A WEEK AT THE LAKE.

The house party given by the members of the Loch Lily Club was to a close Monday morning after spending a week at the lake.

The following young ladies were guests of the Club: Misses Jane Ray Kernodle of Graham, Cecelia Page of Bartow, Fla., Gretchen Kime of Salem, Va., Jay Kime, of Burlington, Lila Wright of Durham, Dore Korner Kernersville, Huldah Hambrick, Kate Long and Delma Noell of Roxboro, Mr. Jno. Scott of Durham, joined the party Friday night. Mrs. Annie L. Long of Durham, was the chaperone.

The following young men composed the Club. Messrs. J. P. Meadows, J. A. Long, Jr., Jno. B. Harvie, T. E. Austin, R. L. Harris, C. W. Long, Preston S. Griffith, B. R. Long, E. E. Washburn, M. R. Long, R. H. Noell and J. A. Noell, Jr.

The lodge is located on the top of a beautiful hill overlooking the most wonderful view of up country lake we have seen, the lake covering one hundred acres, with half of the water covered with water lilies, which in the morning affords a most beautiful view. The building is a large, well arranged club house, with the modern improvements, electric lights, water and gas, and thus combining the best of nature and of man.

It was found here one of the best places for rest and recreation. If you are ever tired enough to be invited as a guest to one of these annual "parties" do not make the mistake of declining, for by doing so you will be largely the loser. The theme of the party was fishing, swimming, boat racing, automobiling, and finally when they could escape the watchful eye of the chaperone a little "courting" on the lake was indulged in.

All of the young people of the town and many of the older ones took advantage of the invitation of the Club and spent some time with the party during the week.

As above stated the party came in Monday morning and several of the party were the guests at a six o'clock dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Noell.

SENATE PASSES SUBSTITUTE WOOL REVISION BILL.

Washington July 27. By a vote of 48 to 34 the Senate this afternoon passed a wool revision bill, a compromise between the LaFollett substitute and the original House bill offered by Republican Insurgent LaFollett. The wool revision bill passed by the Senate will now go to conference to settle the differences between the House bill and the substitute passed by the Senate to be decided upon by representatives of the two branches of Congress.

The passage of the compromise by the Senate has practically assured the sending of a wool revision bill to the President for his signature or veto. The bill was passed by the Senate through the union of the Democratic and Insurgent Republican forces. Thirteen Republicans and thirty five Democrats voted aye. All of the 35 opposing votes were cast by Republicans, among them being Senators Dixon and Borah.

As The Doctor Prescribed.

A well-known business man, whose health had been seriously impaired by overwork and whose nerves were on the ragged edge, called upon my physician the other day for treatment. The wise "Doc" noting that his digestion and nerves were broken, prescribed a rigid course of diet and exercise, laying special emphasis on what he should eat and solemnly advising him to smoke only one cigar a day.

The business man promised to follow the doctor's directions implicitly and two weeks later turned up looking decidedly improved. "Well, how do you feel?" asked the doctor. "Pretty good, Doc," he replied. "I have lived up to your directions to the letter. I could stand the cutting of meats and booze, but that one cigar a day nearly knock me out."

"Why, you should not mind that," replied the curer.

"Well, you see, Doc," replied the patient, "I never smoked before."

I am closing out my flues and will sell at about cost. Come to see me before you buy and I will save you money on your flue bill. R. E. Crutchfield.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Democratic Party Carrying Out Campaign Pledges—Consideration for Women.

By Clyde H. Tavenner.

Washington, July 31. — Another step toward carrying out campaign pledges was taken by the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives when it adopted a cotton schedule which greatly reduces the tax on all kinds of cotton goods.

If the Republican Senate and President Taft will permit the bill to become a law, the public will be assured of substantial reductions in prices. The bill is so framed as to be a particular boon to the poor, for the greatest reductions are made on cottons used by the middle classes and the poor. This feature of the Democratic bill is in particularly striking contrast to the Payne-Aldrich law, which levies the lowest rates on the grades of cottons used by the poor.

