A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS MARRIAGE.

Wednesday evening, December 25th a beautiful marriage was solemnized at the Methodist church here at six thirty o'clock, when Miss Eula Reams Carver became the bride of Flemiel Oscar Carver.

The decorations were elaborate and in keeping with the general color scheme of white and pink. Before the entrance of bridal party "Cavalier Rusticana" was charmingly rendered by Miss Pearl Lewis. As the party came down the aisle the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth. During the ceremony Miss Lewis softly rendered "A Dream," and then played Lohengrin's march as the bridal party left the altar.

The bride, preceded by the flower girls, little Misses Mary Carver and Julia Carver, was accompanied to the altar by the maid of honor, Miss Elma Featherstone, and were joined by the bridegroom who came with his best man, S. G. Winstead, from the pastor's study. The Rev. J. A. Hornaday then spoke the solemn words which made the twain one flesh.

The ushers were Dr. B. R. Long and Messrs. A. M. Burns, M. M. Carver and Wm. D. Merritt.

The bride was dressed in a brown traveling suit with glove and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridegroom wore the conventional suit of black.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carver boarded the northbound train and will spend sometime in Washington and New York.

The couple were the recipients of numerous and costly presents, showing the esteem and affection of their many friends.

The bride is a young lady of high accomplishments and many lovable traits of character and of a most winning personality. The bridegroom is a prominent and able member of the Roxboro bar and has a host of friends throughout the state.
