Yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff Algy Jackson accompanied S. R. Whit, Ivey Featherston and Raymond Webb, captured a large blockade out fit together with Will Wilson and Dock Oakley. The two prisoners with the still were brought to town, and after giving the prisoners a hearing they were bound over to Court in bonds of $100, which failing to give they were sent to jail. Laymen's Meeting at Antioch.

Last Sunday there was all day services at Antioch in the interest of the Laymen's Movement. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Ustry, had charge of the services and made a splendid address. He was followed by J. W. Noell, and after an intermission for dinner Mr. T. H. Street addressed the congregation. After the address in the afternoon Mrs. T. H. Street addressed the Woman's Missionary Society.

There was an unusually large crowd present, and a great abundance of dinner. Before announcing the dinner hour the Pastor invited every one present to make themselves at home, stating that the ladies had prepared dinner for all and they did not want any one to go away hungry.

It had been more than ten years since the writer had the pleasure of attending services at this Church, and we were struck by the signs of thrift and progress this community has made during that time. It was a congregation resembling the best dressed city church congregations, everything showing prosperity. Well dressed people, fine horses, carriages and buggies. In fact there are few sections of the County where you will find more intelligence, more prosperity, or better behaved people than you will find at Antioch.

Cherokee Indians vs. Roxboro Last Friday.

On last Friday evening the fans of this section had the pleasure of seeing a splendid exhibit of baseball. True, the game was not completed owing to friction with the umpire. There were several kicks on some of his decisions, and finally the game came to an abrupt end at one of the decisions.

There was no disturbance among the players, for a more genteel set of ball players has not been here than the Indians, the conducted themselves as gentlemen should, and of course our boys do not know how to be other than genteel, but exceptions were taken to some of the decisions and the teams simply walked off of the field. The game was never forfeited as far as we heard, hence we do not know how the bets were settled—for of course there was betting on the results. At the time the score stood 3 to 2 in favor of the Cherokees.

It was a splendid game, the Indians putting up the best game that has been played here this season. During the fourth inning our pitcher, Burley Clayton, in attempting to stop a hot liner hurt his finger and was forced to get out of the box. Eugene Clayton, a younger brother, taking his place. It was probably the first game that Gene has pitched since he got into fast ball, but he held the Indians down, allowing only a scattering hit now and then. Our boys were on their metal and the indications are that they would have won the game had it proceeded to a close.

Takes First Ride on Train at 96.

(Monroe Journal.)
Mrs. Nancey Gardner, mother of our townsman, Mr. G. E. Gardner, returned Tuesday from a visit of four weeks duration spent with relatives in Tennessee and at Asheville. Although she is 96 years old, she rode on a train for the first time during this trip. The old lady experienced no fatigue as a result of her journey and enjoyed every moment of her visit. The trip home from Asheville was in a buggy, a distance of 38 miles. The Eagle hopes "grandma" will live to take many more such pleasant journeys.

Election by Direct Vote.

Washington, June 12.—The Borah resolution providing for the direct election of United States senators passed the senate at 10 o'clock tonight by a vote of 64 to 24. The Bristow amendment was carried by one vote.

The Borah resolution simply provides for the election of senators by direct vote, but the Bristow amendment provides that the federal government shall have the right of supervision of such elections.

FROM ROXBORO ROUTE 5.

Glad to report that Mr. C. H. Garrett has recovered from his wound, inflicted by a dog bite.

It has been very difficult with the farmers to get a stand of tobacco as it has been unusually dry for the last month or so except local showers. Some have succeeded by the watering process while others have failed.

Wheat is much better than was expected at one time. The straw is short while the heads are well filled and matured.

On the 9th our friend Mr. S. A. Rogers fell asleep in Jesus, and was buried in the church yard at Antioch on the 10th, in the midst of a large gathering of devoted friends. I was with Mr. Rogers several times in his afflictions, and I have seen a lot of suffering, but I never saw one suffer as much as he did. I was present on the night of his death, and I never had the pleasure of looking on one who passed out of the body temple more easily than he did. For a while his eyes seemed to be set, and as he breathed his last he closed his eyes as one falling into a deep sleep. Then I discovered a tear drop start that seemed to signify a last farewell to friends and loved ones as he was on his way to a better land and country. Very appropriate burial service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. G. Ustry. The grave of our friend Rogers was covered with beautiful flowers which was emblematic of heaven, also indicating that he had a multitude of devoted friends. In his suffering he received every attention that loving hands could administer and perform.

On last Sabbath evening the best showers of rain fell since April, and you will not know your crop in a week if you did not know it.

A Laymen's meeting was conducted at Antioch on last Sunday by Brethren T. H. Street and J. W. Noell, which I pronounced a great success. The speech delivered by Brother Noell, in the morning on missions I would class with the very best, and he said that he was not a preacher, however I pronounce him making rapid strides in that direction. I was sorry that I had to leave at noon, on account of my puny and fretful child, and did not hear the speech by Brother Street, while I heard it spoken of in glowing terms. Brother Street is doing as much or more for the advancement of the Sunday School work and the cause of missions as any other one man in the Flat River Association. We had a larger crowd to attend this service than I have seen at Antioch in ten years, and all were highly entertained.

So I will take the liberty to invite these Brethren to come to Antioch and revive us again. The church voted to increase its pledges on missions for next year, and a Missionary Society was organized by Sister T. H. Street who is also doing a telling and lasting work for the cause of missions.
R. H. JONES.

Marriage Sunday Night.

Miss Ella Brooks, of Timberlake and Mr. B. W. Murphy, of the Singer Sewing Machine company were married Sunday night about ten o'clock in an auto on the Roxboro road, Squire D. G. O'Neal officiating.

The couple came in to Durham that evening on the Roxboro train that arrives at 9:15. They were driven into the country soon afterwards and a few friends saw the marriage take place. After that they returned to the city and yesterday they went to Roxboro where they will make their home for the present anyway.

The groom is very well known in Durham, having been with the Singer company sometime. Miss Brooks comes of a good family in Timberlake.—Morning Herald.
