stray mare of the following description: A deer bay mare of medium size and height, a white star between her eyes in forehead, also white mark on the upper lip between the nostrils, banded on the left hind leg with the letter J. Apparently about eleven years old. Said stray mare was appraised on the 6th day of March, 1905, at the sum of seven-fifty dollars.

ROXBORO'S Big Cash Store

Draws the People.

Attractive bargains from all departments have their force, and as fast as the goods are sold out, new attractions are added. Almost every day we are placing bargains in the way of customers, and it keeps the crowd coming our way. It's the unexpected that surprises, and when we can give you unexpected values in seasonable goods, we can count on you. This is what we are ever trying to do—to gain favor with, and take care of, our customers' interest. We know that the matchless efforts of exploring the leading markets and getting the best always awakens a high sense of appreciation and draws one closer to our business methods.

When the public knows all our departments are being kept up to the standard, it is useless to parade itemized lists all the time. So are prepared to please you as usual.

Very soon we will be on the market buying and you will be brought "face to face" with the newest designs, styles and values, and we can assure you our prices will always be as low as can be given by any store. Just be sure to watch our space every week.

E. A. BRADSHER.

To the Farmers of Person and Adjoining Counties.

Beginning with this date we have decided to dispense with all of our drummers, and do our drumming on our Warehouse floor. By cutting out this expense it will enable us to do more for the farmer.

Our drummers have done excellent work, and have given entire satisfaction, but we think we can do more for our customers by cutting off this expense, which is agreed to by all our men who have solicited for us.
