No. 45

WOODROW WILSON ELECTED.

Democratic Success Made Certain Before 10 O'clock at Night. Victory Complete.

Wilson Carries New York With Sulzer, Maine and Massachusetts Also. Nearly all Doubtful States Democratic.

The election of Governor Wilson, of New Jersey, as president, and Governor Marshall, of Indiana, as vice-president, by a safe majority of electoral votes was made certain by incomplete returns received from the country at-large up to 10 o'clock. With Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio and other large states represented by only meagre reports, the success of the Democratic ticket in the majority of the heavily populated states was certain.

The early returns gave Governor Wilson the "solid South" and Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York and apparently West Virginia, Indiana, and Missouri.

Roosevelt's victory in Illinois, conceded early in the evening by the Democratic leaders, promised at 10 o'clock to carry with it a plurality greater than 100,000.

New Hampshire and Vermont apparently had given a majority to Taft on the basis of fairly comprehensive returns received at that time.

The states where results were reasonably certain at 10 o'clock leave the following electoral votes:

Wilson, 267; Roosevelt, 29; Taft, 8.

Pleasure Club.

Mrs. A. M. Burns delightfully entertained the Pleasure Club and other guests on Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Cheek of Sanford, sister of the hostess was an honored guest for the afternoon.

Rook was played with much interest at five tables, Mrs. Will Long won the club prize for the highest score and Miss Frances Compton won the visitors prize, both were given silver spoons. At the close of the games delightful refreshments were served in two courses.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 5.—New York state will cast 45 electoral votes for Governor Woodrow Wilson for president. Congressman William Sulzer was elected governor.

At 10:00 only about two-thirds of the up-state districts and about half of the city districts had been counted. Upon these returns Republican Chairman Barnes conceded that Governor Wilson had carried the state by about 100,000, while Democratic State Chairman Palmer claimed that Wilson would have a plurality of 250,000.

Governor-elect Sulzer sent telegrams to Governors Wilson and Marshall extending best wishes and sincere congratulations.

Carry the News to Ted.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kyler, of Denison, Texas, sent a telegram to President Taft, received today at the white house, announcing the birth of three sons, named William Howard Taft Kyler, Theodore Roosevelt Kyler and Woodrow Wilson Kyler.

In the president's name, Assistant Secretary Brahany today sent expressing the wish that the triplets would live long and be prosperous.

Gov. Kitchin in Roxboro.

Last Monday was a red letter day in Roxboro for Democracy. Gov. Kitchin spoke and was greeted by a large crowd the crowd being limited only to the capacity of the house, and for more than two hours he talked to that throng. To say that it was a great speech but expresses it mildly, for it was the greatest speech ever delivered in this town. It was clean, free from any animosity—in fact he never makes any other kind, regardless of what some of the partisan papers say to the contrary. He will always be welcomed to this, his home town, and can count on the multitudes coming in when the announcement is made that he is to speak.

Hon. Locke Craig.

STATE DEMOCRATIC BY 50,000

Figures Sent in Most Cases: Only of Senatorial Contest, Democracy's Landslide is so Overwhelming—All Ten Congressmen Returned—Legislature Overwhelmingly Democratic.

With a crush too great to fish out details, every indication is that North Carolina has gone Democratic by more than fifty thousand.

At State Democratic headquarters last night, Chairman Charles A. Webb and Secretary Walter E. Brown received returns with out a disappointment at a solitary precinct. From the various correspondents of the News and Observer, returns will be found in which the several phases of the election are told.

The legislature will be overwhelmingly Democratic, larger at the 1913 sitting, it now appears, than the 1911 session. This insures the re-election of Senator F. M. Simmons, whose defeat of Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Walter Clark is an established certainty.

In addition to more than a two-thirds majority in the General Assembly, North Carolina has returned her ten congressmen, each by an increased majority. Very incomplete returns appear to show that Congressmen John M. Faison, from the third; Edward W. Pou from the fourth; Charles M. Stedman from the fifth; Hannibal L. Godwin from the sixth; Robert N. Page, unopposed, from the seventh; R. L.

Doughter, from the eighth; E. Yates Webb from the ninth, and J. M. Gidger, Jr., from the tenth. All are re-elected. Their majorities may total 75,000.

So great has been the Democratic landslide in the State that The News and Observer correspondents have dismissed the figures with a statement that the Democrats won.

WILSON AND MARSHALL BY A LANDSLIDE.

It was a veritable Wilson and Marshall landslide, and the country goes Democratic by a majority that keeps growing as the returns keep pouring in from all over the country.

How great this majority will be can only be estimated and can be gathered from the telegraphic reports printed in another part of this paper which tell the running story of the contest at the polls. The victory is complete one, and Democracy can celebrate and rejoice.

The returns as far as received indicate that Democratic legislatures have been elected in a sufficient number of States where Senators are to be chosen to make the United States Senate a Democratic body. Six Democratic Senators are needed with eighteen seats in the Senate now occupied by Republicans involved in yesterday's election, and it appears in incomplete returns that more than this number will be elected.

With the complete returns showing that Democracy has elected the next President, has converted the Republican majority in the House. The outlook is for the rule of the people. With these departments of the government in the control of Democracy the people can be of good cheer. Democracy has pledged legislation in their behalf and Democracy will make good its pledges. It was the Day of the People yesterday, and the people are now to be considered by the government.

This country will begin a new era of progress and of prosperity with Woodrow Wilson as President. He is a man of wisdom, of ability and of a singleness of purposes to serve the people. He is a courageous man and when he finds injustice and oppression, no matter what are the odds, he enters into the fight against them. His life has shown that he will be the Peoples' President, with no back door, or side door, or pri-ivate entrance for Privilege. He committed his cause to the people and they have won it for him. He will serve the people, loyally, faithfully, earnestly, courageously. And so it is a happy day for the people as they read the figures that show Woodrow Wilson is elected.

And each man and woman who cast a vote for Woodrow Wilson can also be given congratulations this morning, for the vote cast for him was a vote cast for the interests of the people. The victory is the peoples victory and the people can rejoice. As Governor Wilson well put it in his final message to the American people, the decision of the fifth of November has ushered in "a new day of confidence, freedom and prosperity," and, further, that this has been "no niggardly triumph of a party or a faction, but the triumph of the people. The Democratic party will be, not the selfish voter, but the trusted instrument, and the years that follow will test every principle of the great Republic."

The closing words of that address may well be pondered again this morning. He said: "God grant we may be worthy to prevail." That prayer was answered yesterday, and the people, inspired to new ideals, look with confidence to Woodrow Wilson and the Democracy to lead the way to better things for this great country. And Woodrow Wilson and Democracy will be true to the great trust reposed in them.
