"HUMAN HEARTS".

"Human Hearts" is a play that invariably appeals to all that is best in man's nature, and uplifts him from the sordid cares and petty worries of daily toil and trouble. It is composed of a strong troupe of fifteen people. It plays at the Academy of Music in Durham on the 3rd. Tickets on sale at Morris-Webb Drug Co., Monday and Tuesday March 6 & 7.

IS THIS YOUR REASON?

An epitome of "why I buy at home" has been furnished by the Trades Journal and is now going the rounds of the press. It is good enough to keep going, because it is short, pointed and true. Read it:

"I buy at home—
 "Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in.
 "Because I believe in transacting business with my friends.
 "Because I want to see what I buy when I pay for it.
 "Because my home dealer 'carries me' when I am run short.
 "Because every dollar I spend at home stays at home and helps work for the welfare of the city.
 "Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods.
 "Because I sell what I produce here at home.
 "Because the man I buy from gives value received always.
 "Because the man I buy from helps support my school, my church, my lodge, my home.
 "Because when ill-luck, misfortune or bereavement comes, the man I buy from is here with his kindly expressions of greeting, his words of cheer, and his pocketbook, if needs be.
 "Here I live and here I buy."

The great success of "Human Hearts" is made possible by its interesting story of humanity and human feelings, and the skillful manner in which it is told. It touches our hearts. Strings, rouses our latent better instincts and makes us feel kinder towards our fellowmen for having witnessed it. "Human Hearts" is presented this season with an especially strong company of fifteen players. The engagement is for Tuesday evening, March 7, at the Graded School Auditorium. Tickets on sale at Morris-Webb Drug Co., Monday and Tuesday.

Overcoat Lost.

On last Monday I lost my overcoat somewhere between Henry T Clayton store and Jesse Long's store. The finder will please let me know of it and greatly oblige,

Great Chance This Week To Gain the Lead

This is the week of the Biggest and Best offer of the entire Contest.

Father, Mother, Brother and Sweetheart working for favorite in the Popularity Contest. This is the week that subscriptions count the most. The Contest Manager will be found in the Courier office Tuesday and Saturday evenings, from 1 P. M. to 8 P. M.

(By Harold A. Dickerson)

What is Gossip?

Gossip is a little insect that buzzes around, makes a terrible noise, and stings, but the stings doesn't go deep.
 Are you from "Oskosh" or Missouri? Did you hear that Helen Smith has 100,000,000 votes in her possession and that Jennie McClelland is the only girl that has a possible chance of winning the Piano. Well, there is nothing to it. These stories originated in "Oskosh" and are designed by some Mandolin Club who are opposed to the piano, and who further don't believe in woman's rights.

Discredit Such Stories.

Don't think that any information as to how many subscriptions you have turned in will be given out. Every contestant will be fairly treated in this respect as in all others. Nofavoritism will be shown anyone. The Courier is running this contest to make friends and not enemies. Don't seek to find out how many votes anyone has in reserve. You'll find out that the Contest Man "doesn't know, hasn't the slightest idea, in fact has a very poor memory."

Above all else, pay no attention to rumors as to how many votes this and that candidate has. Such stories are going to be circulated, but run your own campaign to suit yourself and be "from Missouri" as far as the other candidates are concerned. Believe that you have just as many friends and just as large a following as anyone in the contest and have just as good a chance to succeed if you go at it in the right manner.

All More Than A Year Count.

A two years subscription will count as two one-year subscription in making up a club. A five year subscription will count as five one-year subscriptions in making a club. In fact all subscriptions for more than one year will count on the order of this week. Candidates are not limited to one club, but may secure as many as possible.

Coupons are good until March 28th. Through a mechanical error the coupon in this and last weeks paper stated they would not be good after March 1st. These coupons are good until March 28th.