The Payne-Aldrich tax of 50.02 per cent on ready made clothing and articles of wearing apparel of every descriptions composed of cotton or vegetable fibre is reduced to 30 per cent. The Payne-Aldrich tax of 45 per cent on blankets and quilts, towels, dollies, batting, mops, washrags, etc., is reduced to 25 per cent. The Payne-Aldrich tax of 50.02 on sheets is cut to 25 per cent. The Payne-Aldrich duty on shirts, sweaters and all articles of cotton underwear of every description is reduced to 30 per cent. Similar reductions are made on every item in the entire cotton schedule.

CONSIDERATION FOR WOMEN.

The cotton bill reported by the Democratic Ways and Means committee is especially designed to benefit the women and children of the country, there being a reduction of more than 45 per cent on nearly every item in the cotton bill used by them.

Philippine Independence Looms Ahead. Speaker Champ Clark believes that the United States should grant independence to the Philippines, "both for their good and our own." Furthermore, Mr. Clark advocates early action on the subject. This is in contrast to the attitude of President Taft who takes the position the Philippines should not be given independence "within the time of the present generation," which the Philipinos interpret as meaning never.

Here is what speaker Clark recently wrote to a friend on the subject: "The Philippines should be given their independence guaranteed by the United States and such other powers as are willing to join us, I think our own guarantee would be sufficient, but I am for freeing them regardless of what the other powers do. My friend Judge Cline of Indiana has introduced a bill providing for their independence. I think we will pass it next winter, and then it will be up to the Senate and the President."

Why not a Roosevelt Investigation.

During the present auditing by the Democratic House of the Republican administrations for the last decade, it wouldn't be out of place to look into the Roosevelt-Harriman episode. The late railroad king raised $200,000 at Roosevelt's request to save New York for the Republicans in the Roosevelt-Parker campaign.

Republican Chaos.

The Republicans are literally up in the air, their old-time stand-bys, props and policies all shake in the Democratic upheaval. Reciprocity has helped Taft of course, but the Republicans have always won on protection. Taft has abandoned protection and the result is a matter of speculation.

Leasburg Items.

Mrs. and Mrs. B. F. Stanfield have been visiting their daughter Mrs. Burr, at Holly Spring.

Mrs. E. A. Love and children of Danville spent last week with relatives in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas have just returned from a visit to Norfolk and other points to the east.

The many friends of Mrs. Kate Bradsher were glad to see her back in the home town last week.

Mrs. A. M. Newsome and Marvin Jr. of Littleton are spending some time with Mrs. Newsome's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pulliam.

Mr. J. M. Armond's Mother and his cousin, Miss Cora Litchfield, are visiting his family now.

Miss Mildred Connally has just returned from a delightful house party given by one of her School mates at Warrenton.

Misses Annie Jay Graves of Atlanta, Rebecca Neal of McIver, and Minnie Middleton of Warsaw are spending the week at Mrs. E. G. Thompson's.

Miss Mary Underwood of the Louisburg college faculty is visiting her sister Mrs. W. E. Connally.

Mr. H. T. Connally was among the number who attended the Soldier's reunion at Manassas, he also visited Gettysburg and other battle grounds of the Civil war.

Mrs. M. C. Thomas has just returned from a visit to her son at Clayton.

Mrs. Eugenia Lea is spending a part of the summer at her old home. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dixon are in Clayton this week.

Mrs. E. G. Thompson will return with Miss Annie Jay Graves Thurs, for a visit to her brother's family in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trollinger entertained a Merry party of Leasburg boys and girls at a watermelon feast Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Ogburn, a fellow student of Mr. Ormond's at Vanderbilt University, is spending a while with Mr. Ormond helping him in revivals at several of his churches. We enjoyed two excellent sermons by Mr. Ogburn Sunday. Mr. Ormond and Mr. Ogburn sang a beautiful duet at the evening service.

We are hoping for a full and enthusiastic attendance the farmer's Institute which is to be held here on Wednesday, Aug. 2.

On Friday evening Aug. 4 an entertainment will be given entirely under the management of the little girls of Leasburg. The children have proved on previous occasions that they are capable of getting up charming programs, so we are looking forward to a unique and thoroughly entertaining evening. Ice cream and cake will be sold at the close of the program. The proceeds of the evening will go toward the remodeling of the church. The public is cordially invited.
