Hugh Woods.

When summer comes and trade is dull why don't you move out of a part of your store and give it up.
Would be just as wise as to discontinue your ad because business is dull.

Mr. Joe H. Carver is dealing very largely in real estate, having made a large purchase of Reams-town lots the past week.

In our next issue we will begin the publication of a story written by Miss Mary K. Clark, of Rouge-mont. This story will be run serially, and we believe you will be interested in it.

If you are interested in a good milling proposition investigate the Hurdle Mills property. Good location, splendid patronage. Apply to

N. Lunsford.

Nearly every family in this County reads The Courier. Mr.
Merchant if you have anything out of the ordinary, real bargains, why not tell them about it through these columns. Easiest, cheapest and quickest way to move it.

Algy Jackson carried a crowd of friends out in the country Sunday to attend preaching. A heavy rain came up in evening and the roads were heavy, consequently the boys and Algy had to get home as best they could, some of them arriving long about 9 o'clock.

If you are going off on a holiday, or if you have visitors will you not kindly call up The Courier and tell us about it. We know you love to see your name in print, and so does your visitors, and everybody else. Kindly tell us for we may miss some of you, and probably you will think we omitted the notice intentionally, but we simply do not know it. Don't think you are so important that we ought to keep track of your goings and comings, but phone us.

Dr. O. P. Schaub spent yesterday in Durham, on business.

Mr. W. D. Finger, of Charlotte, is visiting Mr. J. A. Long, Jr.

This section has been visited this week by refreshing rains, and the farmers are rejoicing.

Try the Danville Star Laundry —Snow White. Leave it at Hugh Woods Agent.

Almost every farmer in the County is harvesting his wheat this week. The crop is very promising.

Your attention is called to the new ad of Roxboro Real Estate & Trust Co. They have on their list some of the most desirable town property, as well as some valuable farms. Read their ad.

Mr. B. T. Whitfield, accompanied by his wife, is visiting relatives in the County this week.
Mr. Whitfield is a Person county boy, who is now living in Richmond, and like most of our boys, he has made good in his adopted home.

If we can manage to subsist for just a few weeks longer we will be all right, for we are cutting wheat at the Roost. And by-the-way, if you want any seed wheat you had better place your order early, for while the crop is large, of course, the demand will soon exhaust the supply.

Lost Pocket Call Book.

I have lost my Physicians Call Book, any one finding same will please return to me. The book has my name on it. Lost between Roxboro and Winstead Mill.

Er. W. T. Long.

Just received at Sergeant & Clayton's a fresh lot of Columbia candy, the best, in the following 10 cent packages and assortments: whipped creams, marshmallows, maple walnuts, ice cream drops, almonds and cherries. Try a package. It is fine.

Nothing is more becoming and certainly nothing is more comfortable this warm weather than one of our becoming shirt waists—we have them from 50 cents up to $2.25. Come in and see them.

Chief Barnett Makes a Haul.

Chief Barnett raided the shoe shop of Sherman Lee Monday night and captured seven crap shooters, four colored and three white. The white boys took leg bail, while the colored were bound over to Court in the sum of $100 each.

How about that insurance?
Read the ad on the inside of the Union Mutual Life Insurance Co. and fill out the blank and mail it to J. W. Noell, State Manager. It will not cost you a penny and may mean the best days work you ever done.

Watch Lost.

One day last week between Roxboro and my home I lost my 20 year gold case open face watch, no chain of fob. Finder will please return to The Courier office, or to me.

W. A. Painter,
Roxboro, No. 3.

W. J. Winstead, the man you buy groceries from, has installed a fountain and is now prepared to cool you off on these hot days.
Give him a call and see how well he will treat you. He invites you to compare his prices on groceries feed stuff, etc.

The Moving Picture Co. have adopted a name the Realistic.
Miss Bertha Whitfield was the successful candidate in selecting the name and will be given a season ticket. They will open up in the next few days, possibly the first of next week, announcement will be made as to exact date later. When it does open it will be first class in every particular and the ladies are invited to attend.

that notwithstanding the cry of hard times she is just closing the most successful season she has ever had, within the past two months she has sold more than two thousand dollars worth of millinery. She asks us to say to all of her friends and customers that she is very thankful for their patronage, and feels that she has given one and all full value for their money.
