NEWS NOTES FROM ROSEVILLE.

Some Suggestions for the Consideration of the Democrats of Person County, &c.

I have not seen a news item from Roseville in a long-time. I will inform you that we are still here enjoying our hog and hominy, and occasionally a mess of white beans &c.

Our farmers are pushing their work, some are through planting corn and are preparing their tobacco land ready to plant. Plants are as plentiful as candidates for office and no doubt but like many of the candidates, they will be left for reflection.

Our farmers are planting more corn than usual and are preparing their land better and are using more fertilizer, all will plant all the tobacco that they can take care of.

Prohibition and politics are the order of the day. Soon the question of prohibition will be settled and the good old North State freed from the demon booze.

Of course William Jennings Bryan will occupy the White House after the 4th of March next. With Bryan for our National leader and W. W. Kitchin our next Governor A. L. Brooks our Congressman, Major J. A. Long for the Senate, W. A. Warren for the House and George Thomas for Treasurer to handle the Countys cash, we will be in the boat for smooth sailing (Amen.)

My main object in writing this scroll was to let our neighbors know what a rich treat Roseville enjoyed yesterday at the close of Miss Ethel Newton's school. Miss Ethel knows how to learn her pupils many important things besides books. The recitations were good, the singing fine and the children acquitted themselves without a balk. I want to say right here, Miss Ethel gave an entertainment sometime in December last that was splendid and enjoyed by a large crowd, it is to be regretted that no notice was made of it at the time. The parents of the school hope to see Miss Ethel in charge of the school next year at Roseville. -Respectfully,

JNO. C. VAN HOOK.

P. S. Has your Surl correspondent committed himself on the Prohibition question yet? Perhaps he is waiting to see how the cat jumps on the question, in view of joining the army of candidates on the winning side. J. C. V.

Democratic County Convention.

The County Dem. Ex. Committee met here last Saturday, and after duly considering the matter called the meeting of the Democratic County Convention to be held in Roxboro on Monday May 4th, 1908, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial Conventions. The Township Conventions are called to meet on Saturday May 2nd, at 2.30 o'clock p. m.

Democrats bear these dates in mind and see that a large crowd comes out to the primaries and send up a full delegation to the county Convention. The following is the number of delegates each township is entitled to in the County Convention:

At 1: Cates 4; Bushy Fork 4, Allensville 3; Mt. Tirzah 3; Holloways 2; Winstead 4; Woodsdale 1; Chub Lake 2; Curingham 2; Ceppo 1; East Roxboro 4; West Roxboro 4. Total 35.

At the meeting of the primaries an executive committee composed of 5 active Democrats must be elected and they must meet and elect a chairman and send the names to the chairman of the County Executive Committee on or before the meeting of the County Convention.

A HANDSOME STORE.

Mr. W. H. B. Newell Has Fitted up His Jewelry Store With Elegant and Handsome Fixtures.

For several years Roxboro has boasted of her elegantly fitted up and well kept Drug Stores, now we can boast of one of the prettiest and handsomest fitted up Jewelry stores to be found anywhere. Mr. Newell has recently put in mahogany fixtures, with a beautiful plate glass mirror covering one entire side of his store. Since he erected his new building it has been the admiration of all visitors to Roxboro, it is one of the prettiest small buildings to be found anywhere, and since he has fitted it up with the new fixtures it is complete.

Mr. Newell has added largely to his stock of jewelry and has a more complete stock than he has ever carried here, because he has more room and can show them to better advantage. You can find almost anything you want in the jewelry line at his store; but if he should not have just what you want he will take pleasure in getting it for you on short notice. One thing you can rest assured of—he will sell you jewelry cheaper than you can get the same goods anywhere else, and you can depend on it being just what he says it is, which is worth a great deal. Drop in and see his line and his new store.
