THE RE-UNION

According to the previous announcement the Confederate Veterans met here last Friday and were addressed by Mr. R. O. Everett in the court house. Mr. Fverett delivered a carefully prepared address on the incidents in the life, and the character of Gen. Robert F. Lee.

At the close of the address Crosses of Honor were presented to the old veterans who failed to get them last year. The presentation speech was made by our townsmen Mr. S. G. Winstead and it was a gem. Mr. Winstead is one of our young attorneys, and he did himself great credit by this speech, and the speech showed the good judgment of the Daughters of the Confederacy in selecting him for this part of the program.

After the exercises at the court house were completed the old veterans formed in line in front of the square and marched to the Pioneer Warehouse where a sumptuous dinner was spread for them by the Daughters.

These re-unions are a source of much pleasure to the old men, and the ladies are due many thanks for bringing them together. The one sad thought at these meetings is the fact that the number is gradually growing smaller, and every year faces are missed that were seen at the meeting the year before—some have crossed over and will attend no more re-unions here.

The Roxboro colored band made the music for the occasion, which added spirit and enthusiasm to the gathering.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson burr into his thumb. He says, "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at all druggists.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased God in His alwise providence to remove from our midst a beloved member of the Womans Missionary Society of Mill-Creek church Mrs. Bettie Showell who fell on sleep Jan. 15 1907 we desire to express our great sorrow at our loss and our acquiescence in the Divine will which makes no mistake. Therefore be it Resolve 1st—That we humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things we'l feeling assured that our loss is her eternal gain.

Resolve 2nd—That in her death our Society is deprived of a useful member and a faithful friend one whose helpful influence will be greatly missed.

Resolve 3rd—That though not always present at our meeting some times be providentially hindered her obligations were never neglected and her faithfulness in any christian duty should be an incentive to us to follow in her foot steps.

Resolve 4th—That we especially desire to express our heartfelt sympathy with the loved ones and desire that the expressions of our love and respect be sent to the bereaved ones and a copy be sent to The Courir for publication.

Committee,
Mrs. Jane Brooks,
Miss Mildred Slaughter.

The Judge uses Forceful Language.

Judge W. B. Simmons of Fin-castle, Va., told the reporter that L. & M. Paint was used on his residence in 1882, and held its color well for 21 years; he futhermore said that three years ago he was induced to use another paint and is sorry he did, because the other paint didn't make good. The judge will now always use L. & M., because he knows if any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, house will be repainted for nothing.

The L. & M. Zink hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.

Actual cost of L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon.

Donations of L. & M. made to churches.

Sold by G. W. Thomas.

A Pleasant occasion.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lee was filled with guests last Friday evening though it was dark and dreary outside everything was gay within and presented altogether a different scene. We were invited there to attend a birthday reception given in honor of Miss Pearl Hall a very charming and popular young lady.

Everything was nicely arranged for the occasion and we handsomely entertained by Mrs. L. J. Lea and Misses. Bessie and Pearl Hall. Some written questions had been prepared and given each one to answer in a limited time which afforded right much amusement. Graphophone music was also delightful some very sweet pieces being selected for the occasion. The time passed rapidly by when at the hour arranged we were ushered into the dining room to partake of some elegant refreshments consisting of different varieties of cake and pickles, gelatine and fruits. As the hour was growing late we couldn't remain much longer so the guests soon departed each one expressing themselves as having spent a pleasant evening. Hope in the near future it will be our pleasure to attend another affair that will be enjoyed as much as on this occasion.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being effected. We then employed other doctors' but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters, bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c.

Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

LEAST GALLONS---

That's the thing to go-by in Paint—least gallons---DEVOE.

Compared with average paint, Devoe costs half and wears two or three times as long.

Compared with worst, Devoe costs a third—the worse your paint, the more it costs. You'll find it out when you pay for putting it on.

Paint half your job DEVOE; paint the other half what ever you like.

If DEVOE dosent take less gallons and cost less money, no pay. The cost of putting it on is about two-thirds of the job—

If DEVOE dosen't wear a year or two years or three years or four years longer—destinctly longer and better—We'll give you enough to do it again.

But we warn you how it will turn out. The best half of your job will cost you so much less than the other half, and wear so much better too, that you'll never devide again.
