President Expresses Opinion of Moyer and Haywood

ROOSEVELT REPLIES TO MINERS

Condemns What He Calls Flagrant Impropriety of Western Federation of Labor in Criticism of His Recent Letter Referring to Moyer and Haywood, Accused of Murder of Former Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, as "Undesirable Citizens," and Declares That They, Not He, are Trying to Influence Justice.

Washington, Special.—In a letter addressed to Honore Jaxon of Chicago, chairman of the "Cook county Moyer-Haywood conference," made public, President Roosevelt replied to the criticism of his recent letter in which he referred to Moyer and Haywood, officials of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with implication in the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, as "undesirable citizens." The President says he regrets any body of men should so far forget their duty to their country as to, by formation of societies and in other ways, endeavor to influence justice and coerce court or jury; that they, not he, are trying to influence justice and he condemns what he calls their flagrant impropriety in the matter. He says that he indicated no opinion as to their guilt of the Steunenberg murder, but that it was a simple absurdity to suppose that because a man is on trial he is free from criticism as to his manner of life. He said he might as well be accused of trying to influence the suits against Harriman, some of whose friends had also criticised him. He said that Moyer and Haywood stand as representatives of those who habitually appear as guilty of incitement to, or apology for, bloodshed and violence. He added: "You would of course be entirely within your rights if you merely announced that you thought Messrs. Moyer and Haywood were 'desirable citizens'—though in such case I should take frank issue with you and should say that, wholly without regard to whether or not they are guilty of the crime for which they are now being tried, they represent as thoroughly undesirable a type of citizenship as can be found in this country; a type which, in the letter to which you so unreasonably take exception, I showed not to be confined to any one class, but to exist among some representatives of great capitalists as well as among some representatives of wage-workers.

"In that letter I condemn both types. Certain representatives of the great capitalists in turn condemned me for including Mr. Harriman in my condemnation of Messrs. Moyer and Haywood. Certain of the representatives of labor in their turn condemned me because I included Messrs. Moyer and Haywood as undesirable citizens together with Mr. Harriman. I am as profoundly indifferent to condemnation in one case as another. I challenge as a right the support of all good Americans, whether wage-workers of capitalists, whatever their occupation, or creed, or in whatever portion of the country they live, when I condemn both types of bad citizenship which I have held up to reprobation. It seems to me a mark of utter insincerity to fail thus to condemn both; and to apologize for either robs the man thus apologizing of all right to condemn any wrongdoing in any man, rich or poor, in public or in private life.

"You say you ask for a 'square deal' for Messrs. Moyer and Haywood. So do I. When I say 'square deal' I mean square deal to everybody; it is equally a violation of the policy of the square deal for a capitalist to protest against denunciation of a capitalist who is guilty of wrongdoing as for a labor leader to protest against the denunciation of a labor leader who has been guilty of wrongdoing. I stand for equal justice to both; and so far as in my power lies, I shall uphold justice whether the man accused of guilt has behind him the wealthiest corporation the greatest aggregations of riches in the country, or whether he has behind him the most influential labor organization in the country."
