

"CURED MOTHER OF ULCERATIONS"

Rev. B. C. Thompson, of Aleshle, N. C., writes: "My mother was a great sufferer from an ulcerated trouble peculiar to women. She took Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash, and in a short time she was cured. We heartily recommend it to those suffering from cancerous or impure blood affections."

Ulcers and Old Sores are the result of bad blood, and can never be cured until the blood is thoroughly purified, and all poisons driven from the system. External applications alone can never do it. You must get right down to the seat of the trouble and eradicate the disease from the blood. For this purpose there is nothing so good as

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY.

It is the best Tonic, Alterative, Blood Purifier and Nerve ever offered, and we have the signed testimony of hundreds of living witnesses to prove it. These witnesses testify to the marvelous curative powers of this great remedy in cases of Eczema, Scrofula, Old Sores, and all troubles resulting from impure, impoverished and Poisoned Blood.

Many of these cures seem almost miraculous—patients given up by doctors and relatives brought back to the full bloom of health as if by magic—literally snatched from the grave. But these witnesses are so reliable, and speak in words of such convincing truthfulness that none who reads can doubt. We will be glad to send this written testimony to all who desire to know what Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash will do for others.

We want to help our afflicted brothers and sisters who are now hopelessly enduring the agonizing tortures of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Female Troubles and Blood Poison. We don't care how long standing your trouble is—Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will cure you, because it sends pure, rich blood bounding through your veins, puts solid, healthy flesh on your bones, and gives you strength to drive out disease.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is a strictly vegetable compound, absolutely harmless. It contains no dangerous minerals, and can be safely given to the smallest infant. Whenever the trouble is external, it is necessary to use the Wash with the Remedy.

KITCHIN.

Editor Farris puts in a Word for the Governor and His Democracy.

Eliminating the question of his chance for the United States Senate it makes us weary to hear some of the friends of political antagonists try and criticize Governor Kitchin's Democracy. Likewise there are some of our newspapers who print bright (?) paragraphs about the Governor of their State, with a flippancy that is sickening at the same time they are liable to boost the executive of another State because he is from another, and of whom they know little. The gallant rank of progressive Democracy never had a stronger or more virile-type of man in its ranks. And if in the coming contest he is successful he will be a potential figure for the good of his State and his party. The Democracy of North Carolina has as strong and as forceful men as any State, but there are some newspapers who never give this State its due credit. Are not her sons in the national Congress today as modern and vital for aggressive work as their colleagues? Certainly they are and it should be a source of pride to all that if Democracy continues still, in the ascendant the men from North Carolina will go to Washington and with prestige and tremendous personal force do great things for the State. Referring to Governor Kitchin—he is aggressive and fearless in attack, and is a Democrat ringing true—is active, always unafraid and thoroughly capable of that crowning political virtue an enduring human friendship and for which he has been criticised. The State first remembers him in Congress as the splendid young Democrat of this—the imperial fifth district—and also his campaign against the veteran and consummate politicians at various times since then and his crowning victory. The South has had few young Congressmen who won more of the confidence and acquired more influence during the time of an overwhelming Republican majority in Congress than he—and his colleagues esteem his honesty, his character and ability in high degree. Discounting such a man can only be cheap politics.

Great Advantage to Working Men.

J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley's kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley Pills have cured me and have my highest praise."

THE NEXT RURAL CONVENIENCE

The Farmers Union has added its endorsement of the general demand for a parcels post. This is one of those great reforms in the interest of the masses of the people that are blocked by selfish interests. When John Wannamaker was postmaster general of the United States he said that there were four reasons why we did not have a parcels post. These four reasons were: "The American Express Company, the Adams Express Company, the United States Express Company, and the Wells-Fargo Express Company." And to this day, these powerful corporations that are making millions by exorbitant rates, are able to keep the Congress of the United States from modernizing the people's post-office department and giving the public in the United States the equal service that every first class European government is giving its subjects.

A citizen of Union county can send a package of more than four pounds to Europe cheaper than he can send it to New York. This is because he cannot mail a package weighing over four pounds to any point in this country, but can mail a larger package to Europe. If he wants to get a package or send one in this country he must take it to the express office, instead of the postoffice, and the express companies charge enough to pay big dividends on millions of watered stock. As an example of the oppressive measures of these combines, one of them, the Wells-Fargo, in 1909, declared a dividend of 310 per cent, and left a big surplus in the treasury. This company has increased its capital stock from $5,000,000 to $240,000,000 and left a cash surplus of $3,600,000. To do this, the express companies have kept their servants for years in the United States senate, the most valuable of who was the notorious Platt, a large holder of express stock and an officer of one of the companies.

How long will the American people keep their eyes blinded to the robbery that is committed in the name of business?

Why can a European send through his postoffice any distance a package weighing eleven pounds for twenty-two cents, while no American can mail at all a package larger than four pounds, and for even that must pay 64 cents?

John Wannamaker gave the reasons. The postoffice department could carry packages at a fourth the rate the express companies do and make money. And even at their exorbitant rates these companies do not serve the people efficiently. As it is a farmer living ten miles from Monroe needs something that cannot be received at home, but must be ordered. He orders it by express, pays an exorbitant rate and then gets it only a part of the way. He must lose a day to come to the express office to get it. Now, if he had the parcels post as we should have, his package would be mailed to him at half the price, and carried to his door by the mail carrier. But because the "Four Reasons" want to continue to make millions on watered stock, our farmers must continue to lose days to go to the express office and our business men must continue to pay enormous rates.

And it will be so till the people send to congress men who are friends to them instead of friends to the express companies.—Carolina Democrat.

No Way To Stop This Trust.

For years and years the sugar trust is known to have stoien from the government. By means of false weights and tricky springs to cheat the scales, and by bribery of government officials, this rapacious trust diverted into its own coffers millions of dollars, that should have gone to the government in revenue. The trust was caught red handed in its thievery, yet no body was punished; no body went to jail.

The government finally put a stop to the revenue stealing. The doctored springs were taken away, and the corrupt customs collectors were discharged. This forced the trust to adopt new methods in order to maintain its inflated dividends, so recently it sent out a wail about a "short crop" and now sugar trust is determined to get "it's."

Champ Clark—An Example.

(Mexico) Mo., Intelligencer. The great gathering of folk at Louisiana, Missouri, to pay their respects to Champ Clark and extend to him in a public manner a sincere welcome home, was significant in more ways than one. It typified the esteem and respect in which Champ Clark is held after the major portion of his life has been spent as a public servant. This sort of expression on the part of people was, perhaps, never equaled in all American history. The event is one that live will always as a testimonial to the integrity of purpose of the acts, public and private, of Champ Clark, who began life as a plowboy.

A year or two ago one Free-land Tharpe attempted to kill a Miss Ball, of Elkin, who was teaching school in Wilkes county. The girl was seriously wounded but recovered. Tharpe attempted the murder because he was in love with the girl and she did not favor his suit. He did his best to kill her and it is not his fault that she is alive today. Tharpe was sentenced to the penitentiary for a few years—probably five or seven, was a light sentence considering the nature of the crime. Now an attempt is to be made to secure pardon.

Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

TAKE THE CARDUI Woman's Tonic
