CLAIM THEIR DEATH

Wife and Son of Sanford Hotel Keeper in Raleigh.

Raleigh, March 17.—Mrs. Powell, widow of H. H. Powell, the Sanford hotel proprietor, who created the panic in the union station here last afternoon by wounding Charles H. Smith, firing upon Duncan E. McIver, a prominent lawyer, both of Sanford, and then turning his revolver upon himself and taking his own life, arrived here this morning from Sanford, accompanied by her son, John Powell, of Southern Pines, and the funeral and interment in the family plot of the Raleigh cemetery is to take place tomorrow at an hour that will have to be fixed after it is ascertained when another son, H. M. Powell, jr., can reach here from his home in Johnson City, Tenn.

The sensational tragedy stirred this city deeply. Mr. Powell being well known and prominently connected here and Mr. McIver and Mr. Smith, whose lives he attempted to take, having also hosts of friends here.

Thought He Was Insane.

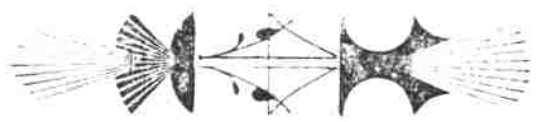

Deputy Sheriff W. I. Newton, of Roxboro, says he was close by and seeing the first shot and getting the impression that Powell was insanely starting to fire at random in the station, he drew his own revolver, his impulse being to shoot the man down as a protection to the crowd, but before he could get his revolver out, Powell had turned his gun of himself and blown his brains out.

Native of Wake.

Powell was a Confederate veteran, 68 years old, a native of Wake county. He farmed in this county for a number of years, then moved to Aberdeen and later to Sanford, where he has been running the Sanford Inn for five years. He has sisters living in Virginia and was on his way to visit them, although developments indicate that his attack on McIver and Smith had been planned. His impression being that these men planned to build a competing hotel.

LOUIS WEST FOUND GUILTY

It Was Murder in the First Degree

Wilson, N. C., March 17.—Special.—Guilty of murder in the first degree as to Louis West and guilty of murder in the second degree as to Ed Purcell, was the verdict returned by the jury this afternoon in the trial of the murderers of Deputy Sheriff George Mumford.

There was no demonstration when the verdict was brought in as Judge Adams had warned the packed court room against it.

The verdict is generally satisfactory, although some people expected a first degree verdict against both prisoners. Judge Adams announced that he would not sentence the prisoners until tomorrow.

The trial of other members of the West gang was then taken up. Will Lane, Will Smith, Dave Young and Matthew Mebane were found guilty of conspiracy and Wade Williams and Tom Smith were found guilty of carrying concealed weapons.

Mary Young, at whose house the tragedy occurred, was found guilty of conducting a bawdy house. These will be sentenced tomorrow along with West and Purcell.

He Is Now Styled Judge Baxter Boone.

The many friends of Mr. R. B. Boone, who formerly practiced law in Durham, will be delighted to know that he has been recently appointed associate justice of the supreme court of Oklahoma. Mr. Boone left Durham a number of years ago for Oklahoma, where he has been practicing his profession since that time. Some of his friends in the city received on announcement several days ago that he has been appointed associate justice of the supreme court of the western state and has taken up his residence at Oklahoma city.—Durham Sun.

LADY COOK'S COURTING PLAN.

Would Open Churches and Halls to Young Men and Girls For Lovemaking.

Chicago Record-Herald.

Lady Tennessee Clafin Cook has become the champion of Chicago lovers, and would introduce a system in the churches whereby young men and women would be able to abandon the street corner as the place of meeting and courting, out of sight of unsympathetic parents. She would furnish halls and churches where they might carry on their lovemaking unmolested, but under the supervision of not only the church but also of the state.

Lady Cook at heart is a matchmaker, and says she is proud of it. She declares the reason for so many unhappy marriages is that the young men and women have no real chance to become well acquainted before matrimony.

In her apartments at Congress Hotel yesterday, surrounded with flowers, books and candy, tributes from her Chicago admirers, Lady Cook told her views on lovemaking.

"Yes I am a matchmaker. Why not? I am proud to be one. There is no better work that a person can do than to start the boys and girls on the right path to a happy marriage. What I would do is to open the churches which lie idle all week and there allow the young people to meet. They could be furnished with innocent amusements.

"Would it not be better for these young men and girls to meet in a holy place and become acquainted than to be forced to use the street corner as a meeting place? Boys could come from the street and meet girls who otherwise would be forced to stay at home while possibly their father was entertaining some one else's daughter.

"Some people say that the sexes should be kept apart. I say that it is natural for boys and girls to grow up together to pure man and womanhood, and that this plan will aid in doing so.

"At these meetings there should be present some older person he may be a minister or not who will supervise the whole plan. If this idea were followed, allowing the boy and girls to really know each other, great good would be accomplished, I am sure."

Dear Courier:-

May you live long enough to contribute many more welcome letters like the last giving a description of dear old Leasburg. Why didn't Sis give her right name?

I attended the fall session of '50 and the spring session of '50, and the spring session of '54. There were, I think, 75 pupils. The school was well represented by girls from Person, Caswell, Rockingham, Guilford, Halifax, Pittsylvania, Charlotte and Lunenburg. A number from Roxboro, among them Bettie Mason, Bettie and Pattie Webb and Sue Moor. From near there, Bettie Peter Wilkeson a most lovely and amiable girl, Mrs. Foushee, now gone, M. F. and Arabella Rogers, Miss Yellock and host of others which hold a warm place in my heart.

I notice no homes are occupied by the families who used them when I was there. The Pulliam place was owned by Dr. Pittard. I boarded at Mr. Nick Thompson's. I hear his family of grand children are all dead. I have long wanted to go to Leasburg and go all over the place. I wish the surviving scholars would let me hear from them, as I am the only one near here who was a pupil then. Now I am an old woman but look back with so much pleasure and think so often of those dear people.

My brother Henry takes The Courier and it is always a welcome visitor. I lived half way between Semora and Cuningham. We have had much sickness and many deaths in this community, 9 deaths have occurred during the past two years. My brother H. M. Hemphill, is an invalid old Veteran now 80 years old.

Wish you success, I remain Your friend,

Mrs. Sue V. Lockhart, Semora N. C., Mar. 15.
