

Mr. C. T. Willson, the live shoe salesman, is at home for a few days. He is an enthusiastic Kitch-in man and says he finds plenty of company in every section of the State.

No other bed so good and comfortable as a Bernstein iron bed. We guarantee every one of them to give perfect satisfaction.

Harris & Burns.

There was a party of gentlemen from Greensboro here last Thursday in the interest of the rail road from Greensboro to Roxboro, Oxford to Henderson. They say this road will be built, as they are receiving flattering encouragement all along the line.

Look out next week for our free goods which we are going to give away for cash sales. We will send you a card telling you about it.

Mrs. J. P. Whitehead and children of Rocky Mount, N. C., Mrs. R. B. Crawford and son R. B. Jr., and Miss Evelyn Walker of Winston-Salem, N. C., are visiting Mrs. T. H. Street at Mill Creek this week.

Dr. N. Rosenstein, the eye specialist will be in Roxboro at the Hotel Jones on Tuesday August 1st, one day only. If your eyes are troubling you it will be to your advantage to see him—eyes examined free of charge and glasses fitted in the most perfect manner. Remember the date, August 1st, Hotel Jones.

The Masonic pic nic at Loch Lily last Wednesday was a great success. It was impossible for us to be present but we are printing elsewhere an article by one of the correspondents which tells you all about it. The receipts amounted to $71.00, the net proceeds of which will be donated to the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Mr. T. D. Woolly made us a call last Friday. He says all kinds of crops are showing marked improvements since the rains, especially is this true of tobacco. With good seasons from now on the crop in this County will make a pretty fair showing after all.

Mr. A. B. Stalvey and family of Piusboro arrived Friday and are keeping house in the Kitchen home on North Main Street. Mr. Stalvey is the newly elected Superintendent of the Graded Schools and we extend to him and his family a hearty welcome.

Loch Lily Lodge Entertains.

The young men composing Loch Lily Lodge Club are entertaining some of their lady friends this week, having gone out Monday evening and will look after their welfare and comfort until next Monday morning. There are twelve members and each member is entertaining a guest. They will spend the week as best suits the minds of the young, of course, under the sharp surveillance of discreet chaperones.

We have been unable to get the names of the guests but will tell more about it next week.

Died.
At the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Daniel July 16th Bud Hambrick, age 10 months and 8 days. God has taken him to live with him and it is his gain. Let us not grieve for Bud; he sleeps in Jesus with the silent dead.

Revival Services.

Paster C. P. Ryland, aided Elder J. A. Stradley in revival services at Sharon Baptist Church in Granville county last week. Among the goodly number that professed faith in Christ was an old man nearly eighty years of age. It was called a great meeting.

Death of a Little Babe.

On the 16th day of July God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wrenn, of Roxboro, Route 3, and take from their midst their little babe about seven months of age. Her stay on earth was short but may this parting bind father and mother closer to Heaven, so that when God calls for them they may be ready to meet their little Odell again.

She can not come to you again but you can go to her if you are true and faithful Christians. May the God of comfort abide with you and may you strive the harder by God's help to meet your little babe in Heaven. Her little body was laid to rest in the family burying ground.

A Cousin.

Dr. N. Rosenstein, the eye specialist will be in Roxboro at the Hotel Jones on Tuesday August 1st, one day only. If your eyes are troubling you it will be to your advantage to see him—eyes examined free of charge and glasses fitted in the most perfect manner. Remember the date, August 1st, Hotel Jones.

Boy Lost.

Last Sunday a small colored boy 14 years old, small chunky little fellow left home. He goes by the name of Billy Jones. He has a scar over his left eye. He had a little black and white spotted dog with him. Any information as to his whereabouts will be appreciated.

To the Confederate Veterans of Per-son County:—

Our State Reunion will be held at Wilmington, N. C., convening Wednesday, August 2nd. Those desiring to go can leave Woodsdale, Roxboro, or Helena Tuesday morning, August 1st, and arrive in Wilmington in time for the Reunion. So far there has been no reduced rates issued by the Norfolk and Western, but the Southern Railroad will sell round trip tickets from Durham to Wilmington and return for $3.40. This is an exceptionally cheap rate and I trust that many veterans may take advantage of it to go on this trip.

Tobacco Items.

The crop of tobacco is estimated to be about one half short. This does not mean that the crop of worms will be short. It will doubtless be enough of them to give you plenty of trouble, unless you have one of our machines to destroy them with. Does as much work in one hour as you can do all day. Price $1.90. Address, Acme Distributing Co., Reidsville, N. C.

Notice of Sale.

By virtue of a deed of trust executed to me by John Cash and wife recorded in Person County, in Book 18 page 353, I will on The 26th day of August 1911 expose to public sale in front of the court house door in Roxboro that certain town lot and dwelling on it, lying in or near the corporate limits of the town of Roxboro, on the north side of the Bushy Fork public road, and bounded on the east by Nelson Walters; on the south by the Bushy Fork public road; on the west by Tom Cunningham; and on the north by the heirs of Mrs. Sue T. Satterfield, containing three-fourth of an acre more or less. See deeds from J. R. Gooch and Lambert Williams to John Cash. This July 5th, 1911.
